Courier-Journal.

Considerable of a sensation, involvwoman, has just developed in the East end, in the breaking up of an en gagement between the parties, the woman now being in Cincinnati, preparing her outfit and everything for the wedding. To give the full partic-ulars of the affair, an incident that occurred in 1876 must be given, in which the same woman, then very young, was concerned. The young couple STOLE AWAY TO JEFFERSONVILLE, where they were quietly married. The marriage created a great sensation, and the girl's father was furious The young couple thought he would finally take his daughter back to his heart, but he never relented, and died several years ago without recognizing her, and cut her off without a dollar. Soon after their marriage they removed to Ohie, where they lived for some time. The girl soon found that her affections had been sadly misplaced, and her husband proved to be utterly worthless, and was finally arrested for robbery and sent to the penitentiary, where he now is. His wife was near ly heart-broken by this blow, and returned to Louisville, leaving her little child up there. She soon recovered, however, and obtained a divorce fromher nusband. Her usual spirits gradually came back to her, and she seemed to soon forget her unfortunate matriage and ventured out in society again, going in rather recklessly. She was handsome, well educated and accomplished, and had quite a number of admirers. She became very intimate with a young man in this city, who appeared greatly infatuated with her and paid her considerable attention. The girl finally yielded to his make this liberal offer. FENNINGER. Wis., May 3, 81. Omaha Publishing Co: Decar Sin: --My premium to THE BER came to hand in good order, consisting of, one boit of lonsdale muslin, a No. 1 article. Please accept my thanks hoping that The BER may continue its good work of de-nouncing the monopoly and pooling fraud of the west, as I am interested in the farm-ing interest of Nebraska, expecting soon to till some of its fertile soil. Yours respectfully,

DUNCAN, Neb. , June 6, '81

Your premium for life scholarship duly received, and am much oblige. Yours truly, MRS. V. C. WITCHEY.
