THE STORM

The Worst Weather of the Present Winter Come and Gone.

Venor Hits the Nail on the Head for Once.

A SMASH.

The Breaking of a Switch Rod Demoralizes Three Engines.

The West bound Denver fast line, No. 1, on the U. P. Monday met with quite an accident at Summit Siding, three miles west of the city.

No. 1 was going over the summit, with two engines drawing her, a freight lay on the siding waiting for her to pass.

At this juncture the switch rod broke and one engine and part of the next took the main line and the tank of the second engine.

The damage was not heavy and the delay was short. No one was hurt but if the train had been running fast there would have been a terrible wreck.

A sale of the Methodist church property, at the southeast corner of Seventeenth street and Capitol avenue, was closed up Monday, Mr. Gilbert M. Hitchcock, eldest son of the late Senator Hitchcock, and one of Omaha's rising and promising young attorneys, being the purchaser.
