A Goat in a Masonic Lodge. New York Herald.

The ladies of Tarrytown gave a surprise party to the members of Solomon Lodge, No. 196, F. and A. M., at their Lodge rooms, on Thursday night. The Lodge had just about closed its session when the ladies and their escorts invaded the secret and solemn precincts of the Masonic brethren. The visitors were heartily welcomed, but were informed that there was still one duty to perform The ladies of Tarrytown gave a suring matters Masonic which the outside world had no business to know.

Accordingly, after the reception, Accordingly, after the reception, the announcement was made that for the entertainment of the ladies the disciplining would be made public. The Master, with the solemnity of an owl, took his seat and ordered the disobedient brother to be brought before him. A door opened and there appeared six masked men, representing devils, imps, serpents and other reptiles, armed with spears, who marched slowly and solemnly toward the Master's seat. Behind these was the culprit bound with ropes and dressed in semi-barbaric attire. Be dressed in semi-barbaric attire. Behind him danced a big billygoat, with hind him danced a big billygoat, with long horns and ample beard. To each horn was attached a rope, in the hands of a man. The procession marched up before the Master, and the presentment was duly made. The Master, in sepalerral tones, began to address the member, picturing to him the terrible fate in store for a man who betrayed his trust. The miles 5 laps behind Rowell, and but 5 miles 5 laps behind his record and was goat was drawn up closely behind the talking brother, and just at the most interesting point in the address the men in charge of the goat prodded him with sticks, and he made one grand lunge for the unfortunate man in front of him, knocking him about ten feet and upshipping the Master from his chair. The goat then turned his attention to the masked members, upsetting a couple of them, and causing a general roar of laughter from

George W. Stevens, on the 28th day of February, 1867, and reissued Feb. 19. 1878, reissue No 8091, for improvement in Egg Cases.

After nearly four cars of litigation with "Schroder & Seavers" of New York, and aft r a "final heari g" upon the merits, the said "Stevens" reissued patent, No. 8.91 was decided to be a good and valid patent by His Honor Hoyt H. Wheeler, U. S. Judge, at N. w York, on the 18th day of July, 1881; a vid thereafter, and on the 5th day of Au ust, 1881, a final decree was entered in said cause, awarding a perpetual in junction against "schroder & Seavers" and for an account for profits and damages.

After the above decree was filed, an application was made by the said "Schroder & Seavers" for a rehearing. Said rehearing was granted, and on the 2sth day of January, 1882, His Honor Hoyth wheeler affirmed his former decision, thus fully sustaining the patent after a double flearing.

On Feb. 10, 1882, His Honor Geo. W. McCrary, U. S. Judge at Keokuk, lowa, granted an injunction against Henry Weis (manufacturer of the "North Star Case"). Burlington, lowa, restraining him from further manufacturing selling or using said cases
