METEOROLOGICAL.

The Weather of the Winter Month of February.

The meteorological summary for the month of February has just been issued from the signal office and shows some interesting figures.

The mean barometer was 30,107, and the thermometer 36.3. The mean humidity was 63 4, and the mean daily rainfall .021 inches.

The highest barometer, on the 19th, was 20,553 and the lowest, on the 27th, 29.637. The highest temperature, on the 11th, was 63.8 and the lowest, on the 21st, 5 7. The greatest daily range of temperature was on the 31 and the lowest, on the 20th, 98°. The prevailing direction of the wind was south; and to total movement 6,993 milesr

There were 13 clear days, 11 fair deys and 1 foggy day. There were but six days on which rain or snow fell, but there were frosts on the 2, 3, 4, 8, 9, 19 and 24. With the exception of the years

Detroit Free Cress He had asked the man in the seat behind him for a chew of fine-cut, and after stuffing half the contents of the box into his mouth he had put the box itself into his pocket. When reminded of this he replied:

"Bless me - bless me! Why so I did! Hope you won't take offense, sir, for I had entirely forgotten it. Dear me! but I find fresh evidences every day that I am not what I used to be. I see that I am losing my memory.

"That's too bad," said the other. 'How long have you been thus afflicted?" "Exactly thirteen years ago to day."

Did some accident happen to you then?' "Accident? Bless you, my dear sir, it was a terrible thing. I was hung by a mob.

"Is that so? I don't want to be impertinent, but I should really like to hear about it.' "Certainly-no impertinence about that. I was in Denver. My business there was to sell pianos and organs. One night I called at a house to see about the sale of a piano, and I found the lady murdered in the hall. While I was standing there, horror-struck and terrified, several parties came up, accused me of the deed, and in ten minutes a mob had a rope around my neck. I was dragged to a tree given two minutes to pray, and then pulled up." "Hung by the neck?" "Yes-a regular hangman's noose and the end of the rope was made fast and I was left swinging."

"Great Scots! and—and—but you
