

The Indian Insurrectionists.
National Associated Press.
TUCSON, A. T., March 5.—Forty Indian prisoners at Ft. Lowell, who were implicated in the Cibola outbreak, will be returned to San Carlos under a military escort and set at liberty. Their capture, detention and transfer has cost the government $1,500. Although evidence is conclusive of their participation in the outbreak, no effort has been made to enforce a legal examination into the facts or measures taken to furnish them. Public feeling is that the government made a great mistake in the removal of the Indians to the reservation, as they have boasted that the whites dare not punish them.

Aid of the Jews.
National Associated Press.
BROOKLYN, March 5.—A mass meeting of Jewish citizens of this city was held this afternoon at the Temple of Bethlehem to protest against the persecution of Israelites in Europe, and to consider measures for the relief of Russian refugees now arriving in the United States. Resolutions were adopted expressing sadness, indignation and horror at the persecution and cruelties to which the Jews of Russia have been subjected during the past year; sympathizing with the afflicted and down-trodden exiles, who have been rendered homeless and reduced to poverty, and pledging material aid in order to enable them to come to this country. After several addresses had been made, a committee of fifty was appointed on subscription. Some $2,000 was subscribed by those present.

New Orleans, March 5.—Last evening the three-story brick, corner of Front and Poydras streets, occupied by Charles A. Snyder, tobacco manufacturer, took fire. The building and contents were destroyed. Loss, $10,000; insurance unknown. The flames spread rapidly and the roof fell, throwing down the outer wall. Stephen Grains' leg was broken and three others were slightly injured. It is reported others are under the ruins, the truth of which cannot be ascertained.

Mail and Stage Robberies.
National Associated Press.
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 5.—Joseph Sheely arrived this evening with two men charged with robbing the mail between Goliad and Cuero. They were placed in jail. McHenry connected with the robbery and jailed several days ago revealed all and the officers find things as he represented. They recovered about $400 stolen money. Sheely has already been arrested and convicted of eleven stage robberies.

The Grand Trunk Train Shooting.
National Associated Press.
STRATFORD, Ont., March 5.—The Detroit gamblers arrested in connection with the shooting of a companion named Johnson on the Grand Trunk train were arraigned yesterday before a magistrate and remanded for a week, owing to difficulty of the crown officers to make them testify. It is said that the Detroit chief of police secured the party that fired the shot that killed Johnson and that he will be extradited immediately.

Philadelphia Election Frauds.
National Press Association.
PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—Renewed excitement has been occasioned in political circles to-day by the announcement from the counsel for the citizens' committee of one hundred that warrants will be sworn out tomorrow for the arrest of thirteen men, many of them election officers, on the charge of violating the election laws at the municipal election last month. One of the accused is a prominent member of the city council. The committee on fraud has prepared a report based on a mass of reliable testimony relating to frauds perpetrated at the last November election which they say will create a sensation. Official public statement of some facts in the case will be made tomorrow. The grand jury yesterday afternoon found five true bills against as many men for illegal votes and five elections officers for whose arrest warrants were issued yesterday have fled the city.

Attempted Safe Robbery.
National Associated Press.
TRINITY, Tex., March 5.—A bold and daring attempt was made this evening at 7 o'clock to rob the safe in the office of the contractors of the Trinity & Sabine railway. Three masked men lay in wait for Mr. Murphy, one of the firm, and five of his employes, and bound them one by one as they returned to the office after supper. Mr. Murphy was covered by a revolver, and one of the men was commanding him to open the safe when the colored porter made his appearance. He was ordered to throw up his hands, but instead of doing this he ran down the street, pursued by one of the men, who fired a number of ineffectual shots after him. Alarm being given, the would-be robbers made their way to their horses and made good their escape.

River Steamer Sunk.
National Associated Press.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 5.—The steamer James D. Parker, from Cincinnati to Memphis, while going over the falls about noon went down in 18 feet of water just below the bridge, leaving nothing but the hurricane deck visible. She carried thirty passengers and over 500 tons of freight. The widest rumors prevailed in regard to the disaster and thousands of people gathered on the bridge and on the shores to witness the wreck. It was ascertained that all the passengers had escaped, though some were nearly drowned before being rescued. The loss on the boat is about $20,000 and on the cargo about $100,000. The boat is a total wreck and will doubtless go to pieces in the morning. The cause of the wreck was striking a current so strong as to make the boat unmanageable and wheeling around she struck a reef and was so badly crippled that she at once went down. She was insured at Cincinnati. The crew of the life saving station here rendered valuable assistance to the passengers.

Pennsylvania Politics.
National Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—A conference of delegates from the trade societies of this city have resolved to bring into existence a new organization to supplant the national grange labor party, and arrangements have been made to formally set the movement in motion at a mass meeting in the Academy of Music, on the 16th inst. The idea underlying the affair is to make mechanics and trades' unionists a power in state and local politics. Delegates are expected at the meeting from different parts of the country, and a committee of one hundred will be asked to coalesce with the new movement in order to dethrone political bosses in the city and state. The president of the acting executive committee is strongly anti-Cameron.

That Philadelphia Hebrew Marriage.
National Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Samuel M. Major, Moses Stein, Louis Long and Henry Walters, prominent Hebrew merchants and storekeepers. Simon M. Stein, the complainant, charges that the defendants, one of whom is his father and another a brother, entered into a conspiracy to compel Annie Lederman, when his betrothed, to sign a paper confessing theft of thirteen yards of ribbon in order to have an excuse for demanding that the engagement should be broken. Stein married the girl about three weeks ago. The accused will have a hearing to-morrow.

Foreign News.
National Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 5.—Although every day brings a small contingent of killed and wounded from the seat of the insurrection, there is evidently a pause in active operations on the part of the Austrians. This is doubtless due to the precaution with which the military authorities are compelled to proceed. They cannot employ large masses of troops and are obliged to fortify every strategic position that falls in their hands. The insurgents meanwhile harass the soldiers at work and do what they can to interrupt communications. General Strausky, in command at Serajovo, has just applied for and obtained permission of the Emperor to deal summarily with any persons convicted of maliciously impeding railway traffic. They are to be handed over to the nearest military tribunal and are subject to the penalty of death. This measure is a consequence of several attempts to throw trains off the line between Brod and Zenica by placing large stones on the rails. A reward of 100 florins is offered anybody reporting such persons to the authorities.

THE QUEEN.
LONDON.—Several thanksgiving services were held yesterday in all churches throughout the country for the safety of the queen in the late attempt on her life at Windsor station.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 5.—Investigation shows that the woman, Henry Hellmann, who was sentenced to death for connection with the assassination of the czar, and whose sentence was afterward commuted to imprisonment for life, died during childbirth in prison in this city.
THE JEWISH PERSECUTION.
The agricultural and administrative system at present in operation in Jewish colonies upon the crown lands of the southern governments of Cherson and Jekatherinow is to be reorganized according to a plan now in course of preparation by the commission of crown domains administration. Altogether these Jewish colonies number some 33,000 persons, of whom but a small number pursue agriculture, the majority being engaged in industry and trade. It is considered by the Russian government that the latter are not permanently living there, leaving their agricultural neighbors to pay all taxes, are merely a burden on the colony and should be expelled. The entire community will therefore be subjected to careful scrutiny, and all such Jews as do not devote themselves to agriculture and are not settled residents, will be required to quit the crown and state. It is estimated this measure will involve the expulsion of some 2,000 families who at present use the lands for trade and go and come as they like.

Years of Suffering.
Mrs. Barnard, corner Pratt and Broadway, Buffalo, was for twelve years a sufferer from rheumatism, and after trying every known remedy without avail, was entirely cured by THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL.

Wedding Fifty Years Ago.
New York York.

In the early part of this century weddings in New York were not the elaborate affairs they are now. The festivities began and ended with the marriage ceremony. There were no ushers, no rehearsing at the church beforehand, no receptions after the bride and groom returned from a trip of a few days—a seldom a few weeks—for the gentleman could rarely leave his business. There were bridesmaids and groomsmen, no best man. Weddings usually took place in the evening at the bride's residence, and not infrequently the happy pair went to the house that had been hired by the groom and furnished by the bride's family. The bride's trousseau at that time was very simple. She never wore a veil. This was introduced some years later, was only one yard square of a simple net, covered with thread embroidery, and was pinned up on the head behind. Since then veils have increased in quality and quantity, till they are now priceless heirlooms among the rich families of the country. The bride's dress was of plain, unadorned material, short, and as the fashion both in the skirt and waist. Pearls, not diamonds, were the height of her ambition, though diamond rings were beginning to be worn. The entertainment, or refreshment, was also much simpler. There was a wedding cake with a rick in it, to be cut by the bride. Sherry was used in much greater quantities than any other kind of wine. Champagne was a luxury only used on grand occasions, while at ordinary parties porter was frequently served. The caterers were two or three colored men, who were found sufficient for every emergency. French cooking not having as yet come in. Dinner parties (except the most elaborate) were all in the daytime. As for parties, every one was invited for 8 o'clock and expected to leave at 12.

Entertainments fifty years ago had not seen the waltz that was introduced a few years afterwards. Country dances, "the bouldanger," a very pretty wheel-figured dance, not unlike the court quadrille, were the favorites. A cotillon, not the elaborate German now danced, was also in vogue. The dresses were short, showing the white or black tied satin slipper. The waist and sleeves were short, to correspond with the skirt. One of the party dresses of the period was of white satin with a cerise-colored crepe lisse overdress hanging loose. Flowers were not used as now. If a gentleman sent them to a lady, it was thought his intentions were very serious—a sort of floral declaration. If a lady had more than one suitor, she was tied to her side, trophies of her fascination, by a ribbon. A bouquet, costing $5 was considered the height of elegance in those days of primitive simplicity. The satirist in New York, when the waltz was first introduced, had as ample a field for his observations as the day compared it to. Turantula, what would they have called some of the dances of to-day?

About thirty years ago entertainments in the daytime were introduced. In the daytime were introduced. A well known leader in society found luxurious living had increased sufficiently to warrant the acceptance of her invitations by ladies and gentlemen of leisure, and a morning cotillon was greatly enjoyed from its novelty. Other families followed the example, and the 4 and 5 o'clock teas of to-day are gatherings of but a slightly different nature. In those days of old fashioned Knickerbocker hospitality, sociable evenings were really so. There was time for a pleasant evening with apples, nuts and cider, or fruit in warm weather, to regale the guests while discussing the latest fashionable event. There were no clubs or teas, receptions or balls, to take up a man's time out of business hours, no straining every nerve to keep up with the times, and then running down, as now. It was the age of moderation. The comfortable state of things continued up to nearly twenty-five years ago. Then the excitement of gold fever in California turned men's heads and women's hearts in more senses than one. New York caught the fever, and favoring circumstances rapidly developing millionaires and the city alike, almost all vestiges of old New York disappeared.
