C., March 8.—Bills were favorably reported providing for the sale of part of the reservation of the Omaha tribe of Indians in Nebraska; to provide for the sale of certain Chickasaw Indian lands; to provide for the allotment of lands in severalty to the United Peorias and Miami of Indian territory.

Mr. Conger called up the bill to provide for a commission on the subject of alcoholic liquor traffic. A motion by Mr. Bayard to refer to the finance committee was lost 19 to 26.

The debate on the Chinese bill was resumed by Mr. Platt, who declared that he could not vote for the measure because it violated the spirit of the treaty and principles of right and justice.

In concluding a two hours' speech, Mr. Platt said that he could vote for the bill to prevent the Chinese coming in such numbers as to endanger our political and social institutions or tend to ruin and degrade labor, but could not vote for the bill whose only act was the exclusion of Chinamen and to strike a blow at free trade.

Mr. Ingalls' amendment limiting suspension of immigration to ten years was lost by a vote of 23 to 23, as follows:

Messrs. Bayard, Beck, Call, Cameron (Wis.), Coke, Fair, Harley, Garland, Miller (Cal.), Morgan, Slater, George, Hale, Hampton, Hill, (Col.) Jones, (N. Y.) McPherson, Maxey, Miller, (N. Y.) Ransom, Vest, Walker—23.

After debate by Messrs. Hoar and Edmunds on the bill, Mr. Ingalls offered another amendment to the effect that the act should not go into force until sixty days after its passage had been communicated to the government of China. Then came a tilt between Messrs. Ingalls and Dawes, on which the latter lost his temper but did no harm.

The proposed amendment was opposed by Messrs. Farley and Miller.

Mr. Hoar then offered the following addition:

"Providing, that this bill shall not apply to any skilled laborer who can establish that he comes to this country without any contract by which his labor is the property of any person other than himself." Lost—yeas 17, nays 27.

On motion of Mr. Miller (Cal.) the fourteenth section providing for the removal of Chinese unlawfully in the country was amended by adding the words: "To the place from whence he came."

Mr. Hawley took the floor to speak on Mr. Farley's amendment to prohibit state naturalization and at 6:10 the senate adjourned.

A communication was received from the secretary of war suggesting an increase of 500 in enlisted men in the navy. Referred.

The house spent the afternoon on bills on the speaker's desk, passing a number, among them being the bill authorizing the secretary of war to pay the army of the Cumberland $7,500 to aid in the erection of monument to J. A. Garfield.

A communication was received from the postmaster general conveying a draft of the bill authorizing the postmaster general to retain from the pay of contractors any sum which they agree to pay sub-contractors for carrying the mails and which they have refused to pay to pay for two quarters, and to contract with sub-contractors at no more than the original contract price.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The president gives a state dinner to the judges of the supreme court on Wednesday next.

Representatives of the National Association of Grape Sugar manufacturers appeared before the ways and means committee to-day to oppose the proposed legislation against the manufacture of glucose. They claimed their manufacture to be a pure and harmless production, giving employment to fifty thousand persons, who would be flooded out of work by the passage of the bill.

It is reported that Secretary Folger will soon issue the 110th call for bonds.

The Chinese minister, who is taking great interest in the debate on the Chinese bill in the senate, has expressed himself in favor of the proposed bill of ten years limit being established.

One of the points made in the Scoville bill of exceptions is that shortly after the assassination a secret session of the cabinet was held, at which District Attorney Corkhill and a detective officer were present, and at which conclusion it was unanimously expressed that Guitau was crazy, notwithstanding this, and Attorney General McVeagh's frequent statement of his belief that Guitau was insane as Corkhill persisted in the prosecution. Corkhill denies that such a conference was held.

Hon. S. B. Hollister, of Cincinnati, is mentioned as likely to be made minister to the Sandwich Islands in case Minister Conley is recalled.

The president's dinner in return for courtesy received was attended in the private dining room at the White House this evening by Secretary and Mrs. Frelinghuysen, Secretary and Mrs. Hunt, Secretary Lincoln and ex-Secretary and Mrs. Blaine, Vice-President Davis, Senator and Mrs. Edmunds, Senator and Mrs. Hale, Senator and Mrs. McPherson, and Senator and Mrs. Hill, of Colorado.

Attempted Suicide.

KANSAS CITY, March 8.—This morning a number of school children while on the way to school, discovered the body of a man covered with blood lying in the snow near Twenty-first street on Charlotte street. They quickly gave the alarm and people who came found that the man was Theodore Sobbe, a German shoemaker, and that he was still alive, though his throat was terribly gashed, showing no less than six different wounds had been inflicted. A razor was found lying by his side, and it was quickly determined that he had attempted to take his own life. He attempted once before to kill himself and has made repeated declarations that he would yet accomplish it. About two weeks ago he sharpened a knife and made his family believe he was going to cut his throat. Sobbe is a man 57 years old and has been a resident of this city 16 years. RAW RATIONS.

The Sufferers Couldn't Wait to Cook the Supplies,

But Gobbled Them as Soon as Issued and Ate Them Raw.

Well Off a Short Time Ago, but Now on the Verge of Starvation.

Very Little Hope for the Future in the Cotton States.

National Associated Press.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 8.—In an interview this morning, M. L. Harris, agent for distributing supplies to sufferers from the overflow in Dasha county, reports the destitution as heart-rending. When the supplies were landed at Arkansas City, he found hundreds of ravenous people waiting. Some on receiving rations commenced eating them raw. The ration as distributed was, for adults, a quarter of a peck of meal and four pounds of bacon; this to last one week. The destitution is not confined to colored people, and many white farmers, well off a short time ago, are to-day on the verge of starvation and some have died from hunger and cold. The aid distributed revived the hearts of all, but the continuous rains leave little hope in the immediate future, and several other counties in Arkansas are in an equally destitute and starving condition; also portions of Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana. The government must do more for humanity's sake. The greater portion of the stock is drowned or has died from cold and hunger and the situation is cheerless and frightful.

Washington, March 8.—The secretary of war has been informed that about 18,000 persons in Mississippi, 20,000 in Arkansas and 50,000 in Tennessee are without supplies or means for securing them. Miscellaneous News that Came Over the Cable.

National Associated Press.

GERMANY COUNTING CHICKENS.

LONDON, March 8.—The czar has sent congratulations to the new king and queen of Serbia. The establishment of the new dominion is regarded with favor by all European powers save Turkey. The czar in this communication expresses publicly his good will and friendly relations with Germany, but at the same time German newspapers and associations openly discuss the probabilities of war with Russia and point to the advantages Germany might gain in such a conflict. The Kleine Gazette, inspired sometimes by the Prussian foreign office, proposes the annexation by Germany of east Siberia and Saghalien in the event of a victorious war with Russia.

The Modern Dinner.

Nowadays, an invitation to dinner is like a draft. It is to be honored at sight, but usually with a three days' grace. Unless the receiver honors the demand, or furnishes a reasonable excuse, he may be said, to have repudiated his obligations. It is purely a business affair, this dinner-giving and dinner-accepting transaction. Most families keep a set of books in which all dealings of the sort are posted with mathematical accuracy. Single men, who have no helpmate to remind them of their engagements, post their dinner cards where they may be seen every morning, stern monitors of the day's "pleasures." Then there is the call which must be paid by the invited guests within seven days after the dinner has been eaten or declined; and when this obligation is discharged the honest member of society thanks his star and takes courage. How different all this is from the visiting and the unconstrained social intercourse of the older time! The country knows no more the hearty and natural manners of those days. Country festivities have taken on the "airs" of the city without their completeness and polish. There is no heart left in the city "entertainment," as we call it, with its waiting sarcasm and the freedom and ease of country living are going out with the good old customs. And by and by, we shall come to such a melancholy pass that when one enters a house without a ticket he shall be ignominiously handed over to the police as a social tramp.
