Startling Statement From an Unexpected Source.

National Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, March 13 .- A sensation was created at the meeting of Methodist Ministers' association today by the speech of Colonel J. G. Bryant, of Atlanta, Ga. He said the lost cause was still alive in the southern states and was being pushed systematically. The Southern Historical society at Richmond was the nucleus laxed. Within the past few days, around which its adherents were now however, it has become known that a rallying. The Methodist Episcopal Church South, who are trying to organize colored men out of their ranks into a separate body, would go to war succeed; consequently the two bodies of the Methodists South, one about
