STATE SOCIAL EVENTS. A Variety of Domestic Events—Religious and Educational Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McElroy, of Grand Island, celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage on the 8th. Numerous friends witnessed the "reunion" and enjoyed a good old time. Many had some gifts were received.

Wellington Flansburg and Miss Ella Lacey, of this city, have joined in the struggle for "life, liberty and happiness." The ceremony took place on the 6th and the newly wedded pair retired at once to the new home north of the B. and O. Road precinct.

Probably the most stylish and aristocratic wedding of the season, says The Plattsmouth Journal was that of Mr. George E. Dreyer and Miss Marie Dawson, both from among the most estimable and popular young people of that city, at the Episcopal church at three o'clock Sunday, the 12th instant. The ladies of the bridal party were attired in rich and beautiful costumes that won the admiration of all present.

The firm of Sanders & Co. is the latest addition to the institutions of Wyoming. The articles of copartnership were signed in the presence of a minister on the 14th. The marriage of John J. Boardman and Eva Rice, at O. C. on the 9th, was a brilliant epoch in the social life of the town.

The fortieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. W. Barnes, of Grand Island, was pleasantly observed by the family and immediate friends on the 9th. A company of some two dozen ladies and gentlemen mostly married ladies with their husbands—honored the occasion with their presence, and were most handsomely entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Miller, of Grafton, reached the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage on the 7th, and celebrated the event most becomingly. Thursday, March 9th, was the forty-second anniversary of the married life of Uncle L. C. McManis and wife, of the postoffice, Cass county, and the members of Prairie Lodge, No. 25, I. O. O. F., of which order he is an old and honored member, made the worthy couple a present of a marble to stand on a fine album containing the photographs of the donors and his brothers as a slight token of their esteem.

B. M. Swarc and Miss Liddy Sailor cast anchor in Grand Island on the 14th and made for a magistrate's office. They returned to Shelton the same evening and put the house in order for joint use.

Herbert D. Vashburg and Miss Etta Fisher and Frank M. Lyle and Miss Laura Corwin, all of Dakota county, joined the happy double, throng on the 8th. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schmidt, of Lincoln, celebrated their silver wedding on the 13th.

The crystal wedding of Mr. and Mrs. A. Crawshaw, which took place last week, was the most successful incident of the kind which has ever transpired in York county. About twenty couples were issued, and about seventy-five persons were in attendance.

Religious Matters. Work on the M. E. church at Shelton will soon commence. The building will be much larger than as first proposed.

The Rev. Roberts has received a joint call from the C. congregationalists of Rising and Ullyses, Butler county, to preach alternate Sundays in both churches.

Two church buildings and one parsonage have gone up in Minden since the first of the winter months—a Methodist church and parsonage on a Catholic church.

A Catholic church will be built at Geraldine, Valley county. The second quarterly meeting at the M. E. church of Holt county will be held at O'Neill City on the 25th and 26th of March.

The Presbyterian church at Niobrara will be completed by the 1st of May. A new Presbyterian church has just been completed at Miller-cro, Knox county.

Rev. H. N. Gates, of the David City Congregational church, has decided to remain. Mrs. Gates will go east for the benefit of her health during the summer.

Two years ago, says The David City Republican, there was no church building in Butler county. There are now fourteen with several more in immediate prospect.

They are denominated as follows: Methodist 5, Catholic 5, Congregational 3, Baptist 1. The Congregationalists and Catholics will each build in Ullyses soon—probably this season, and the Methodists at Hartsville.

Rev. T. B. O'Connell, general Episcopal preacher of Nebraska, has organized five parishes and two missions recently. Parishes at Bloomington, Republican City, Arapahoe, Fremont, and Kearney; and mission at Orleans and York. At Republican City lots have been secured and subscriptions taken up to build a church. In the St. Joseph's church at Hartsville have been raised for the support of the ministry; and at Arapahoe the greater part of the means to build a church has been subscribed.

sock, surplus and stole, and complete linen commission suit, for the use of the lecturer, an extra-pleasant for the lecture. There are also several beautiful silk book marks, lines for the vestry, and some other articles of minor importance. The value of the entire gift is almost $300—a very handsome little present. The same church gave $100 in money, which is added to a like gift from the Bishop, added the church very materially in reaching its present satisfactory condition. A resident pastor will be provided for.—[Courier.]

Educational. Nuckolls county has a full supply of public schools. Over fifty public schools are now organized and all doing splendid work.

The Union Pacific employes library association, of North Platte, is rapidly making itself a popular shape, and the room will soon be thrown open to the public. The furniture is now being built. Nearly $500 for the purchase of books and paying of incidental expenses has been collected.

A twenty thousand dollar school house is to be the next improvement in Cambridge.

The school board of Crete has decided to submit to a vote a proposition to issue $3,000 in bonds, proceeds to be used in buying the old academy or building a new one. More school room is one of the pressing needs of the town.

Palpitation of the Heart. J. M. Micht, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "When I first commenced using your BURNED BLOOD BITTERS I was troubled with fluttering and palpitation of the heart. I felt weak and languid, with a numbness of the limbs, and my heart has not troubled me and the numbing sensation is all gone." Price $1.00, trial size 50 cents.

CHECKED TO CONFUGIUS. Funeral of the Murdered Celestial—Most Disgraceful Scenes Ever Witnessed in Denver.

Denver World, March 13. John Eng, whose mysterious murder is already of record, was buried on yesterday at the city cemetery, and his interment was marked by the occasion of an exhibition of riot and malevolence, the most infamous ever witnessed in Denver. The ceremony was advertised to occur at 2 o'clock at McGovern's undertaking establishment, on Arapahoe street. Long before that hour the thoroughfare was crowded with as motley and disgraceful, disorderly and godless a set as ever were crowded into a limited space.

DIABOLICAL JEERS AND HOWLS were raised and could not be suppressed. It was a curious spectacle and one reverse of complimentary, not alone to the participants but also to those who composed the audience. Here in one of the oldest cemeteries of the city, wherein perchance beauty has been laid, the tears of love mingled with the damps of death upon her brow, were acts of desecration and disgrace that vandals would have scorned attempted. In this place of sepulchre for that once rounded into life, warmed into love and WAS FOLDED IN SHELTERING ARMS.

The hoodlums of the city ran riot in the sunshine, unrestrained and fearless of the consequences. On this spot, where the early settlers of Denver rested when touched by the "pale Master of Mortality," a gang from the purloined feasted their desire for "sport" at the expense of the dead.

It was found to be utterly impossible to conduct the sacred rites contemplated; in fact, it was with extreme difficulty that the coffin was finally lowered into the grave, and only then after the insignia of mourning had been scattered broadcast, the Lombard shot and the Chinese driven from the scene. These acts of vandalism are universally condemned by all reputable citizens, and their repetition will never be permitted.

Chin Sing, who died recently at Antonito, was buried a brief period previous to the arrival of Eng's body unattended with the disorders detailed. The Chinese returned early Tuesday morning and completed the ceremonies.
