

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning, March 24. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 25 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per Year.

Office: Room Five, Everett's Block, Broadway. C. E. MAYNE, Manager City Circulation. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

There was much ice in the river again yesterday. Dust was again on the fly, and badly yesterday. Prang's Easter cards at Seaman's. Last night Wether's "Nip and Tuck" company appeared in this city.

BRIDGE BUILDING.

A Bill Agreed Upon to be Presented to Congress For a Wagon Bridge Across the Missouri.

Another meeting of the committee and incorporators of the wagon bridge enterprise across the Missouri at this point was held here yesterday afternoon.

There were present, as representing Omaha, H. G. Clark, C. F. Goodman, J. A. Wakefield, H. Punst, John Evans, Thomas Gibson, and proxies representing Herman Kountze and J. A. McShane.

As representing Council Bluffs there were present, W. F. Sapp, J. T. Hart, L. C. Baldwin, T. McGarner, J. W. Rodefer, A. C. Graham, Marshal Key, Dr. McKune, Mr. Smith, and a proxy for Mr. Metcalf.

Col. Sapp presided, and Thos. Gibson acted as secretary. The bill which had been prepared by Col. Sapp, and a synopsis of which has already been given in THE BEE, was read and discussed. The amount of capital stock was fixed at one million dollars, the same to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

POLICE PICK-UPS.

Some of the Offenders Who Have Attracted the Attention of the Officers.

S. J. Jeffries, a shoemaker at Woodbine, was yesterday taking in the town. He took in too much of it and got so reckless as to cause trouble. Officer Morse arrested him and locked him up. There was found on his person a sling-shot, the possession of which he explained by saying that he had heard such hard stories of Council Bluffs that he deemed such a weapon necessary for his defense.

Ed Canfield was yesterday on the warpath, and it is claimed that in a visit to Mollie Scott's he smashed a clock and stole some napkins. Officer Conick accordingly collared him, and placed him behind the bars.

Ole Nelson, a plain drunk, before Judge Aylesworth yesterday morning, was fined $3.50, a raise of $2 over the accustomed $6.85 which has been so common in Recorder Burke's court.

Among the rules laid down by Mayor Bowman for the guidance of the police are the following important ones:

1. Loading in or about saloons, gambling houses or houses of prostitution, is strictly forbidden, and its practice will subject the offender to dismissal.

2. Leaving his seat, or failing to report at the proper time, or being absent from duty without permission of the chief.

3. Willful maltreatment or abuse of a prisoner or citizen.

4. Neglect to treat the chief, or members of the force, and all other persons civilly on all occasions.

5. Immoral conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.

6. Communicating information which may enable any person to escape arrest, or communicating any information or orders he may have received from the chief without permission.

7. Disorderly conduct, disobedience of orders or rules, inattention to duty, sleeping while on duty, laziness or lounging on beat, or neglect to appear neat and tidy at all times.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The Following Decisions Were Given by the Supreme Court Yesterday.

Pool vs. Gaylord, appellant, Des Moines county; motion to set aside affirmation overruled.

Blair town lot and land company vs. Rhoderbeck, appellant, Harrison county; motion to affirm overruled.

Webster county vs. Henderson; motion to strike to be held and considered with arguments on rehearing.

State vs. Miller, appellant, Poweshiek county; affirmed.

Leonard, appellant, vs. Lineng, Wapello county; reversed.

Abbott, appellant, vs. Sartorio, Blackhawk county; affirmed.

Thanks to Mayor Vaughan.

To the Editor of The Bee.

I desire through the columns of THE BEE to return my sincere thanks to Mayor Vaughan, of Council Bluffs, for the lot in that city, which was so delicately and generously tendered me as a mark of sympathy and condolence in the great bereavement I have suffered in the loss of my husband. I shall ever gratefully remember the givers.

Mrs. G. P. ARMSTRONG.

Miss Holtzlander is in Chicago on a visit to her brother.

A. D. Peck is in New York city on a visit.

Leon Palmer, of Council Bluffs, is night "owl" at the North-eastern depot now.

IOWA ITEMS.

Clarinda wants a public library.

Three cases of small-pox are reported at Avoca.

Oakland has decided to incorporate by a majority of 23.

A large first-class hotel is to be built at Greenfield the coming season.

The Iowa state camp meeting will begin at Clear Lake July 11, and continue one week.

The Catholic church which is now building at Fort Dodge will have cost when completed $55,000.

The sum of $618,866.55 was handled by the city treasurer of Burlington last year.

Cedar Rapids thinks she has reached a point in her history when sewers and paved streets are a necessity.

John A. Bollman and Miss Elinor L. Filds of Creston, joined in the married majority on the 19th.

Oakland, Pottawattamie county, will build a $3,000 school house the coming summer.

Eleven hundred dollars was realized the first day's sale of seats to Booth's performance in Davenport to-night. It cost $2,500 to get him there.

Oakland boasts of one of the best bands in western Iowa. They are going to take the cake at the Muscatine tournament next summer.

A man who had traveled over 5,000 miles with a one horse conveyance was in McGregor last week. He left Boston a year ago and is now on his way back. His wife accompanied him.

While a party of men were hunting near Mt. Airy recently, one of their number was shot and instantly killed by the premature discharge of one of the guns lying on the carriage seat in front of him.

John Conrick, of Masonville, Delaware county, who sometime ago attempted to murder his wife by cutting her throat, and then ran away, but was subsequently captured, at his trial last week pleaded guilty of the crime, and was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Conrick will probably recover.

Eleven prominent citizens of Davenport have formed an association called the "Davenport Live Stock company," for the purpose of carrying on the business of raising horses, cattle and sheep in New Mexico, where a large tract of land has been recently purchased for a ranch. Articles of incorporation have been taken out, the capital being placed at $50,000, with the power to increase to $500,000.

Some years ago some philanthropic gentleman sent out a carload of cast off boys to Iowa, and one of them, named George Wilson, landed in Des Moines. Mr. R. S. Hughes, of Bloomfield township, took him to raise, but the innate depravity of the youth was too much for the good man, now deceased, to oppose, and he gave him up. The boy came into the city and very soon found his level among a class of bad boys. During the past two years he has been arrested several times for petty pilferings, and yesterday was sent to jail for thirty days for stealing goods from a shoe shop on Walnut street. —Des Moines Register.

Some our readers will remember Mr. Sherman Work, a young man who came to Page county last summer from Pennsylvania. A few months ago he went to Kansas, where he secured a farm and will there make his home. No sooner had he settled down there than he wrote to the girl he left behind him in the old Keystone state and a few days ago she joined him at his new home, where, after she had rested a day or two from her long journey, the marriage ceremony was performed. True love laughs at distance as well as lack of smithy and poverty. —(Clarinda Star.)

A man in Des Moines sent a letter around the world. It made the trip in 106 days. The postage was fifteen cents, equally divided between Uncle Sam, John Bull and the Mikado.

Murder and Suicide.

EMERTSBURG, Ia., March 22.—A horrible shooting affray took place ten miles north of this town. Charles Cornelian and Fred Miller, Highland Scotchmen who came from Scotland last season and bought a farm on the Scotch-American Land company on Jack creek, met at the house of W. R. Dawson. Cornelian and Miller soon became engaged in a dispute and Miller called Cornelian a "damned liar." Cornelian retired to an adjoining room, procured a revolver and shot Miller twice through the head, killing him instantly. He then placed the revolver to his head, sent two bullets through the brain and fell dead in his tracks. Both men were of violent temper.

Small Pox.

Des Moines, March 22.—A supposed case of small pox discovered in the county jail today. Court, which was in session, was adjourned, the county offices were vacated, inmates of the jail were vaccinated, and rigid quarantine established. The court house square is centrally located in the city.

The Condition of the Jeannette.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The report from the board which examined the Jeannette previous to her departure has never till now been published. It shows a lack of confidence by the members of her adaptability for the cruise. After examination and before her repairs, alterations and trial trip, the board said: "For an extended cruise in the Arctic, it is not possible in our opinion to make her practically adapted for such service;" but after the repairs, etc., the same board without commending her seaworthiness, said: "So far as practicable we are of the opinion that she has been repaired and placed in a condition for service in the Arctic ocean."

Sergeant Mason.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Sergeant Mason has secured the services of Lyddy Bros., counsellors of this city, and they have made a motion before the supreme court of the United States for a writ of habeas corpus and a writ of certiorari, asking for the unconditional discharge of their client. The motion is made returnable on Friday, and upon that day Lyddy will appear before the supreme court at Washington, and present argument for a writ of habeas corpus. Hon. Nathaniel C. Meak will appear as associate counsel.

Republican Congressional Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—At the republican caucus last night the following congressional committee was selected: Alabama, Smith; California, Page; Connecticut, Wait; Florida, Bisbee; Illinois, Davis; Indiana, Calkins; Iowa, Allison; Kansas, Ryan; Kentucky, White; Maine, Hale; Maryland, Warren; Massachusetts, Russell; Michigan, Hubbard; Minnesota, Washburn; Mississippi, Lynch; Missouri, Van Horn; Nevada, Jones; New Hampshire, Briggs; New Jersey, Robeson; New York, Hiseock; North Carolina, Hubbs; Ohio, McKinley; Oregon, George; Pennsylvania, Fisher; Rhode Island, Aldrich; South Carolina, Maxey; Tennessee, Houk; Virginia, Dezenford; Wisconsin, Pound; Louisiana, Colorado, Nebraska and Vermont, have not been elected. States having no member or contestant will not be represented.
