

THE BUBBLE BURSTS!

Assignment of J. H. Haverly, Amusement Manager.

Too Many Speculations and Non-Paying Theaters.

Chicago Special to the Commercial.

The sudden departure of Colonel J. H. Haverly for Europe has created a considerable sensation in theatrical circles...

Number five was fished out of the regiment and introduced as Ecey Joy. He got his cap and went to join the others that was already fitted out.

Everything Haverly had was turned over to McConnell, and disintegration will immediately take place. Those theaters which are paying and the remunerative combinations will be kept up.

TWENTY SONS.

The Extraordinary Family of an Ohio Man.

Zanesville Correspondence Cincinnati Enquirer. One day there came into old Mr. Gallagher's hat store a man who asked to look at a cap.

"Have you four sons of one size?" asked Mr. Gallagher. "Yes, sir, I have; and I've got sixteen others besides," answered the man.

all tangled up with each other in endeavoring to keep from tramping on the boxes and oil-cloth or matting on the floor.

"Come in boys, come in and make yourselves at home," shouted Mr. Gallagher as the string blocked up the doorway.

"Step out here, Peter Djalander," commanded the owner of the bunch of boys. At this a third young man ambled out in front of the delighted hatter, who enjoyed the experience beyond description.
