DIED LIKE A DOG.

Jose James Killed in St. Joe While Getting Out of Bed. Shot Dead by a Cousin Who Had Been on His Track for Four Months.

The Noted Desperado Meets the Fate He Has Dealt Out to Many Innocent Men.

He Was Found to be Living Under the Name of Thomas Howard.

The Authority Which the Assassins Robert Ford and His Brother Charles Claim for Their Protection.

National Associated Press. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 3.—At 10 o'clock this morning Jesse James, the famous bandit, was killed in a room on Thirteenth and Lafayette streets, in this city, by Robert Ford, of Richmond, Mo. The murderer, with his brother Charles, had been tracking Jesse since November 8th, under authority from Governor Crittenden. They are cousins of Jesse, and are aged respectively twenty and twenty-four. Jesse has been here since November under the name of Thomas Howard, with his wife and two children.

A week ago the Ford boys came here and lived with Jesse, waiting for a time to get the drop on him. Jesse had evidently just arisen and was partially dressed, standing by the bed with a revolver by him. Ford took the advantage and fired a ball from a forty-five calibre revolver, the ball entering the base of the brain and coming out over the left eye, causing instant death.

The authorities were summoned and the boys told the victim's name and surrendered. A straight story is told by them of Jesse's career, and they show great familiarity with his recent doings. His wife being interviewed, admitted the body to be that of Jesse, and telegraphed Mrs. Samuel the fact. In an adjoining room was found a perfect arsenal—two revolvers, a two-barreled shot gun and repeating rifle, with belts of cartridges. On his person was found a steam-winding gold watch, with the monogram "A. S. B."

It was taken in a stage robbery at Sweet Springs, Mo. There was also found a key-winding gold watch, a solitaire diamond ring, and a plain, heavy gold ring, marked "Jesse." The boys are said to have been employed by H. H. Craig, of Kansas City, and Sheriff Timberlake, of Clay county. The boys were lodged in jail.

The Ford boys state that they intended to arrest him but were afraid to try it, and concluded to kill him without taking the chances of the arrest. Charles Ford was in the Blue cut robbery and is the man who killed the expressman. Robert was in the Winston train robbery. They say Jesse James was in the Blue cut robbery but not in the Winston robbery.

The wife of Jesse James was soon at the scene of the killing and wept loud over the fate of her husband. She has two beautiful children, a boy of 7 and a girl of 4 years of age. There seems to be no doubt that this is the veritable Jesse by men who knew him and who saw and recognized the body at once. Many here knew the two Ford boys. They are from Ray county.

LATER. KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 3.—The news received here this evening of the killing of Jesse James, the noted Missouri outlaw, at St. Joseph, caused the most intense excitement. The first news came in a dispatch to Police Commissioner Craig, and read as follows:

ST. JOSEPH, April 3. To H. H. Craig, Kansas City. Come up at once; I have got him. (Signed) Bob Ford.

Bob Ford and his brother Charles killed the James boys well. They had been together in Clay and Ray counties and in Kansas City. Some time ago they were brought here by Dick Liddie, the member of the gang who recently surrendered himself, and who has placed in the hands of Police Commissioner Craig, of this city, and Sheriff Timberlake, of Clay county, full particulars in regard to the outlaws and their operations at their haunts.

Ford, knowing the James boys had been declared outlaws and a proclamation offering large rewards for their capture, dead or alive, offered to take the contract for killing Jesse. Arrangements were made with him to capture the bandit, if possible, but to kill if necessary. His brother was to act with him. He left here a week ago last Friday night, expecting to come up with Jesse, not later than Sunday, March 26th. As no word came from him, the impression began to prevail that an encounter had taken place and that he had killed him, or else he had proven traitor to the officers.

A special to the Journal says that the Fords reached St. Joseph on Sunday, March 26th, and proceeded directly to Jesse's home, corner of Thirteenth and Lafayette streets, where they remained forming plans to rob a bank at Plattie City this week, during a murder trial now in progress there. They were to have started to-night for there.

This morning Jesse James and Charles Ford went to the stable to feed and curry the horses owned by Jesse. Having finished, they returned to the house, where Bob was seated in the room. The labor of currying the horses had made Jesse very warm, and as soon as he entered he divested himself of his coat and vest and threw them on the bed. He then remarked, "I guess I'll take off my pistols, as somebody may see me walking about and think it strange that I am so armed." Loozing his belt he laid the two heavy pistols on the bed. This was the long waited opportunity, and the only one that had ever come when he was unarmed. The boys were eagerly alive to their opportunity.

After throwing down his pistols and placing his coat over them, he turned and stepped upon a chair to dust a coat hanging on the wall. Quick as thought the Ford boys had placed themselves between him and the bed where the pistols lay. Jesse heard some noise and was turning his head when Bob Ford, being the quickest, sent a bullet crash into his brain, and he fell back on to the carpet.

The boys ran into the backyard. Meantime, Mrs. James, hearing the shot, came in, and seeing her husband lying there and unable to speak, stepped to the door and called to the Fords to come back. She charged them with doing the deed, which they denied, declaring it was the result of an accident. Mrs. James did not believe this, and tried to revive Jesse, who once made an effort to speak, but without being able to utter a word, gave up the ghost.

The Fords immediately left and proceeded to the telegraph office, where they sent telegrams to Governor Crittenden, Sheriff Timberlake, of Clay county, and Police Commissioner Craig, of this city. They then placed themselves in the hands of the police officials of St. Joseph, informing them they had killed Jesse James.

The body of Jesse James was visited during the day by hundreds of people, and Dr. Cattlett, superintendent of the insane asylum, fully identified it as that of the bandit himself by certain marks. Dr. Cattlett had attended him for two gunshot wounds while in the army, where a portion of one of his fingers was shot off.

The body was taken to the city hall and a coroner's jury was summoned. The inquest was not conducted, the inquest will be continued to-morrow. Police Commissioner Craig, Dick Liddie and Sheriff Timberlake went up from here, and Liddie says the dead man is none other than the outlaw.

It seems Jesse James lived here several months after the Blue cut robbery and left here November 6th, arriving in St. Joseph on the 8th, where he has remained ever since under the name of Thomas Howard. Thomas Nims, a brother-in-law, has received a dispatch from his sister, Mrs. James, announcing the death of Jesse.

Central and South American. National Associated Press. PANAMA, March 25.—L. Lamper on February 15 introduced in the house of representatives of Bogota a bill calling on the executive to give the United States of North America the notice required, that the treaty between the two republics will expire at the end of a year from date.

Perfect telegraphic communication is now established between Caracas and Bogota. The small pox is so bad at Panama that the board of health will no longer give a clean bill of health to outgoing vessels.

LIMA, March 18.—The Chileans refuse anything but gold and silver in payment of municipal taxes. The Bank of Lima has refused to receive Peruvian paper money torn or defaced in the least. It is so scarce that this entails a hardship on foreigners who do most of the business in the town.

Cayash, the last Picholasi general in the field, after being driven out of the mountains back of Peru and out of the Oroyo ravine and badly defeated by Peurea, retreated to Ayacucho, held by Picholasi under Colonel Macarizo and Feyca. They refused to receive him on the ground that he deserted. That caused a desperate battle outside of town. Two hundred of Cayash's men were killed, but he was victorious and captured Macarizo and Feyca and slain them. He turned the town over to his followers to be sacked, and afterwards made it his headquarters.

The Chileans are stripping the railroads of rails and machinery, sending the same to Delhi. The Chimborazo is denuded. Epizootic is epidemic among cattle in Northern Peru, particularly in the departments of L. M. Libertad and Quaystille.

The Chilean government, by a decree of February 23, has ordered Gibbs & Co. of London to balance up their accounts as guano consignees under a decree of March 2, 1881, and place the net profits of the transactions under that decree at the disposal of the committee.

The Peruvian bondholders have been recognized as such by the decision of the master of rolls of June 7, 1881. Small pox is raging at Santa Barbara in Chile. The wheat crop in the Uruello valley is estimated to be unprecedented and equal to 400,000 hectometers.

More Strikes. National Associated Press. BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 3.—On the first day of the present month the union painters in this city made a demand on the bosses for $3 a day. Only half a dozen employers refused to accede to the demand. The men employed in these shops, about 200, struck this morning.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 3.—The salt boilers to the number of about 500 demand an advance from $2.50 to $3 per day for boiling before they will begin work for the season. The demand is made in all fields, including Geddis, Salena and Liverpool. The companies have decided to accede to the demand, owing to the very close competition of the Saginaw salt works in Michigan. Nearly all the employes in Penn & Lee's wagon spring works who struck for additional pay have returned to work and the places of the others have been filled.

PORT JARVIS, N. Y., April 3.—During the past few days 163 mechanics have been discharged from the New York, Lake Erie & Western railroad shops at Jersey City, Port Jervis and Susquehanna. The discharged workmen have reduced the force to counteract any such movement. On the other hand, a prominent official gives as a reason the light freight traffic making little repairs necessary. In addition to this, 50 have been discharged from the construction force on the Delaware division having its terminus here.

MALVERN'S MAKE-UP. A Spicy Letter From the Metropolis of Mills County. Correspondence of The Bee. MALVERN, MILLS CO., Iowa, April 3.—THE BEE is a necessity with our people. Your special agent, Mr. Chamberlain, whom our citizens highly esteem, made our town a pleasant call last week.

Mills is the best agricultural county in the state, and is the paradise of Iowa. Malvern is located at the commercial and near the geographical center of this county, at the junction of the main lines of the W., St. L. & P. R. R. Co. with the C., B. & Q. R. R. Co.

In the west the growth of any town hinges upon the energy of its business men. The growth of our town reflects the character of our people. As we are plodding but sure in our movements, so our town gives that abiding faith of the permanency and solidity of its growth.

Our economy opened up last week and will be run to its full capacity when the "cows come in" and the grass grows. It claims a capacity of 2,500 pounds of butter per day. The butter milk is lugged off by men, women and children, armed with pails and ptechers, at five cents per gallon. It is terribly cooling to worn-out stomachs, and is liable to make a "corner" on Tin Manahana's beer saloon when hot weather comes.

A new public school building is to be built here this summer. Our independent school district has voted to issue $10,000 in bonds for this purpose. Our Normal school has been a success this year, and bids fair to open out next year with a large attendance. The Normal is a fixture here, and great credit is due Prof. L. Davidson for the enthusiasm he has put in the school.

The First National bank begin the erection of a new brick building, to be completed this summer, to be used for banking purposes, with a store on the corner and Messing hall attached. But the culminating and crowning glory of our year's work will be the pork packing house. The bargain is closed, "the egg is laid," and the matter has become a fixed fact. It is to be put up by a Chicago party at a cost of not less than $50,000, with a capacity of killing and curing not less than 70,000 hogs annually, and will be completed by January 1, 1883.

The creamery and pork house are both the outgrowth of our "board of trade," and great credit is due from the town to the originators of this institution. With a new bank building, a $10,000 school house and a $50,000 pork house under construction, our town will present a lively appearance this summer. Besides, many private residences are to be built, too numerous to mention in this letter.

Our town is clean and has better sidewalks than any other town of its size in Iowa, and has a natural, thrifty and vigorous growth. J. The Golden City Disaster. National Associated Press. MEMPHIS, April 3.—In accordance with an order of Judge Harrigan, the criminal court prosecuting attorney, Turner, made a report this morning regarding the burning of the steamer Golden City, the substance of which is that the fire was the result of criminal carelessness on the part of the mate, named Bondswan, commonly known as Doc Bondswan, who did not attend to his duty by seeing that inflammable freight was covered with tarpaulins. The mate delegated the authority to a negro, captain of the watch, to whose carelessness was the cause of the disaster. Judge Harrigan ordered the attorney to frame indictments against the mate and captain of the watch. No mention was made in the report of any carelessness or negligence on the part of the captain's clerk, other officers, except Bondswan. The Smith and John Hill, second mate. The indictment will probably be for manslaughter.

Sorry April Fool's Joke. National Associated Press. CANTON, Ohio, April 3.—A party of young men solicited and obtained subscriptions for a mythical person, and then spent the money with the contributors, after reminding them that it was April fool's day, but a smart newspaper man, Charles Fraser, turned the tables on the crowd by having them all arrested and put under bonds, inasmuch as their offense was a penitentiary one.

Dakota Insane Asylum Burned. National Associated Press. YANKTON, April 3.—The cheap wooden building used as a territorial insane asylum, pending the completion of the brick structure, burned to the ground. Fifty-four insane patients were inside at the time. All were taken out but four, who escaped from the keepers and returned to the building and were burned to death. Property loss, $10,000.
