After the sale there was a slightly improved demand for certain kinds of goods at first hands, owing to the increased number of buyers on the soot, but the volume of business done by the commission houses was only moderate. The jobbing trade has been adversely affected by the inclemency of the weather, which deterred many buyers from continuing their operations in spring and summer fabrics.

An Interesting Week and the Ser vices Thereof.

HOLY WEEK.

The Catholic church this week celebrates the memory of the passion and death of the Redeemer. Every part of the sacred liturgy is directed to this end. The church offices are in any other week during the year. They show her concern and trouble for the sufferings of her Redeemer and the sins of men. She lays aside every expression of joy and festivity. manding general division of the Mis-These peculiarities are especially nolie church known as the Tenebrae, which is sung on the evenings of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, This name is given to the service from the circumstance of extinguishing. during the course of it, all the candles which have been prepared in the sanctuary for the ceremony. 7:30 o'clock. To-day is called Maunday-Thursday, which was instituted for the sacrament of the Eucharist. The services in the morning are always very impressive. At the church of the Holy Family, at the conclusion of the 9 o'clock mass, there will be a solemn procession of children and clergy to the repository, which has already been erected and which is now in course of elaborate and artistic decoration. On the following day the feast of Good Friday is commemorated on the will call Mr. Blank, had been paying death of the Redeemer. Opening Meetings of the Episcopa Mission in Their New Church.

A very successful opening meeting was held on Saturday night in the church recently purchased by the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran mission. The edifice is known as the Christian church, having been occupied for some time by that society. At the opening meeting on Saturday night Rev. S. A. Skogsberg, of Chicago, preached a very appropriate and eloquent sermon. The reverend gen-tleman is one of the most powerful Mr Blank in a vigorous manner. The Swedish preachers in America. The church was crowded upon the occasion. On Sunday the regular services were held. The sermon at 10:30 a. m. was preached by Rev. C. M. Youngquist, of Page county, Ia. At the afternoon meeting, 3 p. m., Rev. G. Norsen, of Wahoo, preached. Rev. Skogsberg also delivered a short address. The evening service at 7:30 p. m. was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hallner, of Swedesburg, Neb., and another address wer given by Rev. Skogsberg. During all of these services th music by the choir was especially fine and adapted to the occasion Rev. J. A. Haltman, the pastor of the church, led the choir, which is a very strong one, being composed of fourteen voices.

An Irate Husband Goes for a Would-told which involved a Bohemiantown business man in a pretty little row. It appears that this man whom we will call Mr. Blank, had been paying a tailor living in the same locality. The lady did not reciprocate his admiration and told her husband that he had approached her several times, and that his overtures were unpleasant. Last Sunday Mr. Blank met the husband of his inamorita and asked him in a casual way where he was going to be that evening. He replied that there was to be a meeting which would detain him out until 11 c'clock or later. At 8 o'clock Mr. Blank went to the residence of his adored one, and found her with no one else present but an old man. He sent the latter out to get some beer, and during his absence made indecent proposals to her, tried to kiss her, and manifested his passion in other ways. The husband was watching all these proceedings through the window, the curtain being partially raised, and at length when he thought the proper time had arrived to stop the business, he broke through the door, and with intruder fled and was chased for some distance, falling every few steps to be goaded on by the relentless lash. At length, however, he escaped down a dark alley, a sadder and wiser man.
