

THE DAILY BEE

OMAHA. Thursday Morning April 13.

Weather Report. (The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.)

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather continues rather frigid. John McCullough in the "Gladiator" at Boyd's Opera House to-night.

The annual meeting of the Omaha fire department last night was a very stormy one and at times it looked as though the boys could not help turning in to clean each other out.

The social entertainment at the Presbyterian church will take place Friday evening this week instead of Thursday evening.

Joe Kavan, charged with assaulting and battering the head of John Miller, said hat being at the time on Miller's head, was discharged in the absence of a prosecuting witness.

On next Friday evening, Mr. J. S. Shropshire will deliver the closing lecture in the Unity Lyceum course, at the Unitarian church, 17th and Cass streets.

THE HOSPITAL FAIR.

Lavish Liberty of the Visitors to Oreighton Hall.

The Grand Promenade to the Music of the Band - The Supper Table.

The second night of the fair for the benefit of St. Joseph's hospital, was, in point of numbers and results, most gratifying to the managers and ladies in charge.

The object of the fair is one that commends itself to generous people of the city. The limited capacity of the present hospital building has frequently prevented the noble sisters from doing all that was possible for the many invalids applying for admission.

The endless promenade circled round and round the hall; the booths laden with a variety of valuable articles were surrounded with admiring crowds.

The supper room, in charge of Mrs. Thomas Swift, Mrs. J. Creighton, Miss Ella and Miss McHugh, is supplied with all the substantial and coffee that equals the famed Vienna article.

The play but little need be said as Omaha people are already familiar with its merits. The cast was as follows:

PERSONAL. Mr. A. M. Shepard, formerly clerk in Kuhlman's drug store, Tenth and Douglas, left last evening for Kearney, where he will go into business for himself.

FLIES AND BUGS. Flies, roaches, ants, bedbugs, rats, mice, gophers, chipmunks, cleared out by "Rough on Rats," etc.

ARMY ORDERS. The following are the latest orders issued from the headquarters of the department of the Platte:

DISSOLUTION NOTICE. The copartnership heretofore existing under the firm name of Angell, Bowen & White, is hereby this day mutually dissolved.

BRANDT'S CASE.

The Proof Introduced Tuesday Proves Very Positive.

The License Board Not Yet Determined What to do.

The hearing of the case of the remonstrance of E. Rosewater and others against John G. Brandt, commenced before the license board, Mayor Boyd and J. L. C. Jewett being present, at 3 p. m. Tuesday and concluded about 5 o'clock.

Mr. Brandt's counsel, C. A. Baldwin, Esq., and Mr. Rosewater on behalf of the protestants, agreed at the outset upon the points already established in the case of Hornberger, viz: that THE BEE was the authorized paper of the largest circulation in this county; that Mr. Brandt's notice of application was published twice, March 29th and April 4th in said Bee, in lieu of two weeks' notice; also, that the application was published, together with forty-two others, in one notice, and the amount paid was $250.

The following testimony was taken: Max Bergman testified: Question. State your name and occupation. Answer. Max Bergman. I am a law student.

Q. What other occupation have you? A. Can't say that I have any other occupation, in part of my time Saturday evenings and Sunday forenoons in a barber shop. I have been employed at the German theatre this winter and last winter at different times, on Sundays.

Q. Have you ever drank any beer or liquor at Mr. Brandt's place on Sunday? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the liquor you drank given to you or purchased? A. Purchased by Baldwin. Over-ruled.

I bought certain shares of stock in the Dramatic club. Q. Can you exchange these shares for any commodity. Can you get beer for them? A. Yes, sir. I exchanged my tickets for beer.

Joseph Bath testified as follows: Q. What is your name and business? A. Joseph Bath, butcher.

Q. Have you had patronized Mr. Brandt's place? and when were you there last? A. Yes, sir. I have been there last Sunday night.
