

THE DAILY BEE OMAHA Saturday Morning April 15.

Weather Report (The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations.)

Table with columns for Station, Temperature, Wind, Clouds, and other weather-related data for various locations like Denver, Cheyenne, and Omaha.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—The lawns about town are a bright green with the new growth of grass. —The work of sodding lawns is going on about private residences everywhere.

HEADLIGHT GLEAMS.

Mortgaging the Missouri Pacific in the Millions.

Activity Among the Omaha Manufacturing Establishments.

Reclamation of the Sandlots for Railroad Purposes.

Miscellaneous News from the Iron World.

The largest mortgage recently filed in the office of the county clerk of Douglas county was that recorded by Mr. John Baumer at 2 p. m. yesterday, being the supplementary mortgage of the Missouri Pacific railroad company to John F. Dillon et al., for the sum of $30,184,000.

"THE GREAT REPUBLIC."

An Exceedingly Interesting Entertainment at the Opera House.

Last evening a good sized audience witnessed the first presentation of Prof. J. M. Hager's "Allegory" at Boyd's Opera house, in which several hundred children connected with the public schools took part.

FLYING SPARKS

An order issued April 1st, instructs all U. P. engineers to cover their headlights while standing on a siding, with the drop curtain furnished for that purpose, and not to uncover them until they are ready to take the main track.

The noon train west yesterday consisted of nine cars, all well filled.

The Railroad is the name of a live and spicy railroad journal, which has a big subscription among the boys and has one hundred thousand circulation in the United States.

"Old Pap" Junk, a Union Pacific engineer who is greatly esteemed by all the boys, and who is one of the finest men that ever trod a foot board, left Thursday for Salt Lake City, in charge of a new engine, No. 54, for the southern extension of the Utah Central railroad company.

The U. P. is putting in a sewer on Ninth street, to drain that locality.

The White Lead works in the last week sent four cars of their manufacture to San Francisco.

The importation of agricultural implements at present is very heavy, and an following have been received this month: Lininger & Metcalf, agricultural implement company, one car per day; Haines Bros., ten cars in all; F. D. Cooper, five cars; Manning & Hiss, eight cars; W. J. Kennedy, three cars; Parker & Bowers, seven cars.

The gas works is receiving its supply of coal on a fifty carload contract by the B. & M. and Plattsmouth. The U. P. handles each car, switching it to plant at $1 per car. The gas company find that they have more by this route, and the U. P. loses a handsome sum by their exorbitant bridge toll.

Freight business is picking up rapidly in the U. P. The Omaha fertilizing works sent a car load of the fertilizer to Chicago yesterday via the Rock Island.
