

THE DAILY BEE

OMAHA

Friday Morning April 14.

Weather Report (The following observations are taken at the same moment of time as at the stations named.)

Table with columns: Station, Barometer, Thermometer, Wind, Clouds, etc. Rows include Des Moines, Cheyenne, Washburn, etc.

LOCAL EVENTS

This weather is hard on the violets. The river front is the busiest part of the city at present. A light fall of rain began at an early hour yesterday.

THE TROUBLED POOL.

A Break for Omaha Liable to Occur within Sixty Days.

A New Bridge and a New Union Depot.

A BEE reporter, last evening, had the privilege of a talk with one of the most prominent railroad men in the west, an official known and recognized as one of the leading spirits in railroad enterprises of all kinds, and from him learned some important news.

THE GLADIATOR.

A Fine Audience Greeted McCullough on His Second Appearance.

He Pays a Nest Compliment to the Proprietor of Boyd's Opera House.

There was a magnificent audience in attendance upon the production of the "Gladiator," at Boyd's last evening. It was large mainly because of the reputation of Mr. McCullough, who appeared in the title role, and the novelty of the piece, the presentation being the first ever given in this city.

BAZAAR BEAUTIES.

Successful Progress of the Fair for the Benefit of St. Joseph's Hospital.

New and Elegant Articles Added to the Vast List.

The announcement made in these columns on the morning after the fair, to the effect that no fair ever held in Omaha had received so substantial evidence of appreciation and encouragement, has since been liberally, enthusiastically substantiated.
