

JUST OPENED THIS MORNING AT THE CHICAGO DRY GOODS STORE.

1116 Farnam Street.

The finest line of Lattice Cocheo and Pacific Lawns. Newest Patterns in Pique Cloths, Dotted Swisses, Mery Lawns, and Cross-Bar Muslins, most extensive line of

White Goods

in the city. Also the latest Novelties and Shades in

IMPORTED

AND

SHETLAND SHAWLS

Have also for inspection in Domestic Department the late shades in

FRENCH AND FOREIGN

GINGHAMS.

ENTIRELY NEW

PLEASE CALL AND EXAMINE.

Don't Forget our New Stock of Ladies' and Misses'

FINE SHOES.

Call and see what $1.50 will buy in our Shoe Department.

1116 FARNAM ST.

Opposite Dewey & Stone's Furniture Store.

GEO. P. BROWN.

March 15-17

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHED BANKING HOUSE IN NEBRASKA.

CALDWELL, HAMILTON & CO. BANKERS.

Business transacted same as that of an incorporated bank. Accounts kept in currency or old subject to sight check without notice.

Certificates of deposit issued payable in three, six and twelve months, bearing interest, or on demand without interest.

Advances made to customers on approved securities at market rates of interest.

The interests of customers are closely guarded, and every facility compatible with principles of sound banking freely extended.

Draw sight drafts on England, Ireland, Scotland, and all parts of Europe.

Sell European passage tickets. COLLECTIONS PROMPTLY MADE.

United States Depository First National Bank.

Cor. 13th and Farnam Sts. OLDEST BANKING ESTABLISHMENT IN OMAHA.

SUCCESSORS TO KOUNTZE BROTHERS, ESTABLISHED 1856. Organized as a National Bank August 30, 1863.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Yesterday's Proceedings in the Senate and House.

Senator Voorhees Bitterly Denounces the Incarceration of Irish Americans

To an Admiring Audience of a Gallery Full of Land League Delegates.

Miscellaneous Notes of a National Character.

CONGRESS

PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.—Mr. Edmunds was back in his seat after several weeks' absence.

Mr. Lapham presented the petition of the New York board of trade against restriction of emigration.

The diplomatic and fortification bills were returned from the senate, and a committee on conference was ordered.

Mr. Maxey presented a resolution that no retired army officer can hold a government office.

The committee on territories recommended to the sub-committee the Vest bill to establish courts of justice in Indian territory, to amend by giving the Indians the right to sit on juries when Indians are on trial.

During the morning hour sixteen pension bills were passed and the morning hour being extended the remaining pension bills on the calendar, thirty-six in number, were passed.

Voorhees addressed the senate upon the resolution, recently introduced by him, declaring the conduct of the state department in relation to the arrest and imprisonment by the British authorities of Daniel McSwenny and other citizens as a violation of American law, inconsistent with the value of American citizenship and derogatory to the honor of the United States.

A large number of delegates of the land league were in the gallery. Mr. Voorhees reviewed at length the case of McSwenny and charged that the conduct of the state department in this case was a flagrant violation of American law. He charged that Lowell's conduct marked his total and absolute unfitness for the place. He denounced British arrogance and pusillanimity, and evoked several outbursts of applause in the galleries.

Mr. Voorhees announced at an early day he would call for a vote on the resolution.

Mr. Sherman said he went as far as any one in the protection of the rights of Americans, but urged it unfair in this case to take an extra step in amendment in regard to arrests in the absence of full information from the state department. On Mr. Sherman's objection the resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

After executive session the senate adjourned at 4:10 p. m. till Monday.

The senate confirmed the nomination of J. R. Pitkin to be United States marshal of the East district of Louisiana.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE.

The omnibus bill for the payment of claims audited by the treasury department, passed.

After the call, the house went into committee of the whole, Mr. Cox (New York) in the chair, on the private calendar.

The bill to pay the claim of Edward S. Armstrong, suspected of disloyalty during the war, was discussed several hours when Mr. Burrows (Michigan) took the floor, puncturing it in a few minutes' speech, by producing proof that Armstrong was in the Confederate army, when the enacting clause of the bill was promptly stricken out.

Mr. Flower presented the petition of a large number of merchants of New York, protesting against any legislation regarding the emigration of Chinese as injurious to our business relations with the country and the development of the industrial interests of the United States.

The house at 4:35 p. m. adjourned until to-morrow, when the day is to be given to discussion on the tariff commission bill only.

CAPITAL NOTES.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.—The case of Fitz John Porter was again considered by the cabinet today.

Secretary Kirkwood took leave of members of the cabinet.

The house committee on elections has adopted the report of the sub-committee seating Bibbee in place of Finlay in the second district of Florida.

There is considerable comment on Speaker Keifer's removing Stenographer Davine of the house reporters. Tyson, his successor, is said to be incompetent, and was only given the place to please Robeson, whose secretary he formerly was. In this case and that of Hayes, two weeks ago, the speaker assigned no cause for removal.

It is understood to have been decided at the cabinet meeting today that the president will take no further steps in the Fitz John Porter case.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Yesterdays Proceedings in the Senate and House.

Senator Voorhees Bitterly Denounces the Incarceration of Irish Americans

To an Admiring Audience of a Gallery Full of Land League Delegates.

Miscellaneous Notes of a National Character.

CONGRESS

PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.—Mr. Edmunds was back in his seat after several weeks' absence.

Mr. Lapham presented the petition of the New York board of trade against restriction of emigration.

The diplomatic and fortification bills were returned from the senate, and a committee on conference was ordered.

Mr. Maxey presented a resolution that no retired army officer can hold a government office.

The committee on territories recommended to the sub-committee the Vest bill to establish courts of justice in Indian territory, to amend by giving the Indians the right to sit on juries when Indians are on trial.

During the morning hour sixteen pension bills were passed and the morning hour being extended the remaining pension bills on the calendar, thirty-six in number, were passed.

Voorhees addressed the senate upon the resolution, recently introduced by him, declaring the conduct of the state department in relation to the arrest and imprisonment by the British authorities of Daniel McSwenny and other citizens as a violation of American law, inconsistent with the value of American citizenship and derogatory to the honor of the United States.

A large number of delegates of the land league were in the gallery. Mr. Voorhees reviewed at length the case of McSwenny and charged that the conduct of the state department in this case was a flagrant violation of American law. He charged that Lowell's conduct marked his total and absolute unfitness for the place. He denounced British arrogance and pusillanimity, and evoked several outbursts of applause in the galleries.

Mr. Voorhees announced at an early day he would call for a vote on the resolution.

Mr. Sherman said he went as far as any one in the protection of the rights of Americans, but urged it unfair in this case to take an extra step in amendment in regard to arrests in the absence of full information from the state department. On Mr. Sherman's objection the resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

After executive session the senate adjourned at 4:10 p. m. till Monday.

The senate confirmed the nomination of J. R. Pitkin to be United States marshal of the East district of Louisiana.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE.

The omnibus bill for the payment of claims audited by the treasury department, passed.

After the call, the house went into committee of the whole, Mr. Cox (New York) in the chair, on the private calendar.

The bill to pay the claim of Edward S. Armstrong, suspected of disloyalty during the war, was discussed several hours when Mr. Burrows (Michigan) took the floor, puncturing it in a few minutes' speech, by producing proof that Armstrong was in the Confederate army, when the enacting clause of the bill was promptly stricken out.

Mr. Flower presented the petition of a large number of merchants of New York, protesting against any legislation regarding the emigration of Chinese as injurious to our business relations with the country and the development of the industrial interests of the United States.

The house at 4:35 p. m. adjourned until to-morrow, when the day is to be given to discussion on the tariff commission bill only.

CAPITAL NOTES.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 14.—The case of Fitz John Porter was again considered by the cabinet today.

Secretary Kirkwood took leave of members of the cabinet.

The house committee on elections has adopted the report of the sub-committee seating Bibbee in place of Finlay in the second district of Florida.

There is considerable comment on Speaker Keifer's removing Stenographer Davine of the house reporters. Tyson, his successor, is said to be incompetent, and was only given the place to please Robeson, whose secretary he formerly was. In this case and that of Hayes, two weeks ago, the speaker assigned no cause for removal.

It is understood to have been decided at the cabinet meeting today that the president will take no further steps in the Fitz John Porter case.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Bismarck Believes Protection Good for Germany,

And Will Endeavor to Prevent Agricultural Distress by Enforcing the Same.

The Bloodthirsty Arab Bey Balked in His Murderous Scheme.

The General News that Came Over the Cable.

National Associated Press.

LONDON, April 14.—Gervase Smith, the Wesleyan divine, is dying.

LONDON, April 14.—The Newmarket International handicap was won by Barbe Blue, Brilliance second and Belfoy third.

BERLIN, April 14.—The distress in the agricultural districts of Germany is still continuing.

CAIRO, April 14.—Arabi Bey, minister of war, who caused the arrest of twenty-four Circassian officers in connection with the recent alleged plot to assassinate him, has expressed his decision that several leading officers be shot in the presence of assembled troops.

PARIS, April 14.—Ambroise Thomas new opera, "Francesca de Rimini," was produced in the Grand Opera House in this city this evening.

SPRINGFIELD, April 14.—The assassins of General Stralnikoff have been arrested and identified.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 14.—A special from New Iberia says there is general destruction.

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Bismarck Believes Protection Good for Germany,

And Will Endeavor to Prevent Agricultural Distress by Enforcing the Same.

The Bloodthirsty Arab Bey Balked in His Murderous Scheme.

The General News that Came Over the Cable.

National Associated Press.

LONDON, April 14.—Gervase Smith, the Wesleyan divine, is dying.

LONDON, April 14.—The Newmarket International handicap was won by Barbe Blue, Brilliance second and Belfoy third.

BERLIN, April 14.—The distress in the agricultural districts of Germany is still continuing.

CAIRO, April 14.—Arabi Bey, minister of war, who caused the arrest of twenty-four Circassian officers in connection with the recent alleged plot to assassinate him, has expressed his decision that several leading officers be shot in the presence of assembled troops.

PARIS, April 14.—Ambroise Thomas new opera, "Francesca de Rimini," was produced in the Grand Opera House in this city this evening.

SPRINGFIELD, April 14.—The assassins of General Stralnikoff have been arrested and identified.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 14.—A special from New Iberia says there is general destruction.

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

NEW YORK, April 14.—The World in an editorial evidently written by W. H. Hurbutt, brother of the late Peruvian minister, Stephen H. Hurbutt, pronounces entirely false Shipherd's statement that William H. S. A., on the margin of which Blaine had written "Go in, Steve."

HIGH-TONED SOCIETY.

Another Notable Gathering at the White House.

President Arthur's Second "Official" Reception.

MABILLE IN ITS GLORY.

Some of the Orgies that the Place Has Given.

National Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The second "official" reception of the stalwart regime occurred on Tuesday evening, between the hours of 8 and 10, to which the diplomatic corps, the supreme court, army, navy and marine corps were bidden.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

At precisely 8 o'clock the president appeared, heralded by the familiar strains, "Hail to the Chief," and met the friends invited to assist in doing the honors of the occasion in the Blue Parlor, where the receiving party was arranged.

HIGH-TONED SOCIETY.

</