IMPORTANT ARREST.

The Lightning Continues to Strike Among the Law Breakers,

The arrest of Murray and Kirkland removed no little apprehension from the public mind, as the number of night attacks on citizens was getting entirely too great to be pleasant, Unless the officers are laboring under a mistake they have removed another dangerous character from the outer world, and put him under lock and key for the public good.

Constable Eegerton worked up the case tried to sell a quantity of stuff to a colored woman a few days ago, from whom he obtained a descripsion of nearly all the missing goods. Another circumstance tending to criminate the prisoner was the fact that he had assisted in removing the goods into the house from which they were afterward taken and knew the location of the various trunks and cases and the nature of their contents. Donohue on being arrested denied all knowledge of the affair, although the woman identified him. He will come up for a preliminary hearing as soon as Constable Edgerton returns

> Facts and Figures From the Assessment Roll of 1881.

Beginning With the Two Principal Business Streets of Omaha.

The precinct assessors are now busily engaged in the work of appraising the property in this city, and it is presumed that they, like all former assessors, are following in the foot-

It has been an open secret for so years that property assessments in the store of Max Meyer & Bro., jewelers Omaha have been not only very low, but very irregular. It is generally supposed that property is assessed at about half its cash value, although lot 7, next west, 66 by 132 feet, is astach prisoner, after the first the law requires its assessment at active sessed at $5,800, which is very low. tual value, but the grand assessment lessness or intoxication on the part of the roll of the city and county shows some eurious valuations. Believing that it -There have been one hundred and four is to the interest of every honest taxheatrical performances in Boyd's opera paver that our property assessments owns the next lot west, 44 feet, on the county jail is right or wrong the theatrical performances in Boyd's opera payer that our property assessments should be equalized, and desirous of seeing the old system of favoritism broken up, THE BEE has taken pains to procure the official figures from the records as they appear on the assessnia railroad company. The plaintiff sues ment roll of 1881. As a beginning we have selected the two principal busitrain when he held an unlimited ticket ness streets, with the following result: PARNAM STREET.

Beginning at Ninth and Farnam we find the west forty-four feet of lot 8, block 124, assessed at $1,500. This property was sold, May 31, 1881, for east $10,000.

Proceeeding north on Farnam street, property generally is found assessed at about the same rate as above. Poppleton's improved lot, cornar at $12,000. Now, rating the value is much more valuable, the bare lot is assessed at $2;200. would be worth $9,000 and with the improvements on would be worth $30,000 to $35,000 at least.

The Metropolitan hotel property, which cost $25,000 in August, 1873, is assessed at $6,500. The metropolitan hotel property, which cost $25,000 in August, 1873, is assessed at $6,500. The metropolitan hotel property, the county commissioners on their return from a visit to Detroit and inand the lot with improvements is problot probably being worth at a low estimate $45,000, and this is put down by the assessor at $13,000. The east 22 feet of lot 1, block 135 the southwest corner of the same streets, was sold in October, 1880, for $8,000, with no improvement but an old two-story brick on it and is assessed at $3,000. Property in this block is all as seased equally out of proportion with its value. There is the west 201 feet of lot 2, with two-story brick, which sold in February, 1880, for $10,500, which is assessed at $4,000. & Stone's 44 feet is assessed at $9,200 and worth $30,000 at least.

On the opposite side of the street is C. F. Goodman's 22 feet, assessed at $5,000; Sharp's at $4,400; Lehman's, $4,750, and the other lots, with nothing on but old rattle-traps, assessed at 82,000 each.

At the rate at which property has sold in this vicinity within the past year, one of these inside lots, 22 feet front, could not be purchased for less than $10,000. For instance, the east 22 feet of lot 8, block 121, northwest corner of Farnam and Twelfth, sold in March, 1882, for $16,000, and was assessed at $4,000, just 25 per cent of its market value. Solomon's 22 foot lot adjoining the last named property is assessed at $6,000, and Smith's 66 foot front, next west of Solomon's, with its magnificent and costly block, in the neighborhood of $20,000. The improved lot occupied by the Smith building could not be bought to-day tor $50,000, and figuring it on the basis of the sale of the Brash corner, the bare lots would be worth $40,000. The Caldwell & Hamilton property. 66 foot front, opposite the Brash corner, is assessed at $9,500. Allowing for the difference in value in favor of the opposite side of the street, the bare lots are worth $30,000. Each improved 22 foot lot west of this corner is assessed at $6,500, except the First National bank lot, which is assessed at $7,500.

The south 88 feet of the west third of lot 5, block 121, the old Snowden corner, was sold January, 1881, for $14,000, and is assessed at $4,500. The next lot of same size east, the Shaw property, was assessed at $3,000, and we are informed that the owner has refused $10,000 for it within the past year. Pundt's property is asessed at $6,700 against $6,500 on the Schneider lot, just opposite.
In Central block, Hellman's corner.

44 feet, is assessed at $16,000, and each 22 feet inside west of this at $6, 500, Milton Rodgers being assessed at $9,000, and the Ish building. since bought by him for $18,000, at $6,500. On the opposite side from Central block, we find the 32 foot front of Tootle & Maul assessed at $8,500, sold January, 1882, at $18,000. The northwest corner of Farnam and Fourteenth, 65 by 55, is assessed at $4.800 and it couldn't be bought for $25,000. It is owned by Sam Brown. The 21 foot lot part owned by Mr. Brown, is assessed at $4,500 and worth $15,000. Henry Dohle's 22 foot lot was bought October, 1880, for $6,000 with old frame building thereon and was assessed for $2,400. Hanseora's 33 foot lot, including his magnificent brick block, is assessed at $4,000. C. S. Goodrich's

22 foot lot, with brick store about 100 feet deep, is assessed at $5,000, while Paxton's 44 foot lot with brick store rooms extending clear to the alley and occupying the corner lot is put down at $7,000 only.

Barker's 44 foot lot occupied by the Western Union telegraph office and a three story brick adjoining on north half and a three story brick on the south 66 feet of same, is assessed at $8,000. Improvements and lots are worth at least $30,000. Lots 2 and 3 in same block, owned by John I. Redick, making 132 feet square, are assessed at $8,000, and worth at least $20,000, not counting improvements. Goodrich's corner, Sixteenth and Farnam, assesse $4,000, worth $10,000 at least. The lot 22 by 88 on the opposite side, the Wabash corner, owned by J. S. McCormick, and assessed at $5,100, is quite high as compared with the opposite corner, but not too high as scom's 44 by 66 feet of same lot is assessed at $3,200, and is fully as valua-ble as McCormick's. Peter Goos, on covering 66 by 132 reet, is assessed at $\text{year}$ as will be seen from the record $5,000—sold by Redick to Patteemany which we herewith append. Whether which there is a two-story dwelling. fact is patent that the taxpayers of This, assessed at $2,700, and Housel's Douglas county are paying much more The city has a contract with Peter Goos for boarding city prisoners lodged in the city jail at twenty-eight cents and on the opposite side of the street, Burley's full lot east of same at $2,800. The latter two lots are not nearly so valuable as the Millard property, yet they are assessed $2,000. property, yet they are assessed $2,000 For the year 1878........

On the opposite corner, lot 1, block 133, is assessed, exclusive of improvements, at $2,400, while it is worth at ton's two lots, next west, with residence, at $7,200.

On the opposite side of the street Giacomini's, 66 by 132, with Republican office and two stores west, is assessed at $12,500; Woodworth's,66 by 132 feet, with improvements, $12,000 Gruenig's, 22 feet, $4,000; Wind heim's, 22 feet, $4,400. All of thes assessments are low, as, for example, Guenig's lot cost $3,100 in 1880, and since that time he has erected a very fine three story brick bloock thereon. The lots west of those named, with old wooden buildings, are assessed at $2,600 to $2,800 each.

In the next block, Martin's lot, 22 by 105 feet, occupied by a three-story brick, is assessed at $6,200. On the opposite side of the street, M. Cuming's 22 by street, M. Cuming's 22 by 132, with fine three story brick, is assessed at $4,100. Kennard's property, opposite Martin's, with two story brick building and same amount of sessed at $2,200. Sheeley's market property is assessed at $2,500, and Karbach's full lot, 66 by 132 feet with two stores on Douglas and drug of Sixth and Pacific streets, Omaha. store and saloon on Fifteenth, all two story brick buildings, is assessed at $9,000, and is worth not less than $30,000. Each 22-foot lot in opposite block on Douglas street, with old wooden buildings is assessed at $3, 000 to $3,500.

The Cruickshank property,66 by 132 is assessed at $6,500, and each 22 feet west of them in same block at from $1,300 to $2,000 Creighton block is assessed at $20,000; Scott's 22 foot lat, $2,000; Monell's 66 feet. with three buildings, $5,700; McGeath's full lot, corner Sixteenth and Douglas at $3,200.

All property west of this on Doug las street is assessed in about the same proportion. The lot at south west corner Douglas and Eighteenth, which sold February, 1882, for $4,500 is assessed at $1,400, and the 88 by 132 lot at the corner of Douglas and Nineteenth, bought by Hanscom October, 1880, for $5,000 and since improved, is assessed at only $2,300. While these examples are serious enough in themselves yet the assessment of property away from the business part of the city is still more glarness part of the ing and deserves a special chapter for itself. Parties wishing Carriages or Bug-

A Cosily Luxury for Douglas County Tax Payers.

The Urgent Need of a Workhouse for City and County Prisoners.

One of the many hoppers into which the revenue of Douglas county is poured each year, is the county pail. Ever since the new jail has been completed there has been an effort made to keep it full of prisoners, at the expense of the taxpayers of the county. It is claimed that under our city charter, every violation of a state law, which may also be a violation of the city ordinance, such as petit thieving, fighting, etc., must be consigned to the county jail. The commitment compared with its real value. Han- fee for each prisoner is fifty cents, which goes to the sheriff and the county also pays to that official fifty sessed at $5,800, which is very low.

In the next block west, the city hall building and the adjoining residence, foots up into the thousands every

It will be seen by these figures that the jail expenses have more than doubled since 1878 and there is no telling what the bill will amount to valuation generally is found, but with this year. As a matter of business as well as economy the commissioners should retrench, and as a matter of business they should provide something for tramps, burglars and criminals to do.

Over a year ago The Bre, in con-nection with an interview had with $4,000 and the assessment on which was but $1,500.

The B. & M. railway headquarters building, opposite the Poppleton block, with the same amount of ground was assessed at $18,000. The building covers the entire lot, 66 by 132 feet, and the lot with improvements is problem. The other lots in the same block no return, and the facts and figures exclusive of improvements, the lot be- slight expense to provide such quar ters, it will be seen from the above figures that a few years would pay for the erection of a workhouse that would in Detroit, they could be re enforced by others from the territories which are poorly provided with prisons and now send their convicts to Nebraska state's prison or even further east.
