

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Tuesday Morning May 2. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 20 cents per week. By Mail, $1.00 per Year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. C. E. MAYNE, Manager City Circulation. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

The Rescue company had a merry May party last night. Everybody should see the six-little-sleepy-heads at Dohany's this evening. Joseph Reiter makes suits up in the latest styles at 310 Broadway. April 14th. Of the number of arrests during April Officer Brooks takes the lead, he having run in fifteen.

Wm. M. Fordane, an old member of the Phoenix hook and ladder company, who has for some time been very ill, died yesterday. In the cases on the docket for gambling and selling whisky, for trial in the district court, the defendants are charged with "keeping nuisances."

C. Halcomb, charged with smashing glass in Mrs. Sofield's house and in the Garner school house, is to have his trial before Justice Abbott to-morrow. Take your friend from the Blue Wagons. Orders taken at J. T. Oliver's, and at Jones Bros' Grocery. Mullholand & Co., successors to D. F. Eicher. April 29th.

There is but one murder case for the consideration of the district court, that being the one in which Pat and Mike Ittigan are the accused, the case being one of long standing. Permits to marry were yesterday granted to Ludwig Paulus and Miss Mary Krickmann, both of this city; also to John Frost and Willmina Houk, of Pottawattamie county.

"The Land of Nod" is to be given this evening at Dohany's, when music, statury, music by the Omaha (Glee club), and by the Juvenile band, as well as other attractions are promised. The coming term of the district court, which opens on the 15th, promises to be a rather busy one. There are 244 cases to be disposed of. Of these 101 are old ones, 95 new ones and 48 criminal cases.

The dry goods men are now struggling to see who can devise the most attractive show window decorations. In one of Pontenfelds was yesterday displayed a May pole of ribbons, and a May-day queen very tastily arrayed. A new paper is to be issued next Thursday. It is to be called "The Advance," and is to be devoted to the cause of prohibition, and will be conducted by the executive committee of the Council Bluffs club. Its first issue will be 2,000 and it will be published weekly after that during the campaign.

The executive committee of the prohibitionists desire to have all friends of the cause contribute so far as possible toward defraying the expenses of the campaign. One friend has sent in without solicitation a check for $25, and others are expected to show equal willingness to pay toward the fund. The ladies of the city who are interested in the temperance work are expected to meet in the parlor of the Baptist church next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, to make arrangements for engaging more actively in the work. An organization will be perfected, probably, and all are invited to be present.

Yunker's beer garden seemed lively Sunday afternoon. Many teams gathered about the place, and the thrifty ones did not have to alight, the foaming beer being passed outside. How about enforcing the ordinance regarding selling on Sunday? Now that Pat Lacey has been fined for keeping open on Sunday, other offenders should be treated to a like dose. The Philharmonic club, in its enthusiasm for music, has been trying to get some first class concert or opera troupe here. It has succeeded in making arrangements by which the Lotta Opera company is to appear here on the 29th inst. Lotta, as all know, is about the only prima donna now traveling in concert, and is one of the best. The troupe also has John Skelton, a cornetist who is about the only rival to Levy; Miss Nellie Bangs, a pianist of rare skill; H. L. Cleveland, tenor; Della Oxford, contralto; Julius Berghy, baritone. The company is to give a varied programme, including the second act from "Martha," with costumes and scenery complete. The Philharmonic club has made a heavy guarantee to secure the company, and it is hoped that the music lovers of the city will give the enterprise a hearty support.

OPENING TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY AT BLISS'. Mueller sells music at one-third off. A new lot just received. PERSONAL. H. B. Bergh, agent in the revenue service, is in the city. D. K. Abrams, of Burlington, Iowa, was at the Pacific house yesterday. Sam Morrison, who has suffered so from rheumatism, is able to be out again, though on the hobble. C. M. Whitney has returned from another trip, in which he has been stirring up a lively business for Peregray & Moore. Capt. W. B. Hamilton, of Des Moines, has been engaged by the executive committee of the prohibitionists, to put in his whole time during the campaign, in work in Pottawattamie county. You can get better bargains in toys and fancy goods at J. Mueller's than elsewhere. Grand opening of Paris millinery at L. C. Arbuthnot's, 446 Broadway, Friday and Saturday, May 5th and 6th. The latest styles for spring and summer in dress-making and trimmings. Bliss' sales of millinery was very large last month, because no such bargains were ever offered before in Council Bluffs. Call and see the prices and goods. You will be convinced.

PAID FIREMEN.

A Change to Be Made as Soon as Water works Are Established. Pat Lacey Will Not Then Hold so Complete Sway.

The talk of establishing a paid fire department is resting rather easy at present, and although there are several of the aldermen who favor such a change, yet it is thought advisable to wait until it is seen what the water works will amount to. If they are completed and prove as efficient as expected, it is thought that it would be well to make the change then, and not before, as with the use of the hydrants and hose, a few paid men can accomplish much toward suppressing flames. Some who have canvassed the matter think that with water works, one steamer and four hose carts would suffice, and would furnish better protection than that now given, and that by changing into a paid department the city would be a gainer on many accounts.

One advantage will surely be gained by having a paid department. The council would not be held under the sway of fear, lest by some action the department would refuse to serve. If the men were paid their places could be filled by others provided they chose to quit. The hold which Pat Lacey has had, and to some extent now has upon the department renders it rather risky to make any move toward putting in any other man in his place. At least the council feel so. It has been tried before, and the council had to revoke its action. With a paid department, Mr. Lacey would find himself without a whip, and the council would be able to hire such officers and men as were deemed best for the interests of the city. If the council should choose to employ a man as chief who runs such a business as Lacey is known to run, the council would have to stand the responsibility, without even the excuse of fear to shield them. The question of a paid department is resting largely upon the completion of the water works enterprise, and the change now seems to be not only probable, but sure to come. In that day Pat Lacey will lose his grip.

A beautifully trimmed hat for one dollar at Bliss'. Music, mirth, elegant costumes, fairy scenes, dream-sprites, statury, the Schmocker family—all at Dohany's this evening.

SECURED AT LAST. Council Bluffs is to Have a New Government Building.

The Bill Passed the House Yesterday. Yesterday was the day in which the appropriation bills for government buildings were to be considered, and naturally there was much eagerness to learn whether that granting one to Council Bluffs was to be reached. It looked as if it could not be, and most were of the opinion that it would have to go over until the first Monday in June.

To the surprise of all there was a telegram received by J. T. Hart from W. C. James, who is now in Washington, stating that the bill had passed the house. This glad news sped quickly from lip to lip, and was on all sides the cause of rejoicing. The bill appropriates $100,000, and the question is now virtually settled. The securing of this building entitles Congressman Hepburn to a long credit mark, and Mr. James doubtless furthered the measure as far as possible during his visit to the capital. A new lot of Gendron iron-wheel baby carriages at Mueller's. TWINKLE, TWINKLE. The Stars and the Officers Whom They Gleaned Upon.

Despite the fact that the saloons were supposed to have been kept closed on Sunday, there were a number of citizens whose parched throats were so fully quenched that they attracted the attention of officers Sunday night and yesterday morning they were brought before a different sort of a bar. George Ready was one of these. He plead guilty and paid the usual $7. H. Hamilton, a railroad worker, was also drunk, and was assessed the same amount. Hans Petersen pleaded guilty to a like offense, and was taxed $8. B. Hiles, a brick-maker, had sat down on the sidewalk to take a rest, when an acquaintance came up and began to bother him. The two had a scuffle, in which the window of an adjacent store was smashed. An officer came along—$7 in all. William Warriner and W. F. Lewis were arrested for malicious mischief on what is known as the Babbitt property, it being charged that they kicked open a door, tipped over an outhouse, and committing other like depredations. They will have a hearing to-day. Henry Williams was arrested for disturbing the peace, and threatening to carve a man with a razor. Many articles of value have been missed from the farm of Horace Everett, and suspicious have fallen upon Albert Shepherd as the taker. A warrant has been issued charging him with larceny. W. Martin, the expressman, was yesterday arrested for disturbing the peace, he having kicked at the door of a house of doubtful reputation. He was assessed $9. Bargains in Chickering and Weber pianos at J. Mueller's.

BOUNCED FROM BED.

A Young Colored Blood Skips Out Into the Darkness Without His Clothes.

An Irate Step Father, a Smashed Chair, and a General Midnight Mous.

There was a lively midnight mous on Mills street Sunday night. A colored family has resided there for some time, consisting of a man, his alleged wife, and a dusky maiden, the daughter of the woman, and sort of step-daughter to the man. The colored man is away from home much of the time, and during his absence, which sometimes is for weeks, there have been seen so many young men visiting the house so frequently that the suspicions of neighbors have been somewhat aroused as to the nature of the business being carried on there.

Sunday night the head of the household was at home, but even this fact did not deter one dusky young fellow from skipping into the house, and seeking the girl's room. His presence in the house was evidently discovered about 1 o'clock, when a terrible crash was heard, and screams, shouts, threats and blows were heard. The young fellow came flying out of the rear door clad simply in the suit of black with which nature had provided him, and a strange contrast with its duskiness fluttered a white garment, which was the only bit of needle-work visible as he shot out through the yard. Following him came the relics of a wooden chair which had been broken over his head. The man of the house screamed lustily for his revolver to shoot the intruder with, but the woman had hidden this, and thus a dark tragedy was spared. The midnight lover having disappeared, there remained nothing to be done except for the man, woman and girl to quarrel among themselves, and they kept up a lively quarrel for several hours, the girl weeping and protesting, the man howling for vengeance and threatening to shoot the young man, the woman charging the girl with having taken too much beer and thus forgetting her honor, and the trio making night hideous. The young fellow who raised all this rumpus had so soon, head yesterday that he was not able to show up. The chair had proved too much for him. He mourned greatly, too, over the loss of his Sunday suit, which he hesitates about applying for under the circumstances.

J. Mueller has a few more upright and square pianos to rent. Those who want to see the dreams which flit through the brain of sleepy childhood, should visit Dohany's to-night.

THE CITY COUNCIL. Proceedings of the Regular Meeting Last Evening.

At the regular meeting of the council last evening the mayor presided and Aldermen Goulden, Newell, Eicher, Wood and Siedentopf were present. The city clerk was appointed clerk of the superior court, salary to be fixed hereafter. The auditor reported the bills allowed in March by the present council to have been $817, and in April $4,110. The licenses collected in April were $1,925. The expenses for May were estimated at $4,000. The city weighmaster requested permission to locate his own scales at the intersection of Pearl and Main streets. Aldermen Siedentopf, Wood and Goulden were appointed to settle the whole matter of city scales with power to act. Mayor Bowman recommended that all powder houses be removed beyond the city limits. Concurred in, and notice to be given to have said houses removed within six months. The Nonpareil was made the official paper, it being the only applicant. The judiciary committee reported a new saloon ordinance, leaving amount of license blank. The council refused to fill the blank and the ordinance was laid over until the first meeting in June.

Don't miss the chance offered at Dohany's this evening, to visit dreamland and hear the king of the land of Nod holding court. Baby carriages, bicycles, velocipedes and children's wagons at Mueller's. Knocked Down by a Runaway. A girl employed at the Metropolitan hotel was knocked down by a runaway horse on Bancroft street last night and quite badly hurt. It Heads the List. Of all other preparations or medicines. In cases of nausea, headache, dizziness or irregularities of the system, BEEBEEK BLOOD BITTERS have no equal. They never fail in affording immediate relief. Price $1.00. 28-dlw. Choice 1 used-to-night by the Omaha Glee club and the Juvenile band at Dohany's. To the Temperance Workers of Pottawattamie County. Every township in the county that has not already done so is requested to hold a meeting at the earliest possible day and appoint a township prohibitory amendment committee of three, the names of which should be reported to L. W. Tulley, secretary of the executive committee, Council Bluffs. The friends of temperance are requested to act promptly and send in these names at once. 27-4t. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Chicago Herald's Des Moines correspondence: "Clary, the new manager of the Mail Car, was caught in flagrante delicto last night, and given a terrible beating by the injured husband. They are trying to compromise the matter, and keep it quiet, but several got to know it while it was going on."

ELECTRIC ALARMS.

A Favorable Report Made For Having the City Provided With Them.

The Cost Estimated at About One Thousand Dollars to Start on.

The council committee to whom was referred the question of having the city provided with an electric fire alarm; have investigated the matter, and last night presented their report, it being favorable to the establishment of such a system. The plan is to start with twenty boxes stationed in various parts of the city, as may be decided upon by the council. The Western Union has given permission to have the wires run along their telegraph poles, so there will be a saving in that respect. These boxes are each to be numbered, and an alarm can be turned in directly from any one of stations to the engine house, so that there would be much time saved, not only in giving the alarm, but also in informing the department just where to go. On many occasions under the present way of working, the alarms are so long in reaching the engine house, and the direction of the fire is so indefinite that much time is lost. It is estimated that the cost of installing the system with twenty stations will be about $1,000. This sum will be slightly increased from time to time, without doubt, as like lamp-posts, citizens in different localities will from time to time petition the council for boxes in their particular vicinity.

It is proposed to have cards printed with the numbers of the boxes and their locality, so that officials and citizens can be duly informed. These will doubtless soon be supplemented by like cards sent out by merchants and others for advertising purposes. Satisfactory. Mrs. Wallace, Buffalo, N. Y. writes: "I have used Chickering's BEEBEEK for nervous and bilious headaches, and have recommended them to my friends; I believe them superior to any other medicine I have used, and can recommend them to anyone requiring a cure for biliousness." Price $1.00. 28-dlw. COUNCIL BLUFFS SPECIAL NOTICES.

GOLD! GOLD! GOLD! Bright and yellow and hard and cold. Molten, battered, hammered and rolled. Heavy to get and light to hold. Hoarded, graven, bought and sold. Stolen, borrowed, squandered, and doled; Spurred by the young, but hinged by the old. To the very verge of the churchyard mould; Price of many a crime untold. GOLD! GOLD! If you want to have gold you must spend your money to the very best advantage. Do business with cash men, and where only one price will be asked or taken. REMEMBER "A tree is known by its fruit—" A store by its prices. ONE THING CERTAIN Our prices are right. Our business is a guarantee that fair dealing is our watchword. XLCR is our motto. Our business is in a most healthy condition. Every department is doing good work. Canned Goods are going off very cheap. Teas and Coffees a choice assortment. Fancy Shelf Goods for the million.
