COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning May 4.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 20 cents per week; By Mail, $10.00 per Year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. C. E. MAYNE, Manager City Circulation. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

Arrangements are soon to be made for observing Decoration Day here. Joseph Reiter makes suits up in the latest styles at 310 Broadway. ap14-15

The officials of the K. C. railway were in the city yesterday, arranging for the St. Paul to enter at the transfer depot. The anti-prohibitionists have arranged for a mass meeting on Friday evening, May 19th, at which some stirring speeches are expected.

The police do not seem able yet to find Ed. McCarthy, who is wanted to answer to the charge of doing some wild shooting the other night. Take your ice from the Blue Wagon. Orders taken at J. T. Oliver's and at Jones Bros. grocery. Mulholland & Co., successors to D. F. Eicher. ap12-14

Base ball playing is getting common even on the main streets, and gladiators are proving thereby. Yesterday G. R. Beard lost a front window on Pearl street. Nellie Long, who was sentenced to jail for larceny, is now released. It appears that she is only an alias, and that she is the daughter of a merchant in Des Moines, who has doubtless seen her last all trace of his wayward girl.

The board of education have decided to employ Mr. Maxon as the architect for building a school house in Hall's addition, and to adopt his plans for the same, subject to such modifications and changes as the board may see proper to suggest. The funeral services of the late Wm. McFarlane were held yesterday afternoon and were largely attended by his fellow citizens. Rev. B. P. Brasse conducted the services. The juvenile band furnished appropriate music for the procession accompanying the remains.

The revolver with which McGee shot and killed the Washington is now in the possession of the colored man on Mills street, who tried in vain the other night to find it to shoot a young fellow who was seated in his step-daughter's room. It is said that the girl had not secreted the weapon, another tragedy might have occurred. The girl, whose lover had such a narrow escape, is said to be the same one over whom the row occurred which ended in Washington's death.

Yesterday afternoon a pleasant wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. A. Slyter. The contracting parties were Mr. D. J. Dickinson and Miss Ollie Mace, a cousin of Mrs. Slyter. There were present only the relatives and a few intimate friends, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. P. F. Brasse. Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson are both from Eldora, where they are employed as teachers in the reform school. Each has many friends who will join heartily in congratulations and well-wishes.

A chance for charity is reported in the first ward. The family reside on Broadway east of the Methodist church, and consist of an old man, his wife and six or seven children, the oldest being about fourteen. The old man is confined to his bed by illness, and the woman is kept busy caring for him. The children have had the measles, and two of them have had a relapse which causes them to need special care. The family is thus rendered worse than helpless. The old man has lived here a number of years, and is sober and industrious, and until his sickness has always been able to take care of his household by washing, to eke out a livelihood for his family. Now they are reported as being very needy, and desiring of some assistance to help them over the present bare sledding.

PERSONAL.

J. C. Ferrigo, an old Northwestern conductor, was yesterday at the Ogden. W. C. Ellis and wife, of Missouri Valley, were yesterday at the Ogden. E. A. Babcock, the well known attorney of Avoca, was visible upon the streets yesterday. Mrs. A. C. Brown and daughter, of St. Louis, are in the city, expecting to remain for a time in hopes of bettering the daughter's health. They are now stopping at the Ogden. Do not forget the sale of short-horns, to be held at the Driving Park in Council Bluffs on Friday next at 2 p. m. See advertisement. J. F. Hart will offer for sale at same time and place seven head of choice pedigree females. may3-3t To the Temperance Workers of Pottawattamie County. Every township in the county that has not already done so is requested to hold a meeting at the earliest possible day and appoint a township prohibitory amendment committee of three, the names of which should be reported to L. W. Tullys, secretary of the executive committee, Council Bluffs. The friends of temperance are requested to act promptly and send in these names at once. 27-4t EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Grand opening of Paris millinery at L. C. Arbuthnot's, 446 Broadway, Friday and Saturday, May 5th and 6th. The latest styles for spring and summer in dress-making and trimmings. may2 5t Satisfactory. Mrs. Wallace, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I have used BURROCK BLOOD BITTERS for nervous and bilious headaches, and have recommended them to my friends; I believe them superior to any other medicine I have used, and can recommend them to anyone requiring a cure for biliousness." Price $1.00. 28-dw Hiram Brown, of Newton, dropped dead of heart disease c. the 28th ult.

A BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Council is thus Organized and Given Power to Act.

Under the present law the mayor and aldermen constitute the board of health of the city, and are in duty bound to organize as such in May and hold another meeting in November. A special meeting can be called at any time, but the regular meetings are in May and November, and an annual report must be made in the latter month. In accordance with this law the council of this city has organized a board of health, but has not yet appointed a physician as authorized by the statutes. Power is given this board of health to abate any nuisance, or remove any building so declared. They can, on being satisfied that a nuisance exists in any building, enter said building and examine its condition. They can require buildings, houses, cellars, etc., to be cleaned up, and have full control over the care of contagious diseases. The law provides for penalties for those failing to obey the mandates of the board. In abating a nuisance a notice is served, and any one thus maintaining a nuisance must remove the cause of complaint within the time set, or be subject to a penalty of $20 for every twenty-four hours which it remains after that time. In the case of many alleys in the city this gives the board of health ample opportunity to show their power for the public good, and in view of the penalty of $20 a day, there would be few who would hesitate to clean up after being told to do so.

BONNY BONNETS.

They Draw the Attention of Many Ladies, and Make a Brilliant Display. The announcement of the summer opening at Bliss' well known millinery establishment, No. 328 Broadway, is causing many ladies to visit that emporium of fashion, and the brilliancy of the display certainly merits the many words of praise heard on all sides. There are many articles of rare beauty and taste exhibited, and the variety is so great that one cannot but find "just the handiwork yet." The display of imported bonnets and hats is one which is a credit to the city, and certainly entitles the establishment to the rank of one of the most enterprising in the west. There is a charming display of flowers and trimmings, and in extent it is almost marvelous. Then there are fancy articles for the boudoir, neckwear in great variety, and a multiplicity of unique and beautiful articles to make a lady's toilet complete in fashion and in good taste. It is not to be wondered at that ladies swarm the place, and compliment freely. It is one of the finest ever seen here.

FINES AND FINDINGS.

How They Were Fixed in the Courts Yesterday.

Eddie Cole, the boy who was arrested for throwing a switch and ditching some cars and an engine, was before Judge Aylesworth yesterday. It seemed to be a case of boyish playfulness, rather than any act of maliciousness, and was the result of boys frolics about the railway yards. The judge sentenced the boy to ten days in jail, at which the youthful face presented a badly frightened look, but it was quickly followed by a sigh of relief when informed that the sentence would be suspended on condition that he should keep away from the railways, and choose other play grounds, but that if he broke this promise he would have to serve his time. The boy promised good and strong, and was allowed to go. If some other boys had a like sentence hanging over their heads it might do much toward breaking up the practice of lounging and playing about the tracks and cars. Thomas Graham was thrown in the balances and weighed out as a simple $7 drunk. John Gannon for fast and reckless driving upon the streets and over the bridges was fined $3 and costs. George Jones, a colored man, was arrested on the complaint of a dusky maiden named Mary Hull, who is a denizen of the rocky next to the Bryant house. She claimed that Jones had insulted her on the streets. Jones' story was that he was walking with a friend when they met her. His friend was acquainted with the girl and saluted her with "Hello, baby," and the girl laughed and replied so good-naturedly that he concluded to call her "baby" too. It proved too good for the dusky maiden, and she wouldn't have it. The first policeman she could find was sent after Jones and he was locked up. The case was heard yesterday afternoon and the prisoner discharged, for which he seemed duly grateful and promised to let the woman alone after this. John Welch was arrested yesterday for being drunk. Young Holman, charged with smashing windows in the Garner school house and in Mrs. Scofield's residence, was before Justice Abbott yesterday. The cases were settled by his paying costs, and also repairing all damages, this leniency being shown on account of his previous character and the fact that he was drunk at the time. Still another charge was against him, that of assaulting a boy, and he was placed under bonds of $100 to appear in thirty days. He also gave bonds to keep the peace hereafter.

Innocent Nan Hanged.

National Associated Press. LAREDO, Tex., May 3.—In Jalisco, Mexico, yesterday Amatalan, a poor peasant, was taken out and shot without trial. The cause was stolen stock found in his field. Amatalan was afterwards proved innocent. Bob Ford in Chicago. National Associated Press. CHICAGO, May 3.—Bob Ford, whose notoriety rests on the fact that he is the slayer of Jesse James, is alleged to be in the city, having arrived from the west late last night.

THE POLL TAX.

Even a Man's Shirt is Liable to be Taken If It is Not Paid.

The poll tax list is made out, and is in the hands of the newly elected collector, David Mattaz, who will proceed at once to gather in the ducaats. The tax has been fixed at $3, which must be paid in cash, or in labor on the streets, two days' work being required in lieu of cash, the allowance being $1.50 per day. The provisions of the law are very stringent, and if there is any neglect or refusal to pay, a judgment can be secured for double the amount, that is, for $6, and costs of action, and an execution issued. There is nothing, in fact, exempt from execution for non-payment of poll tax. If a man has a single day's wages due him, it can be garnished, and if he has any personal property whatever, even if it be no more than a shirt, it can be seized. The framers of the law seem determined that no one shall escape payment, and while the law will not probably be thus strictly carried out, yet it behooves a man to settle promptly in view of such possibilities.

IOWA ITEMS.

Creston has seven policemen. Grinnell has no more small pox. Measles are epidemic in Muscatine. Sioux county has no more small pox. Clarinda has a new hotel, the Linderman. Calliope will soon have a Methodist church. A national bank has been organized at Stuart. The Des Moines coal miners are threatening to strike. Timothy hay sold in Creston last Saturday at $17 a ton. The Vail Observer is four years old and is a healthy Hawkeye. Five hundred trees have just been set out in the public park at Vail. Essex dealers in options recently pocketed $20,000 on deals in corn. Ridgeway has formed a citizens' co-operative association "for the good of the town." The Congregationalists at Storm Lake have purchased a lot and will erect a church edifice. Linn, Jones and Delaware counties exported $4,000,000 worth of butter and cheese last year. C. J. Bjergren, of Fremont township, Page county, suicided on the 26th ult. Partial insanity caused by sickness. One evening a week ago, the entire population of Essex, alarmed by the increasing wind, took refuge in cellars expecting a cyclone. P. G. Farmer, an old citizen of Clinton, dropped dead from a chair after breakfast the other day. Paralysis was the cause of death. Mrs. Morrison, of Eagle Grove, has commenced legal proceedings against two saloon men of that place for $5,000 damages for selling liquor to her husband. A law went into effect April first, providing that a chattel mortgage must be recorded within thirty days after its execution to remain valid after that time. In Linn county the other day a man named Gillespie was digging a well when it caved in and buried him alive. It took over twenty-four hours to recover the body. The city council of Logan has notified the Northwestern railroad company that its trains must not obstruct any street of that place for more than five consecutive minutes. The body of Samuel Henderson, who was drowned in Cedar river near Vinton last fall, was not found until the 25th ult. A reward of $500 had been offered for the recovery. The proposition of the Brush electric light company to Dubuque is to furnish light equal to 50,000 candles, to be thrown from eight towers, ranging in height from 125 to 150 feet each. At the present meeting of the Iowa United Presbyterian Presbytery at Ainsworth the proposition to admit the use of instrumental music in church service was voted down by 17 to 12. Harlan broke up its only house of ill fame the other day, and when its keeper was arraigned any number of able-bodied citizens took it into their heads that it was a good time to go a hunting.—Greenfield Transcript. On the night of the 26th ult. two Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul freight trains collided at Hale, near Oxford Junction, owing to a fog. Both engines and one car were smashed, but no one was hurt. John Vedo, of Clayton county, has been married twenty-one years and is the father of twenty-one living children, besides having lost five by death. During the twenty-one years his wife gave birth to thirteen pair of twins. The Grinnell & Montezuma railroad has been sold to the Iowa Central, at a valuation of $27,000 per mile, payable $15,000 per mile in common stock of the Central company, and $12,000 in six per cent. bonds of the same company. Harry Wilderman, aged 14, was shot dead by Jesse De Eox, the same age, at Glenwood last Friday. The killing seems to have been unintentional, but the coroner's jury decided to hold De Eox responsible and he will stand trial.

THE CODFISH.

Bill Nye's Tribute to the Qualities of this Well Known Character. The Boomerang. This tropical bird seldom wings his way so far west as Wyoming. He loves the sea breezes and the humid atmosphere of the Atlantic ocean and when isolated in this mountain climate pine for his native home. The codfish can not sing, but is prized for his beautiful plumage and seductive odor. The codfish of commerce is devoid of digestive apparatus and is more or less permeated with salt. Codfish on toast is not as expensive as quail on toast. The codfish ball is made of the shattered remains of the adult codfish.

TOO UTTERLY UTTER!

The codfish has a great wealth of glad unremembered smiles. When he laughs at anything he has that same wide waste of mirth and buck teeth that Mr. Talmage has. The Wyoming codfish is generally dead. Death in most cases is the result of exposure and loss of appetite. No one can look at the codfish of commerce and not shed a tear. Far from home, with his system filled with salt, while his internal economy is gone, there is an air of sadness and homeliness and briny hopelessness about him that no one can see unmoved. It is in our home life, however, that the codfish makes himself felt and remembered. When he enters our household, we feel his all-pervading presence, like the perfume of wood violets or the odor of a dead mouse in the piano. Friends may visit us and go away to be forgotten with the advent of our new face, but the cold, calm, silent corpse of the codfish cannot be forgotten. Its chastened influence permeates the untrodden parlor like an unbidden guest, and flavors the costly curtains and the high priced lambrequins. It enters the dark closet and dallies lovingly with your swallow-tail coat. It goes into your sleeping apartment and makes its home in your glove box and your handkerchief case. That is why we say that it is a solemn thing to take the life of a codfish. We would not do it. We would pray him by a thousand times, no matter how ferocious he might be, rather than to take his life and have our once happy home haunted forever by his unholy presence.

It Heads the List Of all other preparations or medicines. In cases of nausea, headache, dizziness or irregularities of the system, BURROCK BLOOD BITTERS have no equal. They never fail in affording immediate relief. Price $1.00. 28-dw
