LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Born to M. H. Redfield and wife, May 7th, a daughter; weight, nine pounds. All well.

THE GERMAN THEATRE.

Miss Emilie Ahl-Puls Makes Her Debut in Omaha and Receives a Brilliant Reception.

Sunday evening Miss Emilie Ahl-Puls, the celebrated German actress, made her first appearance in our German theatre.

Despite the inclemency of the weather quite a respectable gathering of patrons of the theatre assembled to witness the performance.

The play represented was "Honest Work," by H. Wilton. It is a musical farce of a very amusing character and was much appreciated by the audience.

Miss Ahl-Puls is a charming and talented actress, with a very sweet voice, which she knows how to use very effectively.

During the second act he sung a song on the topics of the day, and created much amusement on his being recalled, by giving extemporaneously a few lines on Omaha, in the course of which he described Mr. Joe Hirschfeld as the most popular cigar salesman in Omaha.

OROURKE'S OBSEQUIES.

A Large and Impressive Cortage—Close of an Eventful Career.

The funeral of Captain John O'Rourke, who died on Friday last in the Southern hotel, St. Louis, while on his way home from the Hot Springs, where he had gone for the benefit of his health, took place yesterday at Plattsmouth, and was one of the most imposing obsequies ever held in the state.

A large number of visitors were present from neighboring cities, including several from Omaha. From one of the latter, who returned last night, we learn the following particulars of the sad affair:

The funeral cortege was accompanied by members of the G. A. R., a number of firemen, members of the land league, and a host of friends and acquaintances of the deceased.

At the time of his death Captain O'Rourke was forty-six years of age. His life was a very eventful one, and he played a very prominent part during the civil war.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.

The Necessity of Protecting Travelers Better.

Yesterday a Swede by the name of John Paulson came in on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad and when the train stopped at Council Bluffs, a man, or rather, a train robber, of which Council Bluffs has its fill, went to Paulson and asked him to go to a hotel.

As he refused the robber continued to crowd him, and in so doing robbed him of his pocket book containing an emigrant ticket to San Francisco, 200 kroner, (Swedish money) and $12 in a ten and two dollar bill, all his accumulated wealth for many years hard work.

Paulson was on his way to join some relatives in California, but from whom he can expect no help, and as the Union Pacific refuses to do anything for him, he is compelled to stay here and try to find work.

Is there no law that compels railroads to protect passengers traveling over their roads? It is a noted fact that all they care for is the ticket or the fare.

It is not a passenger is robbed or insulted. The conductors do not care and the breakmen much less, as if they were not paid to protect the passengers.

Why don't the railroads employ a detective and clear these robbers out and severely punish them? As they are generally operating in the second class cars, where emigrant farmers, who generally carry all their wealth with them, and not being used to travelling and ignorant of the ways, these gentry act, it is there that a detective ought to be placed, constantly going over the river and back on all passenger trains.

SUPPLIANT SALESMAN.

They Organize and Petition for Shorter Hours During Summer.

Last Friday the clothing salesmen of Omaha met in Peavy Bros' dry goods store, for the purpose of effecting an organization to endeavor to induce the clothing merchants to close every evening for the present, excepting Saturday.

W. J. Savidge was elected president, and L. Rothschild secretary. A committee was appointed to draft a petition to be submitted to each clothing merchant in the city.

This committee consisted of Messrs. Stram, Despres, L. Rothschild, E. Schuff, J. Kline, J. Crowland, J. Schuff, J. Lund, William Nelson and H. Baswitz and a sub-committee was appointed to wait on the merchants and obtain their signatures to the petition.

The following is the text of the petition previously referred to: "We, the undersigned, shippers, agree to close our respective places of business at eight o'clock p. m., every day except Saturday, during the months of May, June, July and August, 1882."

This is only to be in force provided it be signed by the proprietors of all the leading clothing stores in the city.

Last evening the association met again in Peavy Bros' store, Mr. W. J. Savidge presided and Mr. L. Rothschild officiated as secretary. The committee appointed to wait on the merchants reported that all had expressed themselves willing to accede to their petition with two exceptions.

A committee of three, comprising Messrs. Despres, Kline and Burnett, was then appointed to wait on the two protesting merchants and induce them, if possible, to close their establishments at 8 o'clock.

The secretary was requested to invite all the clothing merchants to attend their next meeting, to be held in Pollock's store on Wednesday next at 9 o'clock p. m.

RADICAL REFORM.

No More Free Grub for the Courthouse Prisoners.

The recent article in THE BEER on the enormous cost of boarding the county prisoners, seems to have stirred up the county commissioners to a good move.

The sheriff will have charge of the gang, and will have authority to adopt necessary rules for subduing all refractory men in his charge. This is a big step in the right direction.

INDICATING THE DEAD.

Arrest of a Man Charged With Sending a Challenge to Fight.

A warrant was issued by Judge Bencke yesterday for the arrest of E. J. Brennan, charged by D. B. Dailey with sending him a challenge to fight a duel, which is an offense according to the laws of this State.

Brennan was arrested and gave bail in the sum of $300 to appear at 2 o'clock yesterday for a preliminary hearing.

The trouble and the nature of the offense may be gathered from the following letter, filed with the police judge:

D. Dailey, Esq. Sir:—Consequent of reminiscences brought forth from a discussion between you and my brother John tonight at supper, I deem it my duty to vindicate the honor of my dear, dear parents, peace to their ashes.

Other young men has been raised within miles of my home and now the resting place of my dear parents, neither of whom would I find within my power to do as I please, and I am not the less ready to maintain my own honor in vindication of theirs.

In regard to the statement made in THE BEER on the subject of "Song of a Wife Beater," I will acknowledge that I have heretofore, while under the influence of liquor, said things of my wife which I very much regret, more particularly those published in THE BEER on April 29.

OMAHA WHOLESALE.

They Will Try to Get a Square Deal in Freight Rates.

A meeting of the representative business men was held on Friday evening last, to take into consideration the matter of freight rates between Chicago, St. Louis and other cities and Omaha.

It is claimed that the entire wholesale trade of the city is being ruined and in danger of going entirely by the board, from the fact that there is no equalization of rates made, and that the merchants of cities to the south and west of us are invading the territory, which properly belongs to Omaha and sell goods against Omaha merchants.

The quarter-master's department will furnish the necessary transportation. Private William Andrews, re-enlisted at Fort Omaha, Neb., is assigned to Company C, Ninth Infantry.

The Hot-Spur Club. Dramatic Entertainment for the Benefit of St. Joseph's Hospital.

The Hot-Spur Dramatic Club organized recently with Mr. A. T. Large as president, an entirely non-sectarian society, is busily engaged in preparations for the presentation at Boyd's Opera House, May 20th, of "The Old Guard." This is to be produced for the benefit of St. Joseph's Hospital.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

John L. McCague, real estate agent and conveyancer, reports that the following deeds were recorded at the city clerk's office, on Monday and Tuesday, May 8th and 9th:

NO ELOPEMENT.

A Different Phase on the Mack-Byers Case.

Referring to an item which appeared in these columns, in our issue of April 27, in regard to the purported elopement of Miss Jennie Byers and James Mack, the statements are considerably modified by the gentleman named.

From the fact of his never having been out of this city since the elopement took place, it lacks at least the virtue of being a complete sensation.

Mr. Mack has felt aggrieved ever since at the highly colored reports, but says he is innocent of any dishonorable motive toward the young lady in question. It has been to him a sufficient indication that she has quietly and peaceably pursued his business in the city, and contented himself with the fact that time and circumstances would circumvent the intent of his traducers.

He is free to admit that his feelings toward the young lady have been friendly, but at all times honorable, and as he has never been known as a drinking man, he could scarcely be called objectionable in this respect.
