Business Enterprise in Several Central Nebraska Towns.
Hotel Attractions to the Men Obliged to Travel About.
Educational and Court Matters in a Number of County Seats.
Correspondence of The Bee.
SEWARD, Neb., May 11.—Central Nebraska seems to be thoroughly awake to the importance of the great issue before the people of this country to-day, especially Nebraska, the vital question of corporation rule; and it is surprising just now that "everybody" is claiming to be anti-monopoly, just as hundreds of men twenty years ago claimed to be "Union men," while they were bucking on the rebel harness to fight the stars and stripes.
They were good Union men if you let them have their way; good anti-monopolists, but we don't like "your way of saying it," or "your way of doing it," etc. It is, however, true that the people of Central Nebraska, as a mass, are becoming very much in earnest on this subject.
The David City bank, under the management of W. R. Thorp and Judge Perkins, has come into being during the last few weeks, making the third bank in that city, fully equipped. It is under the personal management of Mr. Thorp, who has been in the banking business in David City for many years, probably since the establishment of the old Butler county bank.
Johnny Great, Ulysses, has captured the only hotel in Rising City, and the burning of the other house on the corner, and both David City and Rising City are showing up many new buildings.
Shelby seems to have nearly doubled its number of houses during the last six months, and is constantly adding new business.
Prof. Makeover, for a long time filling an honorable and responsible position as one of the faculty in the Wesleyan University, has just accepted the position of principal of the school of Osceola, after an extended lecturing tour in the east.
Mr. Langworthy has taken possession of the Commercial House and proposes to demonstrate that he can "keep a hotel."
The Commercial House at Strom-burg has passed in the hands of Mr.
P. Carlton, formerly from near Grand Island, and the travelling public will be glad to learn that they find pleasant accommodations again in this growing, busy young city.
Annoxa, like many other western towns, has been having a chronic difficulty about schools, that has cost money and valuable time, as well as much bitter feeling, and we rejoice that harmony seems to be returning, and school is at work in the new brick building.
W. H. Fairchild & Co. will soon be in their new large brick store on the opposite corner of the square, where they are building with N. C.
Rogers, good store buildings of mammoth proportions, and a large opera-hall over both stores, and J. H. Bell is about to move the bank into his new brick.
The Aurora House under the management of M. B. Jones, is growing in popularity and generally brings up a full load from the trains, while the Central House at York is probably the best of our smaller hotels in the central part of the state. Everybody in York talks about the "Seminary" and show an honest pride in their "college," while the public school, the most important, to the individual and the town collectively, may be overlooked. Prof. R. M. Bridges is a "man" of his profession, and he carries a big load on his shoulders. I readily discovered, by a few minutes peep into his assembly hall, when he had massed his forces. We watched the orderly and quiet behavior, and the thoughtful, pleasant faces of the hundreds of children assembled there, and their prompt response to every call, and we felt like asking the school board there and in every other village in our land: "If you often do you visit the schools?" Or is a hog trade of more importance to you than the schools?
Did you ever think that it is your duty to visit the school, kindly and cheerfully, and assist by your presence and your interest; and do you know it is also your duty to watch the school as well as study your duty there? Did you know that it is an obligation you took upon yourself when you assumed the duty of school officer to deal honestly with these children and the district money, and that you can not do that unless you make yourself really familiar with the school and school methods, and the wants of that school in particular?
And did you know that to neglect this duty is a violation of those great and important interest entrusted to you, and as criminal as to rob children or improperly use your neighbor's money or credit in any other way, or to break your bargain when it is to save you a dollar and great loss to others?
The principal attraction at Seward this week is the district court, held in a public hall, because the court house is deemed unsafe. The prominent murder trial, to have been heard this term, was put over until next term, and all other jury business, because, after the grand jury had found indictments against several parties and the murder case came up for trial, it was discovered that the county commissioners had made some grave mistakes in drawing the jury men, and all were illegally selected; and Judge Post very promptly sent them home with the thanks of the court, and a regret that their hard work was of no use; and that it was no fault of theirs that they were no longer of any service to the court. The nine divorce cases in the present term may also lay over until next term. There is probably no business enterprise in Seward that the people of the place have had occasion to be proud of in the last year or two, as they have in the fact that Seward has at last a magnificent hotel; and the traveling men are as much pleased as anybody, and all rejoice that it is being well patronized.

A very large assembly of friends and invited guests from town and from neighboring cities, were present at the grand opening a few week since, and it will be useless to describe the house and its appointments, for "Mack" has a great many friends, and they always call on him if they are in town. The thousands of dollars spent for furniture, the great outlay for water, gas and every convenience that could suggest itself, the blooming flowers and large green house plants, the elegant table, and the perfect system and watchfulness to anticipate every want, and the general favor with which it is received by the public, indicate that this is to be one of the most popular hotels, and Mr. G. McCarty, the proprietor, and his much-esteemed lady, are to be congratulated on the success of this enterprise. A large number of the high schools and seminaries in Nebraska and Iowa are reading THE BEE as a part of the general exercise in the schools, every day.

Shall We Pay 17?
Indiana Courier.
We hope the honorable gentlemen who compose our legislative body will authorize the citizens of Omaha to pay the expenses incurred during the late "unpleasantness" in that city.
We see the governor has included that item in his call, and asks the legislature to sanction his audacious haste, and the actions of an imbecile city government by passing bills to pay the expenses thereof from the state treasury. This is one of the cheapest tricks we have struck for some time and if the tax payers of this state, outside of Omaha, don't make their just indignation felt in the coming conventions and at the polls, we are greatly mistaken in human nature. Where, we ask, is the justness or fairness, in asking the state to pay the expense of "quelling a riot" in any town of this state without the officers of that town or county having used all means in their power to overcome it? For expenses incurred in prosecuting offenders against a city ordinance the city is liable, and in state cases, the county where the offense took place, and in no event can the state be made liable without a reasonable or probable cause to fear that the lesser authorities could not quell the disturbance. In the case at bar, we ask Governor Nance how he determined the necessity for sending troops to Omaha, was it from the fact that the local authorities had exhausted every means in their power to quell the disturbance? Or, is it not a matter of fact, that the occasion was taken advantage of by you to manufacture political capital for the coming campaign? As the history of the "riot" shows that the former was not the case, we are forced to the conclusion that some motive akin to the latter view of the case must have entered into the actions taken by you.

INCREDIBLE.
F. A. Scratch, druggist, Ruthven, Oct. writes: "I had the greatest confidence in your BUNDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. In one case with which I am personally acquainted, their success was almost incredible.
One lady told me that half a bottle did her more good than hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine she had previously taken." Price $1.00. m5-dlv.
