THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The Kind of Books Most Frequently Asked For. At a meeting of the trustees of the free public library held Tuesday afternoon, resolutions were passed expressive of sympathy for their fellow-trustee, Judge Casady, upon whom has lately fallen so heavy a weight of sorrow, by the death of his wife.

The secretary was instructed to return thanks to THE BEE and other city papers for furnishing the library with copies of their daily issues.

An amendment to the by-laws was adopted by which any non-resident taxpayer of the city, living within ten miles of the limits, shall be allowed the privileges of the library.

The president was requested to communicate with Congressman Hepburn regarding the securing of public reports to complete sets of which a portion are already in the library, and to secure such other volumes as may prove of interest.

A careful and analyzed report was made of the books already drawn out of the library by the reading public. The figures showed that about two-thirds of the books drawn were works of fiction.

IOWA ITEMS.

The Decora brewery is to be turned into a creamery. Webster City taxes a circus $50, with side shows extra.

Maquoketa has raised its saloon license to $1,000 a year. Marengo, to secure a flax factory, is to raise a bonus of $1,500.

So far 125 saloons licenses have been issued in Dubuque. The abstract men have a state convention in Des Moines May 31.

A stock company has been organized at Osceola to build a $20,000 hotel. David C. Newell, of Douds, Van Buren county, has been arrested for procuring a pension through forged papers.

The Vinton saloons are all closed. Their licenses expired, and they have to await a meeting of the council for a new permit.

The judge of the district court will be asked to formally declare the Des Moines jail an unfit place in which to place prisoners.

Carl Wedertz, aged 73, and one of the oldest German settlers of Des Moines county, blew his brains out on the night of the 5th.

Architect Ellis, of Marshalltown, has been chosen to draw the plans for the new building for the girls' department at Mitchellville.

The first arrests we have noticed for violating the fish law were at Cedar Rapids May 3. Two men were "taken in" for catching bass in the Cedar river.

E. L. Cook is under arrest at Sheldon for committing an assault upon Mrs. C. H. Brooks. The News of the 5th says: "It appears that the lady is in a delicate condition, and now lies in great distress and bodily torment from the injuries she received."

MEAT FOR SUNDAY.

A Move to Allow the Butcher Shops to Keep Open on Sundays. As most know there is an ordinance now on the books providing that "it shall be unlawful for any person engaged in the butcher business to keep any stall, shop, meat market, or sell by himself, agent, servant, clerk or employee, or offer any meat for sale, or keep open any such place for the purpose of selling any meat on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, from the first day of October to the first of May of each year."

The ordinance provides that the penalty for violation shall not exceed $20 and costs.

There seems to be a difference of desires among those engaged in the meat business, some wanting to keep open Sunday and others to keep closed. Those who are in favor of a shut house have started a petition, to be presented to the council, asking that body to so amend the ordinance as to make meat markets keep closed every Sunday during the winter, instead of simply during the winter, thus shutting up in the summer time, when meats spoil readily.

On the other hand, there are citizens who keep no ice-boxes, and if, in

Some Work Needed to Keep the Prisoners From Getting Too Fat. The stone-breaking has ceased, and those who are committed to the calaboose for violations of city ordinances have nothing to do but sit in the den, eat, drink and grow fat, and add to the odiferous condition of the room. The supply of stone, which has been the means of giving prisoners some little employment, has now given out. Some time ago some more stone was secured from the Macedonia quarry, with the view of keeping the men at work, but on its arrival here it was deemed best to save the stone for culverts, instead of smashing it up to use on the streets. Hence, the boys are now left without anything to do. The cost of working the prisoners does away with any great profit to the city, but they have to be boarded, anyway, at a cost of 60 cents a day, whether they work or not, and many would be a little more anxious to keep out of the toils of the law if they were certain they would have to work out their fines.

PERSONAL. Capt. Reuben Kelly, of Atton, Ia., called at THE BEE office. He is on his way to Montana to look after extensive mining interests.

Mr. Berry, of Hastings, a well known stock man of that place, was taking in the city yesterday under the guidance of his friend, J. W. Morse.
