Sr. Louis, May 11.—The session of the Army of the Tennessee was re-sumed this morning, General Sherfirst business was the receiving of reports of committees on place for next meeting, oratory, etc. A resolution was adopted, thanking General Buck-ner for his courage at the battle of Shiloh. Brief talks were made by General Belknap and General Noble. The debate of the morning was principally on events of the late war, and the most interesting pertion of the proceedings was in the way of reminiscences of the struggle. The meeting was closed with a brief address from General Sherman, in which he referred to the liberal hospitality

BUPPALO, N. Y., May 11 .- In the investigation to-day of the affairs of the First National bank, which re-cently failed, the examination of R. Porter Lee, late president of the bank, was concluded. Hon. Richard Hall's notes for $20,000 each, and expected. that after giving these notes Hall made notes for $190,000 more, which he knew he could not pay. Mr. Crowley said that he intended to nake two new charges against President Lee, one for perjury and the other for making false statements as to the condition of the bank. W. S. Bull denied that the firm of W. S. Bull & Co. owed the bank $30,000, but said he had discovered since the bank closed that it had notes against W. S. Bull & C., for $30,000, in Lee's handwriting. Lee, he said, was not authorized to sign notes for the firm.
