MINOR MENTIONS.

—To-day is circus day.
—Fancy goods at cost at Herzmon's.
—Sir Cuss arrives in the city to-day.
—Goods fresh at lowest prices at Herzmon's.
—The water works company is working actively on its reservoir near the river.
—Closing out sale of millinery at Herzmon's.
—Joseph Reiter makes suits in the latest styles at 310 Broadway. April 14.
—The work of clearing the ground for the beginning of the Shugart block has commenced.
—Herzmon is surprising everybody by low prices.
—Invitations were yesterday sent to all the secret organizations to join with the Grand Army of the Republic in observance of Decoration day here.
—Herzmon sells new goods at prices lower than others sell old goods, his stock shows for itself and is as fresh as his prices are cheap.
—Take your ice from the Blue Wagon. Orders taken at J. T. Oliver's and at Jones Bros' Grocery. Mulholland & Co., Successors to D. F. Eicher. April 24.
—Marshall Jackson is finding his time well occupied in serving notices to patch up sidewalks, in accordance with resolutions passed by the city council. It is easy enough to pass resolutions, but it takes leg-muscle and patience to serve the individual notices.
—The following are the latest to receive permits to wed: Henry Dittmer and Margaret Shappok, both of this city; John Timm and Adaheld Von Weyhe, both of Silver Creek; Charles Hough and Joseph Patterson, both of Big Grove; Ed. Nolan and Gertrude A. Elston, both of Council Bluffs.
—Bliss do not intend to close out, but will sell new millinery, all kinds of fancy goods and notions at lower prices than you can buy old shelf-worn bankrupt stock of goods. We keep nothing but the very best and the latest styles of goods. For nice goods and low prices go to Bliss.
—The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway has issued a very attractive tourist's book, containing illustrations, maps and a meap, readable accounts of the many pleasure resorts of Minnesota, and points of beauty along its entire route. The book is attractive in art, interesting and instructive in reading matter and will be perused and preserved by all in whose hands it falls. Anyone desiring a copy can secure one freely by addressing J. H. O'Brien, western passenger agent, Council Bluffs.
—Rev. Dr. Cleland, at the Presbyterian church, delivered a very temperate temperance address Sunday evening, which was closely listened to by a large audience, the seating capacity of the church being scarcely sufficient to accommodate the number of auditors. The speaker handled the subject from different standpoints in a clever, forcible manner, and used reason and logic with much ability. Excellent music was furnished by a male quartet, and among the pieces rendered was "Where is My Boy To-night," which was given with much effectiveness.
—Dr. Patton has arranged in his office a large collection of evidences of his skill, including a large number of tapeworms and other parasites to health and happiness, of which he has relieved suffering patients. The doctor is very methodical in keeping the record of all those who undergo thorough treatment for eye and ear troubles, numbering every case and retaining the name, address, disease and treatment, so that if a patient needs any treatment in the future he can readily refer to his memory as to the peculiar facts of that particular case and prescribe intelligently. It is also a satisfactory method of getting at proof of the doctor's success as an aurist and oculist, as any one desiring can thus gain the names and addresses of patients and investigate for themselves. His books show 343 cases thus registered during the last year, besides his other business.

THE YELLOW FLAG.

Another Case of Small Pox Reported and Prompt Action taken to Prevent More.

A young man who has been lately at Anderson's boarding house and saloon on lower Broadway, yesterday showed symptoms of coming down with the small pox, and the authorities promptly removed him to the hospital tent on the country poor farm. It is stated that the disease had not developed sufficiently to render it probable that any have been exposed to it, and precautionary steps have been taken so that no further cases will probably arise from this one. It was also reported that there was another case in the old Sioux City house on Broadway east of Pearl street, but this proved to have originated from the fact that the young man had a sister there, but that he had not roomed there for months. The two cases already in the hospital tent are reported as getting along very well indeed. The Emmett house, which has been under quarantine, has been thoroughly renovated, whitewashed, etc., and beds and bedding supposed to be in the least infectious have been burned. The quarantine will probably be raised within a day or two, and it is thought that all danger is passed from that source.

WANTED.—To trade a fine lot of Sewing Machines for Nebraska land. Address, M. A. TRAVIS, Box 1332 Council Bluffs, Ia. May 13-61.

NOBLE NINE.

Council Bluffs Wielders of the Bat and Tossers of the Ball.

The base ball season in Council Bluffs promises to be decidedly interesting. A strong nine has been organized, which, after a few match games, will doubtless develop nerve and skill. The nine, as now composed, consists as follows: Strocks, c.; Mack, p.; Bryan, 1st b.; Clinton, 2d b.; Brown, M., 3d b.; Brown, Geo., s. s.; Evans, r. f.; Hart, c. f.; Ather-ton, l. f.; with Bryan as captain and James Bowman as scorer.

Grounds have been arranged near the agricultural works, and they are in excellent condition, and arrangements are being made so that 'buses will afford convenient and cheap transit to those desiring to attend the games.

The club are being provided with new uniforms, towards procuring which the citizens have subscribed liberally. The caps are of different colors, to designate the different positions of the players. The shirts are white and ornamented by a monogram of the letters "C. B." wrought on the breast in scarlet. The pants are trimmed with red, the hose red and the belts of the same color.

Arrangements are made for a game next Saturday afternoon between the Council Bluffs nine and the B. & M. club of Omaha. The latter club is a strong one and has won several matches games this season. An interesting game will doubtless result from this meeting and the probability is that it will be the first of a series of three, two of which will be played here.

The Union Pacific nine has organized with a backing of $1,000, and they expect to arrange games with clubs of Kansas City, St. Jo, Dubuque and Des Moines. If clubs from those cities visit Omaha the club here will try and arrange for games in this city, thus increasing the interest. The Council Bluffs club will also try to arrange games with the Atlantic and Glenwood clubs.

COMMENCING COURT.

The Opening Doings of the District Court Yesterday.

Yesterday was the opening of the district court, Judge Reed presiding. The following were impaneled as the grand jury: S. G. Morehouse, R. P. Sealey, Wooster Fay, J. J. Jennings, J. C. Lewis, L. Kirscht, C. Munger, George Fairman, A. R. Prentice, E. W. Gregory, L. Prouty, J. W. Butcher, Robert Huntington, A. M. Battelle, G. M. Griffin.

The following are named as the bailiffs: B. Schurtz, E. Cary, Joe Spaulding, J. E. Metcalf, M. W. Goss, Al Noack, W. M. Fadden. In the afternoon the bailiffs, who are ex-soldiers, brought in prisoners to give them a chance to object to the grand jury. They brought in five dusky fellows, headed by Jo Botts, who is charged with being concerned in the Key Creek assault and robbery. To see five of them brought in laid the veteran bailiffs open to the charge of having been out on a con hunt.

The following assignment of cases was made, after which adjournment was taken until to-day: Tuesday, May 16. C. Darr vs. John Fleming, injunction; Cole Bros. & Hart vs. S. W. Reynolds, et al.; Crane & Voorheis, assignees vs. H. and E. L. Stewart, equity.

Wednesday, May 17.—R. H. Miller vs. Wm. Gates, mechanic's lien. Thursday, May 18.—Cole Bros. & Hart vs. M. A. Bergan, et al., mechanic's lien; Cole Bros. & Hart vs. J. F. Baldwin, debt; Michael Walsh vs. Henry Neville, et al., equity.

LASHED BY THE LAW.

Sunday Offenders Who Had Their Cases Weighed in the Balance.

William Quinlan, who was arrested Saturday night for being drunk and disorderly and with whom Officers Brooks and Tyson had such a struggle, was before Judge Aylesworth yesterday morning, and was found guilty of disturbing the peace. He was fined $5 and costs and assessed enough more to pay for damages which he inflicted upon the gas arrangements in the calaboose, he having in his anger twisted some of the gas pipes out of place.

Mrs. Noack was complained of for maintaining a nuisance, said nuisance consisting of a ho-pen. Owing to her illness the case was continued until Friday next.

Ed. Rotts, for being drunk, was assessed $7.

J. Hogan for disturbing the peace was fined $5 and costs, which he couldn't pay. He refused, too, to work it out, and declared no one should put a ball and chain on his leg, but he may be induced to change his mind before he regains his liberty.

Albert Sidney Johnson is the full-placed name of a case which was registered at the police station yesterday as a mild drunk. The victim was picked up in front of Officer's & Fussy's bank.

Max Krielder was charged with keeping his saloon at the Rapp place open on Sunday. It appears that a young man went there and wanted to play a game of cards, which privilege was refused him, and he was advised to save his money for his family. This made him angry, and he proceeded to complain of Krielder for violating the Sunday ordinance. He changed his mind, however, and withdrew the complaint, paying the costs himself.

Mrs. Ann Ruby was complained of for disturbing the peace, the complainant being a woman living as a neighbor. The trouble seems to have sprung up from the children, as usual, and the case is set for a hearing this morning at ten o'clock.

Sunday afternoon Mr. Bowles let two women have a horse and buggy for a two hours drive, and instead of being out two hours the rig was gone nearly five. Bowles heard that a colored man named C. B. Jones was driving around with the women and that they were abusing the horse. Finally he came across Jones alone in the buggy, and made him return the horse to the stable. Jones claimed that the women had turned over the rig to him to return for them, but they had not sent the money by him for the extra time they had been using it. Bowles concluded it was a game to beat him out of his hire, and proceeded to get even with the darkey driver by wiping the floor with him. Jones complained of him for assault, and Bowles pleading guilty paid $2.00 and costs. A complaint was entered against Jones for abusing the horse, and as soon as Jones can be found he will have a hearing.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Clough found a man near the city mills so drunk that if the hands of the officer had not fallen upon him he would have fallen into the creek. He was laid away in the cooler to dry out.

Suddenly Insane.

Yesterday morning at an early hour a well-dressed, fine looking gentleman was promenading Broadway in a very wild manner, chanting and hallowing, swinging his cane, calling for police, and crying out that some one was trying to murder him. It was evident that the man was besides himself, and Officer Morse soon took him in charge, though not without a struggle in which the assistance of several others was required before the man could be safely landed in jail. It appeared that the man's name is W. J. Carson, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, who arrived here Saturday and stopped at the Revere house, intending to go westward yesterday to meet his family who are at Kearney. After being taken to the jail he quieted down and was given medical attendance. The physician thinks that his sudden insanity is the result simply of mental and physical exhaustion, and that he will soon be himself again. Telegrams were sent to his family informing them of his condition, and the reason of his not meeting them as arranged.

PERSONAL.

Samuel S. Jack, of Pittsburg, was in the city yesterday.

Judge T. R. Stockton, of Sidney, was at the Ogden yesterday.

G. A. Holmes is still confined to his room by rheumatism, of which he is having a very severe attack.

C. M. Whitney starts to-day for the west, expecting to go as far as Cheyenne in the interest of Peregrine & Moore.

B. F. Montgomery is again in the city and finds old friends on all sides to give him hearty welcome to his old home.

Owing to illness in Judge Aylesworth's family Justice Frainy attended to the police court cases yesterday afternoon.

L. B. Wadleigh, of Clinton, and one of the most prominent lumbermen in the state, was in the city yesterday, a guest of the Ogden house.

MARYVILLE MATTERS.

Events of the Week from the Metropolis of Nodaway County, Missouri.

Correspondence of THE BEE.

MARYVILLE, NODAWAY CO., MO., May 13.—Your BEE comes buzzing into our progressive Missouri hive full freighted with the honey of the latest news, and its fearless, independent tone is doing more for the advancement of this section of the state than any other daily.

This city has about six thousand inhabitants, is the county seat of Nodaway, one of the foremost counties in the state, is situated sixteen miles south of the Iowa line, on the Wabash, K. C. & St. Joe, and C. B. & Q. railroads, and is at present in the midst of a fine business boom.

The mechanics are at work on a fifty thousand dollar court house, a twenty-eight thousand dollar jail, and a thirty-two thousand dollar school, with numerous building blocks in course of erection and completion. The influx of substantial business men is extremely flattering, and opportunities for safe investment of capital rapidly increasing, and we are not exempt from the curious freaks of cranks.

A short time since a well-clad, substantial looking individual came among us, hailing from Omaha, apparently desirous of purchasing a large tract of wild land, and opening up a stock farm on an extensive scale. A favorable tract was found, and purchased at a good round price, the title deeds executed and held in escrow until the gentleman's money should arrive, twelve teams of horses, harness and wagons were purchased from as many of our most substantial farmers, large lots of lumber were contracted for of our yards for the purpose of erecting buildings and enclosures on the land, and twelve mammoth loads of lumber placed on the twelve wagons, and the twelve teams placed in the livery barn of S. McMurphy & Son, and the twelve Missouri farmers snugly laid to rest at one of our best hotels, peacefully awaiting the coming dawn, which was to bring the express package containing the large sums of money whereby the business-like stranger was to pay them for their teams. Hardware men stuck their tongue in their cheek and "smiled the smile" of good luck at their large sales; furniture men figured up their large large profits on a single deal, and agricultural implement men went wild over the their unusual cash receipts and busied themselves far into the night figuring how many notes they could turn over to the factory in lieu of the prospective receipts. The morning dawned as usual with ordinary mornings in Missouri, and lo! the substantial stranger had skipped out, leaving the honest Missouri farmers to settle their hotel and livery bills, unload the lumber from their wagons, discuss their grievances with real estate agents, hardware men, lumber men and credulous cosmopolitans generally.

Omaha has furnished a plentitude of brains, but the latest she has given us is in the person of Charles R. Gay, a sometime owner of a livery barn at Omaha. Since coming here he has been engaged in the barber trade and within the last three months he and one Pritchett have been running a barber shop on Main street. About the 20th of March last one Henry Johnson came among us and purchased the Dan, Best property, moved his family here and located, became acquainted with Gay & Pritchett, and it turned out that Johnson had known Pritchett's family in Indiana. As a consequence a warm friendship and extreme good fellowship sprang up between old man Johnson and Pritchett, and Johnson informed Gay, and Gay proceeded to make a purchase of a lot of livery stock at $2,500, letting Pritchett and old man Johnson into the deal at $4,650; the old man believing that $3,650 was the true cost of the purchase, paid to Pritchett & Gay $550 in cash, and executed his note, secured by a lien on the stock purchased for $2,000, and on this basis Gay, Pritchett & Johnson commenced the livery business in this city, April 1, 1882. In a short time Gay & Pritchett commenced a system of bickering and fault finding, resulting in the old man proposing to sell out all his interest for $358 cash and the balance on time. This was agreed to and on the evening of the 23rd of April, Gay & Pritchett got the old man into the office of the stable and drew up a bill of sale for his interest; had the old man sign it, stuck it in their pocket, went and got a policeman, had the old man taken off the premises and notified to keep off, and refused to give any further satisfaction. To-day Gay & Pritchett were bound over in the sum of $500 each to await the action of the grand jury, for their curious conduct.

Women Never Think. If the crabbed old bachelor who uttered this sentiment could but witness the intense thought, deep study and thorough investigation of women in determining the best medicines to keep their families well, and would note their sagacity and wisdom in selecting Hop Bitters as the best, and demonstrating it by keeping their families in perpetual health, at a mere nominal expense, he would be forced to acknowledge that such sentiments are baseless and false.—[Picayune.]
