—Ashland bridge is now open for travel. —The Sacred Concert by the Musical Union Orchestra, at Met's summer garden yesterday was a grand success.

THE ROBBER'S RETREAT.

Jeese James' Brother Making Omaha his Headquarters.

He is Recognized by One of Pinkerton's Men.

And by the Belle of the St. Elmo Theatre.

But Desiring to Become a Peaceable Citizen, will be Let Alone.

An announcement a few days since in THE BEE that a man claiming to be a brother of the notorious outlaw, Jesse James, was seen in the city, has been confirmed by positive information that Omaha has been for some time past and still is the headquarters of Frank James, the brother of the murdered man.

Some two weeks after the assassination of the man who had so long been the terror of express and railway companies, an officer of the Omaha police force, who is recognized as one of the shrewdest and bravest of the number, had his suspicions directed to the mysterious conduct of the occupants of a private dwelling house on North street.

in which the James boys and Youngers participated. She moved to Omaha after her bereavement and has ever since lived here in good style, supported by the members of the fraternity to which her husband belonged. About the time alluded to above, strange parties were seen to come and go from the house, generally at night time and their movements were so frequent as to attract the attention of a neighbor who gave the officer a hint upon which he proceeded to act.

has since had a glimpse of the suspected party, and is positive that it is THE OUTLAW.

He and all connected with the house at which he has been seen live well, dress well and are apparently in affluence, though it is not known that they do anything to earn anything but a living, and it is probable that the hero of many a noted outrage of the law may live and die in our midst inoffensive and unknown.

THE STREET RAILWAY.

The Hanscom Park Travel-Contemplated Improvements.

The extent to which the street car line from the city to Hanscom Park is patronized, indicates that that branch of the system will pay a big profit from the start. The most noticeable thing about it Sunday was the need of an additional number of cars at once to accommodate the travel.

Men, women and boys walked down to the Tenth street and U. P. depot terminus to catch the Park cars, which on their arrival at Farm and Fifteenth were invariably packed to overflowing. There were enough passengers at the opera house corner at one time to fill three cars, a BEE reporter counting eighty-five persons in one bunch. A car every five minutes on Sunday would not be too many, and it is understood that Capt. Marsh will put on ample accommodations at the earliest day. Thousands will now visit the park to where one did a year ago. In connection with this subject it may be mentioned that Capt. Marsh contemplates still further improvements in addition to those mentioned a day or two ago. He proposes to extend the tracks on Saunders and Eighteenth streets, and have the cars run every ten minutes instead of seventeen minutes as now, and at an early day he intends to run the last car at midnight, instead of at 10:30 as now. This last mentioned improvement ought to be started at once. It will be a stroke of enterprise that will be appreciated.

CRIMINAL DOGS.

An Alleged Shears Stealer Arrested—The Police Court Docket.

A well dressed respectable looking Irishman named Sheridan was arrested yesterday by Deputy Marshal McClure on the strength of a telegram from Weeping Water. Sheridan was a clerk for Reed Bros & Co., of that place, and left them on Saturday, coming to Omaha. He is charged with stealing a pair of tailor's shears worth $12, which he sold in this city for $5. He was identified from the description sent. He denies stealing the shears but says that he charged himself with them on the books, and while he says he sold them here, he will not say to whom. The purchaser is known to the officers.

All the officers that could be spared from the police force Sunday made a grand round up of tramps. There were ten officers, including Sheriff Miller, and the territory covered was the southwest part of the city. The Union Pacific track was followed as far out as "the summit," and miles of box cars examined. The result of a two hours and a half walk, a distance of ten miles, was very unsatisfactory, but three being secured. Yesterday two of the three were sent to the county jail at hard labor for ten days, and the other was discharged.

Two plain drunks were arrested Sunday, one whom paid his fine and the other was discharged. William Wright, the colored man who fell into the sewer was discharged, it being considered that he was badly enough punished by his fall in the fifth.

The officers are on the track of some crooks who took advantage of circus day to visit the city.

ARMY ORDERS.

The latest orders issued from the Department of the Platte, Omaha, Nebraska, are as follows: Leave of absence for seven days is granted to Captain William A. Elderkin, commissary of subsistence, U. S. Army. Private H. A. Haxley, troop I, Fifth cavalry, will proceed without delay by rail and stage, to Fort Washakie, W. T., and report to the commanding officer of that post, for extra duty in the quartermaster's department as telegraph operator and repairman at Sweetwater bridge. Major Verling K. Hart Fifth cavalry will take command of and proceed with the troops en route from Fort Laramie, W. T., to Fort Washakie, W. T., and assume command at that post.

JAMES GARFIELD HUTCHINSON.

To the Editor of The Bee: The police reporter in yesterday's Republican has taken the liberty to mention my cognomen, prefixing thereto the adjective "chicken." Now I want to say that in the first place my name is James Garfield Hutchinson and not "Chicken Jim," as The Republican is traducingly avers. In the second place I want it understood by the white trash of The Republican, and the public generally, that it has been many a year since I felt the flutter of a chicken in my hat. I'm not a candidate for office and don't want any newspaper notoriety, especially through the police columns of such an impudent journal as The Republican. By allowing no space for this short vindication of my injured reputation, you will confer a favor on your honest but unfortunate friend, JAMES GARFIELD HUTCHINSON.

AT HOME.

The opening services at the New Trinity chapel, the basement of which was Sunday occupied for the first time, were peculiarly interesting. The floral decorations were elaborate and beautiful and the music, in which the new organ was heard to great advantage, was fine. Bishop Clarkson made a strong appeal to the congregation to aid him in raising a fund of $7,000, the amount necessary to complete the audience room so that it can be occupied and to raise the tower a story higher, leaving the spire to be added at a future time. There were but two alternatives, one being to cease work for the present and occupy the basement chapel for a time, and the other to incur a debt for the completion of the cathedral. One of these plans is undesirable, and the other would indicate a lack of zeal on the part of a body amply able from among its members to raise the required sum. It is probable that steps will immediately be taken to raise the $7,000 required, by subscription or otherwise.

THE REIGNING PRIMA DONNA.

of the theater did on the night in question. It appears that she had visited in St. Joe and knew the James boys by sight. On entering the box she called to the man, whom we may as well call by his right name at once, for it was Frank James, "It was too bad that Jesse James was killed in such a cowardly manner." Seeing that he was recognized, Frank James rose hastily and started to leave the box. As he did, so his coat caught the chair and was pulled back, revealing a belt from which hung a large revolver. Alarmed by this encounter he did not return home that night and hence spoiled.

A GOOD GERRAND.

The officers gerrand that he had skipped the town and gave up the attempt to capture. The man who had worked up the case met one of Pinkerton's men, who goes by the name of Shadoch, on the corner of Fifteenth and Douglas five nights after and learned that he, too, had shadowed the man and was fully posted as to his whereabouts. He said he had known Frank James was in Omaha for a long time, and could have laid his hand on him at any time. He told the officer that in his opinion it was advisable to let Frank alone, as he was not here for any raid, and the arrest would only bring trouble to whoever took him. He thinks he has given up his predatory pursuits and intends to settle in Omaha.

NO HUMBUGGING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

You can't humbug the American people, when they lay hold of a remedy that suits their needs. Just exactly the case with SPRING BEEBEE, which has become a household word all over the United States. Five 50-cent, trial bottles 10 cents.

THE CIRCUS.

Opening of the Summer Show—Sells Bros. Give Good Exhibitions, and Entertain Large Crowds.

The first circus of the season in Omaha pitched its tents on the hill west of the city on Sunday, and held forth to the multitude yesterday afternoon and evening. As might be expected, it drew large crowds, the audience in the afternoon numbering about three thousand and last night over that figure. The Sells Bros. have a shiny good show and they give the money's worth.

The performance began with the grand entry of twenty mounted people, followed by the first appearance of a clown, and then a leaping act by the entire company. Prof. D. Gillan and his trained Colorado steers next appear in their unique performance, showing what wonders patience and skill can do in the way of training the brute creation. Lotie and Willie Amar follow in a double equestrian act, and then the Devine family and the Carron brothers entertain the audience in a "brother act." Charles Fish and Willie Sells do the bounding jockey business in a creditable manner, followed by tumbling by the entire company, and next comes one of the great features of the show, Madams Gordonia, the equestrienne.

Next is trapeze work by Lotie Amar and horizontal bar exercises by the Rice brothers. Prof. Gillan follows with his trained stallions, seven in number, one of them being an 1,800-pound Norman. Six of these animals go through a drill and wind up by lying, when the seventh enters and discharges a revolver, at which all arise and begin skipping, rope, waltzing, etc., and then go off, some on two legs.

The Devine family, in an aerial act, follow, the Rice brothers performing at the same time on the carpet. Jerry Bell, in a hurdle act, comes next, and then the champion bareback rider, Charlie Fish. "The slide for life," by Little Al Right, follows. He ascends to the top of the center pole on a wire and then turns and slides on his feet to the bottom, an act that merits and receives applause.

Madame Curdonia and Willie Sells, in the four-hour act, follow, and the performance concluded with a "funny" act by the Carron brothers.

The menagerie contain many curious animals, among them a giraffe, sea lion, a pair of hippopotami, a lion with a white buff, a royal tiger, etc., and is well worth seeing.

A great portion of the entertainment is the music, furnished by Prof. Heck's Imperial band of twenty-one pieces.

The parade yesterday morning attracted the usual crowd of sight seers, and was a lengthy affair.

The whole concern, which is a rather gigantic one, is under the management of Mr. Eph. Salt. The veteran showman, Prof. Gillan is the able equestrian manager.

The circus entertains and edifies the dwellers in and about Council Bluffs to-day.

I. O. G. T. NO. 141.

At the regular meeting of the Omaha Lodge I. O. G. T. No. 141, Friday night, officers for the ensuing quarter were elected as follows:

- W. C. T.—J. O. Beten. W. V. T.—Nell Daniels. W. R. S.—Joe Kennard. W. A. S.—Chas. A. Potter. W. F. S.—H. B. Joy. W. G. S.—W. H. G. W. C. O. P. Edwards. W. M.—Frank Buck. D. M.—Anna Celestine. W. I. G.—Jennie Aiken. W. O. G.—Adelaide Jones. R. H. S.—Lillie Webb. L. A. S.—E. A. Thomas. P. W. C.—S. C. Green. G. D.—C. W. Green.

The lodge has, during the last quarter, initiated fifty-one candidates and reported one hundred and seventeen in good standing to the Grand Lodge. They have now one of the most prosperous organizations in the state. All visiting Good Templars are cordially invited to attend lodge. Also any of the citizens of Omaha who are interested in us and the temperance work, who wish to know more of our order and its workings, can do so by calling on any of our officers, who will be glad to inform them. They expect to give a strawberry festival the latter of this month to help pay off the debt of the Grand Lodge, and most respectfully ask the temperance people of the city to assist them. The time and place will be announced in the papers in due time.

A couple of unimportant burglaries were committed Sunday night. The first of these was at Mrs. Sager's, No. 219 North 14th street, where the thieves succeeded in getting into the basement but no further and went away empty handed. The second was at Scott's bakery, on Douglas street, where the intruders knocked down a lot of tin cans and frightened themselves away. A lot of wood was all that was missed next morning.

Among the advertised attractions of Sells Brothers' great show are "the four most beautiful women on earth," including the famous $20,000 prize lady, who took the gold as the loveliest woman in America. The latter, Miss George Mosser, and Mr. E. L. Morant, German sketch artist, were induced by Manager Nugent, of the Academy of Music, to leave the Sells Brothers at this point for an engagement at his place, where they will appear May 22d. Miss George received Columbus in the quartette of lovely females who have traveled with Sells Brothers, and is of the purest type of American beauty. She is petite in form, with dark brown hair and soft, deep eyes, such as the Hours only are credited with possessing. She will appear at the
