RUMORED FAILURE

The Oil House of R. C. Steell and Johnston Embarrassed in Business.

A chattel mortgage in favor of the First National bank, from B. C. Steell and Johnston, the well-known wholesale oil house, No. 1313 Douglass street, was filed in the county clerk's office Tuesday and gave the cathedral has been purchased, and rise to the rumor that the firm had failed. The mortgage was to secure the payment of three notes in $780 per annum, and the proceeds are tavor of this bank for $2,000, $3,000 added to the Episcopal fund of the $8,000 respectively.

Friends of the house claim that the embarrsasment will be only 'tempor-ary, while a gentleman who has been in a position to know, says that he has foreseen the failure for three months past. At 6 o'clock Tues.

The house is an old one and had grown to considerable importance, standing high in the opinion of all acquainted with the members of the firm, for whose business trouble much sympathy is expressed.
