A telephone message was sent in to police headquarters early Thursday that a lot of tramps had taken possession of a box car under the U. P. bridge and were carousing over a keg of beer which they had purchased somewhere.

THE COUNCIL'S CLOSE.

Transactions by the Episcopals on Thursday's Meeting.

The diocesan council of the Episcopal church closed Thursday after a two days' session in the chapel of the new Trinity church.

It being Ascension Day holy communion was celebrated by Bishop Clarkson, assisted by Rev. H. K. Burgess and Rev. Joshua V. Hines.

During the days' sessions the parishes of St. Johns, Harvard; St. Peter, Plum Creek; St. James, Fairmount; Trinity, Republican City, Trinity, Friendville, were admitted.

Other parishes were refused admission because of informality in their papers of application.

The reports of the standing committees of the Cathedral chapter and of the Episcopal Endowment fund, were presented.

The report of the committee on the revision of the constitution and canon law was ultimately referred back to the committee with important amendments, to be reconsidered, printed and circulated among the parishes at least three months before the meeting of the next council, at which meeting further action will be had.

A very interesting report of the committee on Christian education was read by the Rev. C. C. Harris, of Lincoln, accompanied by the following resolution:

Resolved, That this council reaffirms its confidence in the administration of the educational institutions of the diocese, and hereby heartily commends Nebraska college and Brownell hall to the generous support and patronage of the public.
