

SOCIAL CYNICISMS.

With a Few General Growls About a Timely Topic.

News and Notes on Society Subjects in Omaha.

Combined With a Few Glittering Generalities About Matters and Things in General.

Our local columns have chronicled from day to day the scattering items of social events which have occurred in Omaha during the past week.

Religion and society are compelled now-a-days to go hand and hand. Whether religion is more dependent upon society or society on religion is a mooted question.

was reported in full in Wednesday's papers, was artistically and financially a success.

A small card party was given on Friday evening by Miss Carrie Millard. The Palette club, which meet every Saturday with one of the members near Florence, are seriously considering a spring exhibition in Omaha at an early day.

NEBRASKA NOTES.

Religious. It is said that Bibles are scarce in Shelburne. The Episcopalians intend to build a church on in Tecumseh.

Work has commenced on the new Catholic church at Calvert. The new M. E. church at Minden will be dedicated on the 28th.

Speaking of church methods in a social connection, commend to us the novel enterprise and thrift of the ladies of Trinity in furnishing the supper for the St. Louis excursion on Thursday evening.
