The ladies will all regret to learn that James Vick, the famous florist, died last week at his home in Rochester, N. Y. He was sixty-three years of age, and had been in this country since 1833, first working for Horace Greeley setting type. He was a play-mate of Charles Dickens, and was a man of fine attainments and good business talents. He was very liberal, sending $25,000 worth of his seeds at one time to the Kansas sufferers and $10,000 to the Michigan. If reports be true he was a living, ex-

Re-appearance of this Favorite Actor at Boyd's Opera House.

Frank Mayo, an old time favorite in Omaha, appeared at Boyd's opera house last night in the "delightful backwoods Idyl," Davy Crockett. The house was crowded and the actor. supported by an excellent company, 14 never appeared to better advantage. His reception amounted almost to an oration and the auditorium rung with applause at intervals so frequent as to render it impossible to particularize any point in the play as more favor-ably received than another.
