

MAX MEYER & CO.

We Have Now in Transit another Shipment of FINE CICARS Direct from HAVANA, which enables them to DUPLICATE NEW YORK PRICES, wholesale and retail. They also beg to call the attention of their Customers to notice the Factory number (765, 2d District, N. Y.) of their Celebrated Cuban Made ESCEPCIAN REINA VICTURIA, as many imitations are on the market.

Max Meyer & Co.'s ROSES, UNEXCELLED and HAND-MADE Cigars, are well-known and need no puffing. Large Stock of Seed Cigars $18 to $20 per 1,000; Connecticut Cigars, $25 per 1,000; Seed and Havana Cigars, from $30 to $75 per 1,000. MAX MEYER & CO.'S COMBINATION is the best 5 CENT CIGAR on the Market. For sale everywhere, BASE BALLS, BATS, INDIAN CLUBS, HAMMOCKS, CROQUETS, TENTS, FISHING TACKLE, SEINES AND NETS. A Very Large Stock at Eastern Prices. Guns, Ammunition, Field and Spy Glasses of our own importation.

And a full Line of Goods for Fourth of July at BOTTOM PRICES.

vorks, flags, pistols

The Daily Bee.

OMAHA.

Monday Morning, May 29.

Weather Report. (The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the sta-

2).81 NW Fre h 29.83 S Fresh SW Brisk 30.07 NE Fresh 62 Fair 65 Fair 55 H'vy R'in 65 Fair 64 Clear 61 Clear 63 Clear 64 Clear 64 Clear 64 Fair 65 Fair 1255 73 Fair 75 Clear

River 9 feet 3 Inches above high water mark at naha and S feet 10 inches at Yankton

LUCAL BREVITIES.

-The S. P. C. A. will meet in the couneil chamber to-night. -Morton's minstrels, the Big Four, are billed for to-night at Boyd's. -Work will begin of the new edifice for the Christian church in a few days. -There was no game of base ball on Saturday ewing to the wet weather. -W. A. Van Norman has been ap- ing him a "stiff." ower Tenth street.

-Fifteen silver bricks, worth about $1,000 each, were shipped east by the Omaha smelting works last evening.

-A diminutive pony came by expres yesterday. It was boxed up, and addressed to G. S. Nason, care Dr. A. W. Nason.

-One hundred tons of lead ore, ten car loads, per day, were shipped by the Omaha Smelting and Retining Co. last

-Another carge of Mormon dupes will arrive in this city en Wednesday, en routo to Zion. They are about 400 in number

-News was received in this city yesterday, by telegraph, of the death of the wife of Hon, Lorenzo Crouse, of Fort Calhoun, No particulars were received,

-There was a ring around the moon Saturday night with two stars in it. According to the old sign this would indicate rain inside of forty-eight hours.

-Quite a party of Omaha people will go to Lincoln to morrew on the special train which leaves the U. P. depot at So'clock. The Omaha Glee club will go in a body.

-The "mysterious grave" on Capitol hill was investigated by Coroner Jacobs and Deputy Marchal McCiure on Saturday afternoon and it proved to be an old privy vault.

-A Ber reporter, last evening, ran across a quartette of Nebraskans who are in the city on their way to attend the races at Council Bluffs, which begin on Tuesday. The quartette was composed of Vic Bierbower, whose reseate crown attracts the admiration of the fair sex and inspires the criminals of Cheyenne county with terror; Hon. John D. Seaman, R. R. Greer, and T. C. Roberts, of Kearney. The latter brought in with him from the west a number of fine horses, including "Orphan Boy" and "Kitty H.," while Mr. Greer brought "Fred S," all to take part in the races. Mr. Roberts yesterday sold "Orphan Boy" to J. H. Johnson, of Council Bluffs, for $7,500. This was considered the best horse in Western Nebrasks, and con-crot three heats in better than twenty-five any day. They are premared to back the horses to any amount.

-Prairie schooners still sail through the anud of Omaha by the squadron on their way west. A big fact crossed the river

-Word has been received at the head quarters of the Department of the Platte in this city, that Gen. Phil Sheridan expects to make a trip to the Yellowstone National park is July next. The route to be taken will be via Green river, thence by stage to Fort Washakie and thence ss into Montana. It is probable that a large party will accompany the general on his trip, which will occupy some weeks.

- Ed. Haney is lowering his two houses on the southwest corner of Faruam and 18th streets to the new grade. He proposes next to tear down the Judge Porter se on the opposite side of Farnam

North Eighteenth street last Saturday evening. They improved the time till the clock struck 12 in dancing and music, when they partook of a bountiful lunch, and then departed, all having had a delightful evening.

- Sixty additional head of horses have been purchased for the Omaha street railsize being erected near the northeast corner of Hanscom Park. Two new open cars are expected soon and will be placed on the red line. Regular trips are now Resolutions Adopted for Presimade every twenty minutes on the Park line, and on Sundays ten minute trips will be the order from the corner of Faraam and 15th streets.

-The young friends, and quite a number of the older ones, of Mr. George and Dolly Baily, gave them a surprise party Friday evening at the residence of their parents on North Ninteenth street. The guests numbered some forty or fifty, an l made a merry evening of it in dancing, singing and music. About 12 o'clock all sat down to ample refreshments, and in the small hours all deported for home, it being the universal opinion that they had passed a very plessant time.

A TELEPHONE TALK.

Omaha and Plattsmouth Connected by the Wires.

A call from the central office yesterday morning brought the city editor of TRE BEE to the telephone in a hurry and when he was informed that Plattsmouth wanted to talk with him he at first thought the boys were giv-

A connection had been made by means of the Western Union wire, and a lively conversation was soon begun with Mr. Catright, city editer of the Daily Journal of that lively little city. Although the distance was about sixteen miles, the words sent over the wires were as distinct as if the speaker had only been a block distant, and the conversation was much easier than can be held with Council Bluffs under the most favorable circumstances. After exchanging the usual courtesies of the day, and learning that the connection made was merely experimental, THE BEE reporter naturally inquired for news, and was informed that the citizens of Placts-mouth would celebrate Decoration day at home, and in grand style. Also that there had been a railroad accident down on the B. & M. during the forenoon. An engine was draw-ing a train of flat cars, and in cross-ing a switch the pin flew out and resulted in the rails moving aside and ditching seven cars. No damage was done to life or limb, and the cars were all put on by noon.

Omaha and Piattsmouth will joined by telephone before the year is out, and it will be a great conven-

PERSONAL.

Dr. Graff returned from Wyoming la

Hon, J. M. Thurston left for Milwau-

C. G. Perriu and wife, of Kansas City, are the guests of Mr. W. F. Bechel for a

A. R. Gage, who takes charge of the this city, and occupied your streets new B. & M. eating house at Red Cloud, and other places for the purpose, as new B. & M. eating house at Red Cloud, is in the city.

Jim Laird, of Hastings, was in the city yesterday, and left on the afternoon train for Des Moines, to attend the United States court there

Mr. Alvin Graff, of New York, general traveling agent for the State I ne of steam ships is in the city looking up the interests of that line.

Mrs. John H. Rheem, of Ottumwa, Ia. s in the city visiting the families of her relatives, Mr. I., M. Rheem, general manager of the Western Union telegraph office, and Mr. S. J. Rheem.

Geo. W. Frost, government director the Union Pacific railway, I aves to-day for New York, to attend a directors' meeting. He will be accompanied by daughter, Mrs. Jno. I. Marshall, Medina, N. V.

C. B. Havens, Esq., superintendent the bridge division, Union Pacific rai road, is just out after a very severe illness, which has confined him to his house for forty-five days. The boys are all glad to see him on deck again.

The valued expressman, Mr. J. D. Kline, of Sheboygan, had a violent attack of rheumatism, disabling him almost from moving. I purchased, said he, a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, house on the opposite side of Farnam street.

The young friends of the Misses Minnie and Laura Collett, daughters of A.

M. Collett, gave them a very pleasant surprise at their father's residence on been troubled since.

INDIGNATION MEETING.

of Music Yesterday.

way line and a new barn 28 by 96 feet in A fevere Arraignment of Representative Bartlett.

dent Arthur's Consideration.

Bartlett's Boom Badly Sat Down on and Busted

In pursuance with the call published in THE BEE, a meeting of the workingmen of Omaha was held at the noon for the purpose of expressing their sentiments in regard to the report on the late labor troubles made to the legislature by the committee of which E. M. Bartiett was chairman.

trades unions and labor organizations were present in large numbers.

about 2 o'clock, and James Dooley, president of the Iron Moulders union was elected president, and Edward nembers of the legislature and we shall be glad to hear from any of you on the subject. Mr. Bartlett had an invitation to attend here this aftersoon, but he is such a good Christian that he could not violate the Sabbath. When he was canvassing for votes to send him to Lincoln, however, he went around in the beer gardens on Sunday, and did not think so much of the Sabbath thee.

He don't dare to show his face here this afternoon. It is for you to say whether he is going there again or not. Now, I would ask for your views, and your expressions. (Ap-

MR. EDWARD BOSEWATER eing enthusiastically called for, said: MR. CHAIRMAN AND FELLOW CITI-ENS:-I regret that circumstances ver which we have no control have ompelled the workingmen of Omaha o transgress that part of their religious creed that commands them to ob serve the seventh day, or rather the first day of the week, as a day of rest; but as a matter of fact, as I under-stand it, the public halls in this city are all engaged, at least this is, for every night during the week, including Sunday night, and inasmuch as many of you are unable, after a hard day's work, to attend a night meeting, so it was thought best to call this meeting this afternoon. I should have preferred that some one among you should have preceded me in stating the general causes that have brought you together. You are all doubtless aware that there have been troubles in Omaha, called by certain parties riots; that a few weeks ago the militia of this state, under the command of the governor of this state, and federal troops were called into they claimed, to put down a very dan-gerous riot. In due course of time they folded their tents and marched away. And when the legislature met in extra session, on the 12th of this month, bills were presented for nearly $13,000 to meet the expenses of putting down this terrible riot in Omaha.

A voice, "To put down George Armstrong.] Yes, to put down one man in Omaha. GOVERNOR NANCE in his message, in order to justify his course, officially stated, that the troops found on their arrival here a very desperate riot. The mob was defiant and a bloody collision was imminent, and he-congratulated the state forces and the people of the state that there was not any more bloodshed than there was. Now then, the legislature bofore whom the claims were pending, appointed a committee to consider the claims, and the Hon. E. M. Bartlett, from this county, was made chairman. After the committee was appointed Mr. Moore, from York county, intro-duced resolutions, which were adopted by the house, stating in substance that the alleged riots in Omaha were regarded in very many quarters as exaggerated, and the pretext for calling out the troops here was not sus-tained, and, therefore, he called upon the committee to investigate the causes that led to the riot, and required them to report whether or not the officers had overstepped their authority, Mr. Bartlett, as chairman, his action without first considering what this report was. I understand Mr. Bartlett, who has not seen fit to The Expressions at the Academy respond to your invitation, says that this report is in every respect satisfactory. I presume it is very satisfactory to him and especially to > who swaggered around Omaha and drew $136 apiece for their time. Mr. Bartlett claims that there is nothing in this report that reflects on you or any workingmen in Omaha, but we shall presently see.

Mr. Rosewater then read the report, which has already appeared in the columns of THE BEE

Here then is the statement officially made, which has been put into the archives of this state as the truthful history of the labor troubles of Omaha. I was in the house when Mr. Barlett made the report, but of course none but members come have a word to say on the matter, and I remember I noticed Mr. Mullen, a member from Andemy of Music yesterday after- this county, rise indignantly as if he was about to remonstrate. But he repressed his feelings and concluded to say nothing Objections were made that this report was ONE SIDED officers concerned in this matter, but the report of the committee was finally adopted. Mr. Bartlett had bout 2 o'clock, and James Dooley, bout 2 o'clock, and James Dooley, bresident of the Iron Moulders union was elected president, and Edward would have authorized him to incur the necessary expense to send for any. tion that would have led to cutting afforded to pay fare and time for eight of ten persons rather than to pay $136 for each brigadier who had nothing to inspect except the whisky jugs in the different saloons. (Laughter and applause.) Everyone will concede that

THE TROOPS who simply obeyed the order of their commander ought to be paid, but there was no excuse for paying a governor's staff and a regimental staff Now ther, when I heard of these one-sided and partial reports which were to be put into the archives of the state, and which would go down to history, I thought it best to write out a statement, giving such a version as would be given by nine-tenths, yes by ninety-nine out of every hundred persens who were not instigators for call ing out the military.

I made a statement over my signature and handed it to the same member who introduced the original resolution. He was the proper person, beinvestigate the matter. As a constitu-ent of Mr. Bartlett I had just as much right to do this as the mayor of Omaha or the humblest citizen, and Mr. Bartlett was the last man who should have objected.

WHAT DID HE DO? No sooner had the secretary started to read the communication than he jumped up and shouted, he did not want any stump speech from Edward Rosewater, of course a great many gentlemen thought that was entirely inconsistent, especially as the house was in a committee of the whole. After a wrangle the communication was ordered read. I do not know whether you want that communication read here, (cries of "read it")

Mr Rosawater then read the com munication, which has been previous-ly published in THE BEE, after which he proceeded. Fellow citizens of Omaha, I ask you if there is anything in this statement that can be successfully contradicted, or that exaggerates or misstates any of

THE POINTS AT ISSUE. (Loud cries of no, no) I was very particular in abstaining from all re-flections that were not necessarily reflections upon the general conduct of the campaign. I said nothing about the committee or impugued its mo-

When this question was placed be fore the legislature Mr. Moore requested that it should be embodied with Mayor Boyd's letter and the other documents. A motion was made to lay the whole thing on the table. That motion was voted down. A fil-libustering game was played that lasted a day and a haif.

The railroad strikers led by Church Howe and Eartlett made an onslought, not upon the questions at issue tween the statesmen and official reports, nor against any allegation, but upon myself. Mr. Bartlett, in his card, says we can find the truth in "The Omaha Republican; here it

The speaker then read a report of speech made by Hon. E. M. Bartlett, published in the Republican, in which he denounced question the veracity of it. He says the jailor. I claim that the he eulogized, that this statement was made in begovernor has no authority Who is remailed of none but cut-throats, thugs, whatever to place in command of misrepresenta and thieves.

THE WORKINGMEN made a report, which I will read, as in strong terms, and slandered and you cannot intelligently understand villined the editor of THE BER.

Send for Price List.

petition be laid upon the table. He asserted right there that not a voice

HIS CONSTITUENTS

should be heard. Mr Bartlett stated in his speech that the laboring men of Omaha insisted that no man should work at such wages as he is willing to labor for and that I had encouraged that idea. I have encouraged no such thing, I have always asserted that workingmen have the right to induce others from working at low wages by to say nothing Objections were made by Moore, Holman and several others peaceable means, but that they have free from responsibility. The constitution of the state guarantees him peaceable means, but that they have at any price they choose. That is a fact, and no man ever heard me say Representatives of the various and only represented the views of the anything else. It is a fact that I can officers concerned in this matter, but substantiate that this much abused cept. I want to know by what authordown expenses. The state could have ity the B. & M. can interfere with a contractor, and order him not to pay the wages he is willing to pay. What was the object of these officials? I talked with who is their attorney. He said we did not propose to surrender. We wanted to vindicate the honor of this

CHARLIE GREEN,

Do we want the honor of this state vindicated at the point of the bayonet when employers can settle their difference peacably? Mr. Stephenson was willing to allow his men to go to work and willing to pay the wages they asked, when another party stepped out and says no you must not pay these wages, we will precipatate a conflict between the people and the military in Omaha rather than allow you to do so. St posethe contractor who 15 grading barnam street should decide to pay his men $2.00, and he was sure to lose money in his contract, what right would anybody have to interfere? There is not a shadow of doubt but there is

AN INSIDE RING that got this contract with Stephenson, for whom he is simply acting, and this ring prefers to put the state to expense rather than lose some of

I do not propose to stoop to criticise all that took place at the state legislature, because, according to The Republican, it was an entertainment which these gentlemen appeared to enjoy. I do not care how much they enjoyed it. There will be another en tertainment sooner or later when we will all be there, and they will do the dancing. [Loud laughter and applause. I

What was the excuse for sending half a dozen brigadiers to Omaha There were about 146 private soldiers and 120 officers in one regiment, and this was a skeleton regiment. company, the Blue Springs artillery, only drew $56, and another only

THE INSPRCTOR GENERAL of the state of Nebraska drew $136the sampler general, I mean-and then they had to run up a bill of $114 for medicines, and I know a great deal of that was for whisky. There was no excuse for paying all of these illegitimate expenses. They should have been knocked out. Instead of doing this, they entertained the house for two days with a fan dango, just simply making an on-slaught on one individual at the expense to the tax-payers of $500 a Right here we get to another point which ought to be drawn out sooner or later, unless we abolish the entire militia. the question is this, where is the line to be drawn between the military and civil authority? It seems to me that so long as the civil authority can be exercised by its officers the military authority cannot legally in-terfere. The military authority should only step in where the civil authority is forcibly resisted.

IN THE RECENT TROUBLES he governor sent troops here and then went to work and placed in command the mayor of Omaha. Can the governor of this state delegate the powers which are alone vested in these troops the mayor of Omaha. Well, then when about 500 work- Such things can only be done in Neingmen signed a petition, asking that braska, and Nebraska has been made this statement be put on record just the butt of ridicule in every part of the same as the letter of Mayor Boyd, this Union for this costly military Mr. Bartlett moved and voted that the dress parade.

explained and yet not have explained. These lawyers and politicians have a peculiar faculty of appearing to ex-WE IMPRACHED DAVE BUTLER for misdemeanors in effice, and ever since that time we have been going down the scale with our governors until we have one now as fit to represent this state as an Indian in front of a tobacco store. He has no conception of constitutional government and lacks every quality of a chief execu-I should have been very glad to have met Mr. Bartlett right here, face to face with his constituents. On the floor of the house he was entirely immunity from all liability for words spoken in debate. He may call men murderers, cutthroats, incendiaries, or anything he pleases. He him responsible, when the right time comes. [Loud and prolonged cheer-

MR. JOHN QUINN being called for, stepped on the stage and said: MR. CHAIRMAN AND FELLOW CITI zens: I don't know that I have got a great deal to say upon the subject. In fact, I think you all know just about as much as I do, because you have all been in Omaha during the late trouble. I have no doubt you understand it just as well as Mr. Bartlett. Most of you have been at the dump (laughter) and know what occurred there.

I do not think this meeting is proper. I think it is altogether imroper. It does such legal squirts and low lawyers too much honor to notice them.

I am not at all surprised that Mr. Bartlett declined your invitation, for as Mr. Rosewater says a representa-tive down in Lincoln has the privilege to lie. Well, I propose to take the same privilege to speak and tell Mr. Bartlett that he lies, and if I had been a representative and lied as he had lied I certainly would have declined the invitation. (Loud laughter.) It is nothing very singular to find one of his profession lying; that is one of the chief tenets of their profession. It would have been much more strange if any one had discovered him telling the truth. I don't know why he lied. We all know he did, and why he did he knows himself.

THE TRUTH,

We frequently read about

PROMISING YOUTHS e ming from the east who are sure to make a mark in the west, in Omaha. If they come, what do they bring with them, and what do they do? Do they go into the grocery business, or do they engage in manufactures? bring with them nothing but their cheek and they go into law. We have had a great many of these people come into this city. I have been here fifteen years, and I have read of their coming; the reporters always notice them.

Mr. Bartlett would not come on the Sabbath. It is the Lord's Day. It is the workingman's day, and Ged gave it to the workingman because the capitalists would not. [Loud cheers.] Returning to the promising young men the next thing they do, they go and put on attend church meetings and get all th old ladies to think he is a splendid young min. (Loud laughter.) He is reading law with an eminent lawyer, and then the first thing we find he is running for office. He is the very party to misrepresent the people at Lincoln although he proposes to represent them. The result is that he goes to Lincoln to represent the people and misrepresents them, and the people in electing him to be their servant very soon discover that he is their master, or assumes to be their

A PAUR OF GOGGLES.

Now Mr. Bartlett was a great work ingmen's champion some YEARS AGO, and I suppose if he had the opportu nity to reconsider his action he would still be a workingmen's champion. You all saw that he eulogized de-

The speaker continued. Well, this him to any other man? If he can ceased members, but he left Lincoln is about the substance of all the delegate the powers to the mayor, the and threw away a rare opportunity speeches made by Bartlett. Now, in mayor can in turn delegate that before the adjournment. He did not no place does he contradict a single power to the marshal and the marshal | deliver his own valedictory address. statement that was made in my com- to his deputy and his deputy can del- He forgot that he is just as dead pomunication. In no place does he egate his power to Mr. Granacher, lltically as the other men were whom

Who is responsible for Bartlett'misrepresentations? We are the pars We are responsible and not Mr. Barlett, as we sent him to Lincoln. If he had come here he might have These lawyers and politicians have a peculiar faculty of appearing to ex-plain when in reality they explain nothing

I will refer to another gentleman who endeavored to explain at Wash-

SENATOR VAN WYCK.

You all know we went to hear him. He occupied half an hour telling us about the greatness of our country, etc; but did he tell us what he thought about Governor Nance, or the conduct of the city authorities? Oh, no! When he was asked what he thought of the killing of Armstrong, he replied with great levity, unbecoming a senator: he supposed that he took hold of the wrong end of the gun, and senators always explain that way. The senator had explained that he could not vote for

THE CHINESE BILL on account of the Burlingame treaty. It was the first time he discovered that treates were like the laws of the Medes and the Persians, unalterable. But the senator said that nothing Walsh secretary. The president, in the necessary expense to send for any-the course of a few remarks, said:

Fellow Workingmen: The object of this meeting is to express our disconnected from the wast acting attorney for persons and papers or any informatical firm to incur the necessary expense to send for any-not allow you to pay the wages you are willing to pay. It is wrong and unlawful for any man, or set of men to said that floor was comporting with the dignity of a representative, and dignity of a representative, and who didn't he bring in a bill to who sent him. He is not here, and the ears of the working people, and I would have authorized him to incur the necessary expense to send for any-not allow you to pay the wages you dignity of a representative, and whether he did justice to the people who didn't he bring in a bill to who sent him. He is not here, and the ears of the ears of the working people, and I would have authorized him to incur the necessary expense to send for any-not allow you to pay the wages you dignity of a representative, and whether he did justice to the people who sent him. He is not here, and the ears of the working people, and I would have authorized him to incur the necessary expense to send for any-not allow you to pay the wages you dignity of a representative, and whether he did justice to the people who didn't he bring in a bill to who sent him. He is not here, and the ears of the ears of the working people, and I would have authorized him to incur the necessary expense to send for any-not allow you to pay the wages you dignity of a representative, and whether what he stated on the dignity of a representative, and whether what he stated on the dignity of a representative, and whether what he stated on the dignity of a representative, and whether what he stated on the stated on the dignity of a representative, and whether what he stated on the dignity of a representative, and the dignity of a representative, and the dignity of a representative, and the dignity of a representati the ears of the working people, and I know this is what Bartiett has been doing. I have no hesitation in saying that the report that Mr. Rosewater put in was true, every word of it, and was the only true report, and was the only report that should have gone into the archives of the state. It will be your care to see, as well as mine, that when these men come up again that we get along without men of their class, and see whether other people CANNOT REPRESENT us as well as such lawyers do, because they have not represented us yet.

They have always represented them-Statesmanship seems to be on the decline, as well as patriotism, which appears now to be nothing but a desire to share public plunder. It is part of our duty so purify this state of things. [Cheers.] Mr. John Pope Hodnett, president of the National Labor league, addressed the meeting at this point. The following resolution was unaninously adopted: Whereas, E. M. Bartlett is said to be an applicant for the position of United States assistant district attorney; and, Whereas, Said position should be filled by an honest, honorable and incorruptable man; therefore, Resolved, That we hereby enter our emphatic protest against the ap-pointment of said E. M. Bartlett to any position within the gift of the president.

Resolved, That our senators and representatives in congress are hereby requested to withdraw their indorsement of said E. M. Bartlett. Resolved. That our senators and representatives in congress be fur-also that our city papers be requested to publish the same.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the speakers who had addressed the meeting, and the meeting adjourned, nished with copies of these resolutions,

Messrs. Wangler Bros., Druggists, Waterloo, Iowa, write: We have been in the Drug business for fifteen years in different parts of America, and never before have we sold any medicine that gave such general satisfac-tion as St. Jacobs Oil, or whose sales could ever distinctly compare with the extraordinary "run" which this incomparable remedy enjoys; and in proof of its wonderful efficacy there would be no trouble whatever for us to obtain five hundred testimonials in favor of St. Jacobs Oil. We renew our personal endorsement of the strong claims of this Great German Remedy, in recommending it to suf ferers with Rheumatism and all pain

Annual Conference.

The annual meeting of the Nebraska State Universalist conference will be held at the Universalist church in Marble precinct, Saunders county, on Saturday and Sunday, June 10th and 11th, 1882. Several ministers from abroad will be in attendance. During the session the church will be dedicated. Rev. Mrs. De Long, of Tecumseh, will preach the dedicatory sermon. A cordial invitation to all, especially to the friends of liberal Christianity, is extended. W. N. BECKER, Jr., Pastor.