

THE IRON STRIKE.

A Combined Movement of the Iron Workers for Higher Wages.

The Most Extensive Strike Ever Organized in the Country.

The Mills of Cincinnati, Chicago, Springfield and St. Louis Shut Down.

Thousands of Men Affected by the Lockout, but Prepared for the Siege.

Proprietors Determined to Resist the Demand for a Year at Least.

A Few Mill Owners Will Pay the Price, and Prepare for a Rise in the Market.

A Detailed Statement of the Differences Between the Workmen and Proprietors.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Twelve hundred men at Frondale mills, a few miles south of this city, went on a strike this morning.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—A lack of harmony among the employers and the men on the question of wages has caused the shutting down of the Laclede rolling mill, Halabacker forge and Harrison wire works.

CINCINNATI, O., June 1.—All but two iron mills in this neighborhood shut down this morning, the men refusing to work.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 1.—At 6 o'clock this evening fires were put out in the rolling mills here, the men going out and locking up the doors.

THE LENGTH OF THE STRUGGLE. A St. Louis dispatch (30th) to The Philadelphia Press says: The only interesting feature of the iron situation is the question of the length of the struggle which is certain to commence on Thursday morning.

A DIVISION. However, has taken place under the Amalgamated union's direction which has placed the St. Louis branch of the society in the fifth district.

THE MANUFACTURERS SAY THE MEN HAVE WORKED UNDER THE CINCINNATI AGREEMENT FOR SOME TIME TO THEIR OWN ADVANTAGE, YET THEY ARE DETERMINED TO STRIKE FOR THE SIMPLE REASON THAT THE PITTSBURG WORKMEN HAVE STRUCK.

THEY ALLEGED. That the coal they use is inferior to Pittsburgh coal. The former fuel, they claim, burns to an ash, while the latter leaves in its wake cinders that must be picked from grates by great labor.

ONE OPERATOR GIVES IN. At a late hour to-night the general officers of the Amalgamated association were notified that Whitaker & the Crescent iron works, Wheeling, had signed the scale.

BOTH SIDES OF THE STRIKE. St. Louis Republican, May 30. The strike of the iron workers last started from June until October, during which time the proprietors in-isted that their employes should continue work at Pittsburg prices. At the end of this strike the men resumed work at prices they obtained when they ceased work.

AGREEMENT. CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 29, 1881.—The following is the agreement entered into this day between the proprietors of rolling mills in Cincinnati and vicinity, and the workmen in conference for that purpose.

WE, the proprietors of the rolling mills in Cincinnati and vicinity, agree to pay the prices ruling here immediately prior to June 1st (1), 1881, for skilled labor, until June 1, 1882; and from then forward the prices shall be the same as may be adopted in Pittsburg, Pa.

WE CERTIFY THE ABOVE TO BE CORRECT. L. M. Dayton, Charles Avery, C. J. Traiter, John G. Lewis, J. L. Pau, Sec., G. Summers, Jr., Sec., Special Com. S. J. O'Connell, Com. COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

Business fell away because railroads stopped their construction work or track systems and made an effort to stop the construction of new ones.

THE OTHER SIDE. A puddler in high authority and skilled, has this to say: "They want 50 cents on a ton more for boiling and 10 per cent. in the finishing department over the Pittsburgh mills."

BOTH SIDES OF THE STRIKE. St. Louis Republican, May 30. The strike of the iron workers last started from June until October, during which time the proprietors in-in great demand at present. For this reason, rather than be forced from the market, the Wheeling mills will continue operations, while its other competitors remain inactive.

THE PUBLIC DEBT. CHICAGO, June 1.—There being no hope of an amicable settlement of the differences between the brick laborers and manufacturers of this city, the latter this morning started up work at the yard with green non-union hands.

THE BANK CHARTER BILL. The senate finance committee have agreed to Mr. Crapo's bank charter extension bill with several amendments, one of which limits the withdrawal of the circulation in any one month to $3,000,000, instead of $5,000,000.

CONGRESS. SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1.—The bill to reimburse the Creek orphan fund passed.

SENATOR TERRY reported from the postoffice committee a bill to provide postal cards with flexible covers.

AT 2 p. m. the senate took up the army appropriation bill. The clause providing for voluntary retirement of officers or soldiers after forty years service, and compulsory retirement of officers at 62 years of age, gave rise to considerable debate.

SENATOR BAYARD opposed it as being unjust to the men who are competent and able to continue in the service.

SENATOR LOGAN advocated it as an act of justice to all.

SENATOR MAXEY opposed consideration. A departure like this, he said, was too important to be passed in an appropriation bill, and said neither Judah Covert, Hannibal, nor Napoleon reached their eminence by a retired list cutting off the heads of those above them.

SENATOR RANNEY opened the discussion of the Biabee-Filley Florida election case, giving notice he would call the previous question at 4:30 p. m.

MR. BISHOP, following, adding that Filley was justly elected. He said that the reason the usual number of republican votes was not polled at the principal precinct in question, was that there were two republican candidates for the senate, and one of these was strongly opposed to Biabee, and Biabee's name was not on the ticket voted by his men.

MR. JONES (Texas) spoke in opposition to the report of the majority of the committee.

MR. McMILLAN (Tenn.) followed, closing the case for the defense.

MR. BIABEE, contestant, then took the floor at 4:45 to close his own case, but had not completed his argument when, at 5 p. m., the house took a recess till 7:30 p. m.

MR. BIABEE concluded his remarks and the vote resulted, yeas 141, nays 9.

MR. BIABEE was then sworn in.

MR. PAGE submitted the river and harbor bill, and gave notice that he would attempt to pass it under suspension of the rules Monday.

MR. HAZLETON called up the election case, Lowe vs. Wheeler.

MR. WHEELER made a statement and complained of want of time given to argue the case.

A BLOODY STRIKE.

Four Non-Union Iron Workers Fatally Beaten.

Chicago, June 1.—A terrible riot occurred this evening at Brighton Park, five miles south of this city, where the iron works of the Joliet Iron and Steel company are located.

The company has been employing men from Joliet. This evening while 15 workmen were on the train proceeding home, about 100 strikers rushed aboard the train armed with pistols, knives, clubs and strips of iron, and commenced a murderous attack upon all passengers.

Judge Pittsburg is judge of the second district appellate court, and was a passenger on the Chicago & Alton train proceeding home at P. utiac.

He is universally respected, and the rioters certainly could have no spite against him, but the hundred infuriated workmen belonging to the union rushed madly through the hip and dangerously wounded.
