with the night policemen at the transfer, started with the prisoner. They had not proceeded far before the connection with this race, the judges reserved their decision, and ordered Lone Jack turned over to his owner.

In this race there were three entries, Little Sioux, by C. B. Wilson, Missouri Valley; Loafer, A. M. Howe, Creston; J. W. Peregoy, A. Hartney, Council Bluffs. The horses were started after two or three trials, with an even start between Little Sioux and Loafer, but the driver of Jack Peregoy was unable to bring him up. Little Sioux took the lead from the start, and kept it to the finish From the quarter to the three-quarter was an exciting and close contest between Loafer and Jack Peregoy for second place, which was gained once by the latter, but he lost it on the turn to the homestrate and the horses for second place, but the little mare fell behind on the last end of the mile.
