COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Wednesday Morning June 7.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 30 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per Year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. G. E. MAYNE, Manager City Circulation. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

Go to Herman's for big bargains. Sherraden makes photographs. There have been seventy-one marriage licenses issued here since April 1st.

The groomed horse case occupied Judge Abbott's time yesterday. Herman is bound to close out.

Railroad tickets bought and sold. Bushnell, five doors north of Postoffice. Can save you money on tickets.

A new line of riding, driving and drover's whips just received at Beckman's. Buy of him and save money.

Don't forget to call at the new ice cream parlors of Mrs. J. A. Gray, over 605 Broadway.

In the district court yesterday, Judge Lewis of the Sioux City circuit presiding, the trial of Jack Shields was begun.

Joseph Rosa, of 615 Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs, makes the best butter.

Justice Abbott was yesterday summoned to Kiel's hotel, where he tied the bond matrimonial which John T. E. Behense and Johanna L. Witt as husband and wife.

It was thought that there would be few civil cases in the superior court for its June term, owing to the fact that it is a new court, and that the district court is in session.

James Peirce, who has for more than eight years been connected with Oberfelder & Newman, is now arranging to start a merchant tailoring establishment for himself and yesterday leased No. 332 Broadway, where he will open about the 1st of next month.

Yesterday Frank Crow, the "Blue Jay" man, was able to appear before Judge Aylesworth to answer the charge of disturbing the peace, laid at his door some time ago, but which he has not been prepared to meet before owing to the effects of the pounding he received at the time of the fracas.

John Green, of Weston, was on a wild drunk Monday night and had Dr. Carr's horse, with which he and a girl named Fannie Allen were out riding at a slashing gallop when the officers arrested them.

The filling of Main street, for which Mr. Moore had the contract, is now completed, the expense for this part of the work being about $1,100, and in settling with him the council found that his dirt tickets and the accounts came out right to a dot.

The superior court is now getting pretty well provided with the needed books and blanks, and the form in which they are arranged, and the neatness and taste of the mechanical work excites much praise, especially from the attorneys and those who have business there.

The regular reports were presented by the several city officials and by Judge Aylesworth, and were placed on file.

The rest of the evening was taken up in the consideration and allowance of bills, of which there were a large number.

It was expected that the new ordinance regulating saloons and fixing the amount of licenses would be taken up, but it is now understood that the matter will be passed over until after the vote on the prohibitory amendment, thus leaving the amount of license an open question until after the present contest is past.

The council worked until about midnight and then adjourned until this evening.

Schull & Fox, the proprietors of the French Meat Market, which was recently burned out on lower Main street, have rented the building the first door north of Geo. Blaxim's shoe shop and will to-day open out business again. Give them a call.

700 BUSHELS Choice White Oats for sale cheap. Mayne & Co., 34 Pearl street.

SMOKE FRANK'S BLUNKS. FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

Refreshment, Ice Chests, Water Coolers, Filters, and Ice Cream Freezers at Mayne & Co.

Young America sometimes sets the old ones a good example of enterprise. A boy, claiming to hail from Sherman, Texas, bounded into the Bee office the other day with a "hiss-up-up," and after showing his ability to give a boss shine, showed his dime into his pocket, and wanted to know what it cost to advertise.

"I tell you, mister, I believe in advertising, I does, and want something put in the paper. How much will it cost?" "Why, what do you want to advertise?" "Well, I just want it put in the paper that Jo. Scott gives the boss shine of any of the fellows. Something like that. How much will it cost a feller?"

Such an appreciation of the value of advertising shown in one so young and tender, moved the kindly-hearted business manager, and he ordered the "ad" in at clergyman's rates, adding as he saw his face in the highly polished book, whose size and brilliancy made it look like a new piece, that if any one doubted Jo. Scott's skill as a boss black he should furnish Jo with an affidavit.

CRUMBS FROM THE COUNCIL.

Various Matters of Interest to the City Considered by the Aldermen.

The Saloon License Question to Be Referred Until After the Election.

The Expressmen Want to Pay a High License.

Under the new order of things the city council is supposed to meet but once a month. As a result there is an accumulation of bills and business, which makes it impossible to dispose of all in an evening's session.

The council did not get at work until late, there being several of the members tardy, but at last took their places. After the reading of the minutes, a big bundle of bills was presented by Auditor Burke, and passed over for consideration, and later in the evening allowed.

Col. Keastley was heard concerning the location of East Pierce street, and the petition of Conrad Geise, W. H. M. Pusey and others, to move the street about fifteen feet, at its crossing at Rock street.

Hon. Geo. F. Wright appeared as the attorney for the water works. He stated that it had been originally planned to have the reservoir located in Fairmount park, but this was now not feasible.

A petition signed by J. M. Palmer and B. Q. Hamlin, representing the C. & B. Q. railway, was presented, asking for the vacation of a certain alley in block 15, Riddle's addition.

A petition was presented and referred asking for a sidewalk on Fourth avenue, between Seventeenth and Nineteenth streets.

The resignation of Pat Lacy as chief of the fire department was presented and accepted. A committee consisting of Messrs. Conner, Casper and Brown, representing the fire department, reported that at a meeting held F. H. Guanello had been elected chief to fill the vacancy.

The mayor recommended a raise in the licenses of expressmen, of circus and the fixing of a license for shooting galleries.

A petition signed by a number of expressmen was also presented, asking that the license be raised to $25. The petitioners claim that the present license was so nominal that transients often entered into the business, thereby lessening the needful profits of those who devote their whole time to it.

A culvert was asked for near the C. & B. Q. railway at the lower end of Bancroft street. Referred to committee on streets and alleys.

The auditor reported that the bills allowed in May amounted to $4,017.92 and the warrants issued $4,030. The total number of warrants issued by the present council amounted to $8,373.37, of which $5,918 was from the general fund and $2,455 from the police fund.

The regular reports were presented by the several city officials and by Judge Aylesworth, and were placed on file.

The rest of the evening was taken up in the consideration and allowance of bills, of which there were a large number.

It was expected that the new ordinance regulating saloons and fixing the amount of licenses would be taken up, but it is now understood that the matter will be passed over until after the vote on the prohibitory amendment, thus leaving the amount of license an open question until after the present contest is past.

CHANGE IN THE CONTEST.

Hon. W. F. Sapp Withdraws From the Congressional Fight.

There was an important change made yesterday in the congressional contest by the withdrawal of Hon. W. F. Sapp, who couched his retirement in the following letter:

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., June 6. Hon. Geo. F. Wright, Member Congressional Committee, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

MY DEAR SIR: My name having been mentioned as a candidate for the nomination to congress, I beg leave to say to you and through you to the republicans of the district, that I am not a candidate for the nomination to that office. It is my wish that my name shall not be presented to the coming convention. I avail myself of this opportunity to express my gratitude to my friends for their support in the past and their proffered support had I entered this contest.

Yours truly, W. F. SAPP.

The withdrawal of Mr. Sapp put a new phase on the situation. There were many who hoped that he would hold Anderson to a close race as to give an excellent chance for a third man to capture the prize. Had he entered the contest, it is probable that this would have been the result of the struggle, and Anderson would have been left shivering in the cold.

It would, perhaps, have been little satisfaction for Mr. Sapp to have been in a race, the result of which would have left both himself and the major defeated, but it would have been more a satisfaction to the many who oppose Anderson, to have had him either stick to the last or retired earlier, so that they might have had time to unite on a man who would take the honors which have been grasped for in so unbecomingly a manner by Anderson.

The withdrawal gives Anderson a much surer outlook than he held during the days when the voice, of which his was the echo, was shouting "boom." Still there is still a chance that Anderson may not get there. Whether he does or not, the character of the man, his political trickery, his public and private record in the past cannot be changed, and even success cannot keep the people from gazing at what he really has been, and really is.

WANTED.—To buy 2,000 bushels of White Corn. Highest market price paid. Mayne & Co., Broom Factory, Council Bluffs, may27-tf

THE COUNTY BOARD. The Supervisors Spend Most of the Time in Considering Roads.

Yesterday was the second day's session of the county board of supervisors, and the time was largely devoted to the further consideration of roads.

The road petitioned for by J. E. Williams and others in Hazel Dell township, also the one petitioned for by W. H. Butler and others in Hardin township, were established by the board on condition that the petitioners should pay the costs before the September term.

The petition by Charles Clark and others for a change of road in Carter township was granted on like conditions.

The vacation of a road, petitioned for by John Roane, also the vacation of road petitioned for by Wm. Brown were established.

The road petitioned for by Thomas Green and sons was established, as shown by the supplementary report of the commissioner, and that J. Schmidt be allowed $900 and Russell Giles $80 as damages.

The petition of H. McRoy and twenty-three others of Bolknap township, asking the board to offer for sale the five forty-acre tracts of school land remaining unsold, was settled by authorizing the trustees of the town to advertise each forty acre tract and report at the September meeting.

The petition of F. Wilbourne and others for a change of road was presented and action deferred until July.

PERSONAL. J. P. Beach, mayor of Hamburg, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Winsfield Potter, of Van Buren county, was visiting friends here.

Mr. Larsen, of Copenhagen, dined with Dr. Paulson yesterday at the Ogden.

C. C. Mitchell, one of the liveliest tourists out of Des Moines, was here again yesterday.

Dr. F. Xanten, of Avoca, was here yesterday. He reports the small pox having been completely cleaned out in that place.

Major Anderson was in Hamburg again on Wednesday and Thursday. He has now a good office, worth $3,500 a year—and no onerous duties to perform. He is in vigorous pursuit of the office of congressman. For seventeen years past he has been in office, or in pursuit of office, or some office he has been pursuing him. He must have an office or he will leave the state. It used to be said of some public men that they neither sought nor declined honorable office. This class of men has become extinct.—Hamburg News.

Profitable Patients. The most wonderful and marvelous success in cases where persons are sick or wasting away from a condition of miserableness, that no one knows what ails them, (profitable patients for doctors), is obtained by the use of Hop Bitters. They begin to cure from the first dose and keep it up until perfect health and strength is restored. Whoever is afflicted in this way need not suffer, when they can get Hop Bitters. (Glenwood Springs, Colo.)

FIGHTING FEMALES.

Jealousy Causes One Woman to Fire Seven Shots at Another.

Poor Marksmanship Saves the Shedding of Blood.

There was some lively shooting in Streetsville Monday night, and considerable excitement caused in the neighborhood. It appears that Mr. and Mrs. Bush, and Mrs. Ewing, live on adjacent lots. A daughter of the former, known as Mrs. Ella Harris, returned home a day or two ago from Colorado, where she has been living some time, and the trouble which led to the shooting was confined to her and Mrs. Ewing, mainly, as is said to have originated in jealousy concerning a man named Harris. This man Harris was for some claimed as her own by Mrs. Ewing, and their relationship being broken off he afterwards married the Bush girl, but trouble arose between them, and they separated. On the latter's return home she learned that Harris was again devoting his affections to Mrs. Ewing, and on the strength of this information she rushed over to the latter's home, and the two meetings in the rear yard, was opened, charges and denials were hurled red hot at each other, and according to Mrs. Ewing's story the Bush woman pulled a revolver and began shooting rapidly at close range. Mrs. Ewing says she felt the flash of the revolver as well as saw it, and not only heard the bullets but saw them whizzing through the air close to her. She was evidently badly shaken up, but for some strange reason, unaccountable only on the theory that a woman cannot throw a stone or sharpen a lead pencil, none of the shots took effect. The bullets flew so wide of the mark that some of the neighbors were put in jeopardy and they hurriedly sent a messenger to the police station, but when the officers arrived the belligerent females had withdrawn from the field, and quiet was restored.

This morning Mrs. Ewing was again threatened by Mrs. Harris, and the police rushed down and arrested the latter, and she was brought before Judge Aylesworth, and charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm. The case was continued until this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the woman being in the meantime locked up in jail.
