LOCAL BREVITIES.

—A little son of Mr. Joseph Beatty fell off a fence, in South Omaha, Sunday, and broke his arm.

—A little boy named Knott, about six years of age, was kicked in the breast on Sunday last by a horse and so badly injured that his recovery is doubtful.

—John Strap, the man who tried to steal the till from the Tivoli Garden yesterday, was sent up by Judge Beneke for twenty-five days, and sentenced to make double restitution and pay the costs of the suit.

—Dr. Rogers, while descending from a temporary stairway at Dr. Mercer's barn yesterday, fell and broke his leg at the ankle.

—Seven tramps were pulled in Monday and five went up for ten days at hard labor, the other two being discharged.

—Unity Social club will give an entertainment and supper at Standard hall this evening, with music by Steinhauser's orchestra.

—A couple of very respectable looking women were arrested Monday night on the charge of keeping a house of ill-fame. They deny it very bitterly.

—The Northwestern is as solid as the Bank of England, and gives Life Insurance cheaper than any other company in the world. John Steel, agent. june3-mo

—A complaint has been filed against two small boys, Metz and Powers, for throwing brick-bats at another juvenile, Frank Kubobec.

—The Omaha teamsters hold their regular meeting a Tivoli hall, Farnam and Ninth, Wednesday evening, June 7. All teamsters respectively invited. By order of T. J. Quick, secretary.

—An individual arrested for sleeping on the sidewalk was discharged, as there is no law preventing a man from making his bed where he likes so long as he interferes with no one.

—A wooden tramway has been built by Contractor Robinson for carrying the earth in cars from the grade on Farnam street to the vicinity of Twenty-second street, where half of it is to be used to fill up the hollow.

—The band connected with the Tony Denier "Humpty Dumpty" party, gave a very fine street serenade to-day. The chart-shooter on the front seat is an expert at firing cards into doorways and upper windows.

—A leading Omaha attorney severely punished a wealty real estate man in the counting room of the Omaha National bank, Monday, the latter striking the first blow. Unfortunately the combatants were separated at this juncture.

—We are informed that the Wide Awake council No. 491, of the American Legion of Honor, are removing to a large and more commodious hall above Kennard Bros'. drug store, where they propose to hold a reception on Monday, June 12, 1882, to which members of other councils will be invited.

—A vicious dog on Douglas street bit Capt. Frank Kent quite severely on Sunday evening, and another caused a severe runaway on Sixteenth street the same day by catching at a horse's heels. It is time the dog ordinance was being enforced as it is absolutely dangerous to go along Farnam or Douglas without watching the vicious curs that infest them by scores.

—The citizens of Grand Island had a meeting on Tuesday, the 30th ult., to consider the subject of a proper observance of July 4th, which is not only independence day but this year the quarter-centennial anniversary of the settlement of Hall county. The secretary was instructed to invite Gen. J. C. Cowin, of Omaha, and Gen. J. M. Thayer to be present and deliver orations, and also to extend special invitations to Hon. James E. Boyd, and Hon. George L. Miller, of Omaha, to be present and join in the festivities incident to the occasion.

—Wm. Clark, a volunteer fireman, was arrested yesterday on a complaint made in police court, charging him with complicity in the robbery at the fire at Mr. Albert's house on the morning of May 12th. A gold watch and chain, valued at $135, and alleged to have been stolen by Clark, have been recovered and are in possession of the district attorney. This completes the recovery of the stolen property, which comprised two gold necklaces and a locket, which were found in possession of Carr Kendall, an ex-paid fireman, and his mistress, and two diamond rings and a pin, all of which are now either in possession of the authorities or the owner. Clark gave bail for his appearance.

—The funeral of the late Wm. M. Reese took place from Undertaker Jacobs' rooms yesterday under the auspices of Geo. A. Custer post No. 7, G. A. R., who turned out quite a detachment for the purpose. The interment took place at Prospect Hill. Thomas D. Rowlands, a brother of the widow arrived from Shelby, Iowa, in time to attend the funeral. The Grand Army boys have done an act that must be peculiarly consoling to the unfortunate family, and will probably aid them to get into a better position than they were left by the sad death of the husband and father.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

A Probability of an Enormous Manufacturing Institution for Omaha.

A Valuable Addition to the Industries of the City.

On Sunday last Messrs. Rice and Mason, of Des Moines, Iowa, arrived in this city on a mission which, if successful, will be extremely beneficial to to Omaha and to the state.

These gentlemen have the controlling influence in a new company formed in Des Moines for the purpose of going into the manufacture of barbed wire fencing. The company has a capital of $60,000 and have already begun preparations for actively pushing the work at that point, a quantity of machinery and other equipments being now on the ground. They do not, however, find the field as promising an one as they had anticipated, and consequently came to Omaha to confer with some of our leading men, in wealth and enterprise, upon the project of a removal to Omaha, which can now be done with the full consent of their own company, and without incurring any great loss, as the machinery is still in a shape to be readily transferred.

What they desire is to form a large company here with capital sufficient to carry on the manufacture on a very large scale. They are entirely out of the Monopoly and have patents of their own, so that there is no infringement, and they propose to give the old manufacturers a hard pull for supremacy.

After establishing themselves thoroughly at Omaha they desire, should the company think it advisable, to establish branches elsewhere throughout the state. In order to make the enterprise a success they wish to combine with men of reputation and capital and form a solid company that can give the monopoly a big deal.

They wanted to see what encouragement they could get, and hence were busy during their stay Monday in conference with various parties, the result of which will be known in a few days.

THE DISTRICT COURT.

A Summary of the Proceedings Before Judge Savage Yesterday.

The district court resumed its session at 9:30 a. m. yesterday, at which time Judge Savage rendered his decisions in various cases which have been carried over from last term, none of which were of any great public interest.

Sidney Smith, the ex agent of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company, whose record in this city, and subsequently at Little Rock, Arkansas, are well known to the public, was arraigned and plead to five indictments for embezzlement, not guilty, and was remanded.

The case of McCormick against Riewe, proceedings in replevin, was being argued when the reporter left. This case is on the third trial in this court.

OFFICIAL TRANSFER.

H. F. Willrodt Going to the Niobrara Country.

Mr. Henry F. Willrodt, who has been for many years a resident of this city, where he served the government in the capacity first of storekeeper and subsequently gauger at the Willow Springs distillery, has been assigned to duty in the Niobrara country. It was a great surprise to his friends who learned the news Monday and the regrets expressed are general and sincere.

Mr. Willrodt was president of the Turners, having held that office for two terms, and he Monday resigned the position on account of his contemplated change of headquarters, Mr. Philip Andres being elected to the same position.

Mr. Willrodt has during his residence in this city taken a prominent part in the Turners society and other organizations with which he was connected, and by whom his absence will be deeply felt. He is a gentleman in every sense of the word, and it is hoped that the transfer may prove only a temporary arrangement.

SLAVEN'S YOSEMITE COLOGNE, Made from the wild flowers of the FAR FAMED YOSEMITE VALLEY, it is the most fragrant of perfumes. Manufactured by H. B. Slaven, San Francisco. For sale in Omaha by W. J. Whitehouse and Kennard Bros.' &c.

A MUSICAL MELANGE

Highly Successful Social Given at Masonic Hall Last Evening.

A very successful social was given last evening at Masonic Hall under the auspices of the old Terpsichorean club.

The entertainment consisted for the most part of some brilliantly gotten up tableaux, the most prominent of which was a charming representation of "The Goddess of Liberty aiding the Maid of Erin," and the young ladies who took part in it made a charming living picture, the beauty of which was considerably enhanced by the brilliant red light thrown upon it.

During the evening Hoffmann's efficient stringed orchestra regaled the guests with some exquisitely dulcet strains, the most masterly pieces being "Esmeralda," "Entre'acte," and "The Last Rose of Summer."

The remaining portion of the evening was very delightfully wiled away in social chit-chat, in which, of course, the ladies played the most active part, the gentlemen doing the listening.

Among the ladies present were Mrs. McCaffrey, Mrs. Fitzmorris, Miss Smith, Miss McNaughton, Miss Kennedy, Mrs. Mahony, Mrs. Powers, Miss Riley, Mrs. and Miss McNamara, and the three Misses Murphy, and among the gentlemen were:

G. Y. Shelby, Ed Murphy, John Murphy, Thomas Tallon, C. J. Smith, Jerre Mulvihill, Jas Murphy, and Missrs Swift, Mahony, Odonnell, White, Bastwick, with several others.

The entire affair was unanimously voted a great social success, and all present had a real good time.

MURRAY'S MARAUDERS

A Double Attack on a Burt Street Residence.

On Friday night last, robbers entered through the cellar of the residence of Mr. C. W. Murray, jr., with Nave, McCord & Brady, 2118 Burt street. They took a quantity of canned goods and then ascended to the kitchen, where they found a number of articles and carried them away. The door leading from the kitchen to the dining room was locked or they would have undoubtedly continued their depredations still further. It was fortunate that they did not enter this room, as the family were at the time preparing to leave for a visit to the east and all their goods were out upon the tables and chairs and the trunks were open and the thieves would have had a picnic sure enough.

On Saturday morning Mr. Murray took his family and left with them for the east, after which the domestics employed at the house closed the shutters and left it with the appearance of being entirely deserted. The thieves were undoubtedly watching and got this knowledge and at three o'clock in the morning of Sunday they returned and tried the shutters, doors and every possible means of entrance, but the hired help who were inside heard them and lighted up the house and created a racket that scared them off.

This part of town has of late been troubled a good deal with midnight marauders, and a few loads of buckshot put into the carcases of one or two would probably prove an effectual remedy.

THIELE'S TILL.

Daring Attempt at Burglary.

Yesterday the usual tranquility of Tivoli Gardens was disturbed by an extraordinary daring attempt at burglary in broad daylight.

It appears that while the bartender was sitting at a table in the hall with some friends a man managed to creep an all fours from the garden into the locality behind the counter where the proprietor keeps his money, and made off with about $12 in chips and cash. In removing the money, however, he made a slight noise which called the bartender's attention to what was going on, and he saw the man make a start for some new field of action, he at once ran after him and captured the fellow behind the U. P. headquarters He gently conveyed him back to Tivoli gardens and sent for a constable. Officer Frank Kasper, was soon upon the scene, and upon searching the prisoner discovered some chips and money in his pants pockets. When the chase began the man threw away a large portion of the booty, which was picked up by the bar-tender.

He was then given in charge of the police who seem to be very familiar with his by no mean unprepossessing countenance.

His trial will probably come off to-day.

"By asking too much we may lose the little that we had before." Kidney-Wort asks nothing but a fair trial. This given, it fears no loss of faith in its virtues. A lady writes from Oregon: "For thirty years I have been affected with kidney complaints. Two packages of Kidney-Wort have done me more good than all the medicines and doctors I have had before. I believe it is a sure cure."

Fast, brilliant and fashionable are the Diamond Dye colors. One package colors 1 to 4 lbs. of goods. Ten cents for any color.

FADNER'S FORGERY.

An Old Acquaintance of W. H. H. Llewellyn Comes to Grief.

The Story of a Slick Rascal.

About three years ago a man named F. C. Fadner was arrested by W. H. H. Llewellyn, then deputy marshal of Omaha, and now an Indian agent in New Mexico, for an offense against the law, the full particulars of which were published in all the city papers here at that time. He was finally discharged and afterwards created a good deal of sympathy for himself by shooting himself in the fleshy part of the arm, at Lincoln, and then claiming that he had had an encounter with a horse thief in a barn there.

At the capital he paid assiduous attention to a very fine young lady to whom he was betrothed, but before the arrival of the day set for the nuptials a sheriff arrived from Ohio and took him back to answer to the charge of bigamy. He got out of this scrape in some way but went from bad to worse until forgery was added to the long list of other crimes. He was recently captured in Ohio and taken back to Rome, New York. The case is so interesting that we reproduce a synopsis of it from the Rome Observer: Fadner was charged with forging a judgment of divorce between him and his first wife and uttering the same by using it as evidence on his trial for bigamy at Rome, New York. The trial for bigamy occured in 1880. The indictments were found in January, 1881. When arrested on the indictments, Fadner gave bonds for his appearance at the sessions in April, giving as surety Nicholas Peters, of Constableville, Lewis county—an honest farmer whose wife was distantly related to Fadner. Not appearing at the April term, Fadner's bail was forfeited, and, on application, the case was put over until the November term. The November term came but Fadner did not come. His counsel agreed to have him present at the January term. Meanwhile the district attorney sued the bail bond and this year judgment was entered against him for $1,500 and the costs. In January last, the district attorney became satisfied that Fadner had run away, was secreted somewhere and didn't propose to visit Oneida county again unless he was run down and brought back by gubernatorial requisition. Mr. Peters, the bondsman, employed D. C. Stoddard as counsel and laid the facts before him to try and catch the man and let him (Peters) out of a tight spot worth $1,500. Mr. Stoddard took hold of the case vigorously and employed a detective. He had information that Fadner's second wife was in Brunswick, Ohio, and he commenced a correspondence with Ohio officials. He ascertained that the dutiful Frederick visited his father occasionally, coming quietly, keeping "shady" and going stealthily. He obtained a requisition of the governor of New York on the governor of Ohio, and the papers were placed in the hands of Officer Wheeler. Detective Wheeler left Utica Monday at 5 p. m., and at 11:50 yesterday he stepped from the train at the Utica depot in company with Frederick C. Fadner.

On the trial Fadner produced a decree of divorce between himself and wife No. 1, alleged to have been granted at a term of the supreme court of the city of New York, Hon. Charles H. Van Brunt, residing.

The defendant's counsel put this decree in evidence. It had upon it a seal, bore the clerk's name and that of the presiding judge. On this showing Fadner was discharged. An investigation was then commenced to ascertain the validity of the decree and it was found to be a forgery.

RAILROAD RACKET.

The many friends of Warren Fuller will be glad to know that he has received a boost that sends him to the front. He has been appointed master in charge of the B. & M. round house at Denver, and left for that city yesterday. Warren has been an engineer in the employ of the B. & M. for the past thirteen years, and during that time has made Lincoln his home.—Lincoln Journal.

REMOVAL

The offices of the division headquarters of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway were removed from the Creighton block, Fifteenth street, Monday, to the new part of Strang's block, Tenth and Farnam streets. They have been in the Creighton block for a long time, occupying the former quarters of the Omaha & North Nebraska railway.

HARASSING HAZEN.

Another Chapter in the History of Our City Detective.

The Grand Island Independent referring to the recently published expose of the ex-city detective of Omaha, Hazen, says;

"On Monday night of last week this same fraud called and knocked at the Clarenden House door between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock a. m. and inquired for a lady who was stopping at said hotel and registered by the name of Carrie Adams, saying that her husband had been dangerously hurt, and that he wished to see her immediately, holding a letter in his hand at the time.

"The night watchman admitted him, Hazen following to the room door. After having awakened the lady, and he inquiring what was wanted and who was there, Hazen spoke out saying it was he, and he wanted her to get up at once, she then asked him what he wanted, he replied I have something to tell you, she answered I can hear it as well here as any where, he persisted in seeing her, and after dressing herself she opened the door, he approached her trying to embrace her, she repulsed him saying, "I want you to go away and let me alone, you have abused me sufficiently, I want nothing more to do with you." The clerk retired from the scene and alone with her he soon had her under subjection so that hasty preparation was made on her part to leave. The proprietor and wife were awakened by the noise, they occupying an adjoining room and she desired to see the landlady to give some direction about the disposition of some goods she had purchased, intending to go to housekeeping the following day, having secured some half-doze fine dresses to make. Paul H. Rawlins, the proprietor, by this time arose and dressing himself went down into the office. Seeing the woman in tears and much agitated, he inquired what it all meant. She replied "this man is going to take me away." Rawlins told her that if she was afraid of him or did not wish to go all she had to was to say so, and that she need not go out side of the house. She with much trepidation replied "Oh hush he will hear you." Rawlins told her that he had nothing to fear from such a man as Hazen.

"Hazen was all this time dogging her from place to place and stood in plain hearing while this conversation took place. He called to her in a gruff voice to hurry up, the train was in. Shouldering her trunk he marched her with the child in her arms ahead of him down to the depot about half-past three Friday morning, baby and mother crying. The woman is undoubtedly the one referred to as his late companion in Omaha, and it is evident that they left Grand Island together, though in what direction no one seems able to tell, but it is quite clear that they went not in the direction of Omaha."

"Hazen should be passed around and handled without gloves by the press everywhere. He bilked Greeley county out of about $600 for pretended detective services, and other localities have financial cause to remember him."

"It is clear that the unfortunate woman, whoever she may be, is afraid of him, and probably not without just cause."
