MINOR MENTIONS.

—Go to Herzman for bargains.
 —Sherraden makes photographs.
 —All kinds of Canned Meats at Peck Bros.
 —Chose Wedding Gifts at Maurer & Craig's.
 —Go to Herzman's before buying.
 —The republican primaries meet to-morrow evening.
 —THE BEST Teas and Coffees in the market at Peck Bros.
 —Herzman will sell store and dwelling.
 —Sherraden is the best photographer.
 —Yesterday was one of the lightest of the month in the superior court, there being but one plain drunk to dispose of.
 —Fine line of mens', boys and side saddles at Sherman's, 124 S. Main.
 —Solid Silver and Plated Ware at Maurer & Craig's.
 —The deaf and dumb institute has closed its year and entered on the vacation which will continue until September.
 —Herzman is bound to close out.
 —Joseph Reiter makes suits in the latest styles at 310 Broadway.
 —Look at Seaman's line of 75 Cent Cabinet Frames.
 —Van Maen, who shot Stiles at the transfer, is able to be up and around, though not fully recovered from the injuries he received.
 —Railroad tickets louch and sold—Bushnell, five doors north of Postoffice. Can save money on the tickets.
 —Don't forget to call at the new ice cream parlors of Mrs. J. A. Gray, over 605 Broadway.
 —One case of small pox is reported as being in Sireville, and that it is being kept quiet. The authorities at least have not been notified if any such case exists.
 —Joseph Ross, of 615 Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs, makes the best butter tubs in the west, and sells them at the lowest cash price.
 —New lot of Dresden Bique Figures and Fine Pottery just opened at Maurer & Craig's.
 —There was a slight row yesterday among some of the inmates of the old Sioux City home, now quarantined. Mayor Bowman has secured a house in the northern part of the city, and to-day the inmates will be removed thither. Such a nest in the Central part of the city is too dangerous to be permitted to run long.

—David Mottaz, the poll tax hunter struck a bonanza at Hattenhauer's carriage factory yesterday. He found there thirteen victims in a heap, and stranger than all, he says they all treated him as though he was a welcome visitor, and paid up their $3 a piece without a grumble. Business is too brisk around the factory to spend much time in disseminating poll tax.
 —Some of the circus men hearing that the city council here propose to raise the license from $75 to $150, are wanting to find out if the raise has been made, saying that they will not come here if they have to pay $150. That amount ought not to frighten them. With an ample supply of water the profit on lemonade could easily be increased to cover the raise.
 —The pastoral relationship between the Presbyterian church and Rev. Dr. Cleland has been finally dissolved and the latter, after occupying the pulpit here for two more Sundays, will take up his new work in Keokuk. There are many inside and outside the church who will regret to lose Mr. Cleland from the city.
 —This evening the graduating exercises of the high school take place at the Bloomer school building. There are ten young ladies in the class, they being Virginia Ross, Edie Moon, Nellie Clarendon, Nellie Sackett, Tillie Outenreith, Nellie Rain, Mollie V. Lyon, Lena Peterson. The absence of the boys indicates that there is a strange lack of appreciation of the educational advantages offered by the city schools on their part or that of their parents.
 —Mayor Bowman has appointed as special policeman for thirty days George Edgar, which will so supply the force as to enable the chief to detail one of the regular force to do duty at the transfer, and look after the alleged abuses of emigrants, in accordance with the action of the council. The present plan is to use the members of the regular force at the depot, changing them off from time to time, and supplying the vacancy by the special policeman, it being deemed best to use experienced men at the depot.

A SPLENDID OFFER.

To reduce our stock we will sell Wall Paper for the next thirty days at Wholesale Prices.

CHICKERING AHEAD.

J. Mueller says the trade in the Chickering Piano just now is immense; have to wait from two weeks to one month to get orders filled from the factory, although they make seventy-five per week. Those modal actions in the upright is what does it.

CITY ICE CREAM PARLOR.

A new stock of french Cream Candies just received at the fashionable ice cream, fruit and confectionery emporium of Smith & McQueen, successors to Erb & Duquette, 404 Broadway.

CITY CONCERNS.

A New Ordinance Concerning the Fire Department and the Prevention of Blazes.

All the Houses in the City Ordered Numbered at Once.

Other Matters Decided Upon by the City Fathers.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held Wednesday night at which the mayor and all the aldermen except Goulden were present.

The matter of numbering houses was brought to the attention of the council, and also the fact that a law was passed by the last legislature providing that cities could order houses to be numbered and when there was a failure to comply the city could employ a person to put the numbers up, charging the expense to the property thus numbered. The council passed a resolution ordering all owners or tenants to see that the proper number was placed on the building before the first of July, or else the same would be done at the expense of the property.

One of the necessities for prompt action in the matter is the fact that the postoffice authorities propose starting a free delivery by carriers on the first of July, but will not do so unless the city is numbered.

A petition was presented for the opening and extension of Avenue B both east and west. It was signed by J. M. Palmer, J. N. Casady, W. R. Vaughan, W. C. James and others.

Alderman Eicher recommended that the culvert on upper Broadway be replaced by one fully twice as large; also that the sidewalk on Fourth avenue, between Sixteenth and Nineteenth streets, be built; also that a sidewalk should be built on Tenth street from Main to Bond, and that from Main to Bancroft it be raised one foot; also that the committee be given more time in regard to the opening of Eighth avenue. The reports were concurred in, and the necessary ordinances passed.

A resolution was presented to the effect that in consideration of the donation of $2,000 by the county to help build the levee to protect the city from overflow in the northern part of the city, the city agreed to hold the county harmless from all liability for damages which might arise from the levee. The resolution was laid over until the next meeting.

City Attorney Wayne called attention to the fact that two suits had been brought by residents on Pierce street for damages caused by overflow of water, caused by the filling up of side streets. The alderman from that ward informed the council that there was no just cause for action, and the matter dropped.

City Engineer Foster reported in the matter of Vaughan avenue that the committee had settled a line in accordance with the change required, and at the next meeting would present a survey. He also reported that the bridges across the creek on the Northwestern railway's right of way were too low, and hence in the last flood the levee gave way and the water covered considerable property near petitioners. The company should be compelled to raise the bridge. The city attorney was instructed to so notify the company.

The city engineer also reported the grade on lower Main street as completed, and on motion of Ald. Shugart he was instructed to report the number of yards of dirt placed in front of each lot with a view of having the expense assessed to the property.

Attorney Wright, of the C. B. & Q., informed the council that the company did not understand what charges the city desired in regard to culverts, but was willing to comply if the city engineer would instruct in detail.

The same gentleman also called attention to an excessive assessment of Union Pacific property on the bottom, and desired the city to concur in the action of the county board in reducing the assessment from $40 to $30 per acre. Referred to the finance committee and city engineer.

The mayor spoke of the condition of the old Sioux City house, which is at present under quarantine. Some of the business men had complained, and desired the inmates to be removed and the house condemned and taken away. It was suggested that they be taken to some cheap house on the bottom, and kept there, and that the old building be torn down. The whole matter was placed in the mayor's hands with the power to act.

Marshal Key, Esq., requested that the city define the line of streets in Hug & Donovan's addition, by plowing and scraping, at a small expense. He told that there had been $948 of road tax collected from that property and not a cent spent there yet. It was desired that the street be thus defined to keep the sale of lots and hasten settlement of that part of the city. Referred to committee on streets, with power to act.

Mr. Turley was heard concerning the proposed extension of Bluff street. He refused in toto to donate the land as suggested by the report of the committee. The matter was laid over until the next meeting.

Ald. Newell presented an ordinance for the reorganization of the fire department and the prevention of fires. It provided that the department shall consist of a chief elected by the council, one foreman for each company, and not to exceed six men for each engine, three men for each hose company, and five men for each pompier company. The foremen are to be appointed by the chief and confirmed by the mayor and council, and are liable to be removed by the chief for cause. Every member of the department must be at least 21 years old, must be a citizen and a voter in the city.

In case of the absence of the chief at a fire the foreman first on hand shall act as chief.
 No member shall be allowed to discontinue or peddle tickets at the polls.

No liquor is to be allowed in or about the houses.
 Any member of the department getting drunk or not paying his bills is liable to discharge.

A member's religious or political belief shall be no cause for discharge. Any member is liable to discharge who shall leave the house without permit or lounge about saloons or houses of ill-repute.

No society or organization of firemen shall be allowed except for benevolent purposes.
 No outsiders shall be allowed to lounge about engine houses.

It shall be a misdemeanor for anyone to drive across the hose in the streets.

A record is to be kept of all fires, the causes, losses and insurance.

The chief shall receive $600 a year, payable quarterly; the foreman $240 a year, payable quarterly, and fifty cents for each hour at a fire, the other members $120 a year and forty cents an hour while at a fire.

The other provisions of the ordinance apply to the prevention of fires forbidding the passing of stove pipes through roofs, or through more than one wooden partition or floor, and then to pass through a thimble; no stove to be placed within two feet of woodwork without a metallic protection, and every stove to stand upon zinc, no ashes to be deposited except in a proper and safe receptacle; no combustible material to be piled up unless protected from falling sparks; no unprotected candles to be used in stables, etc.; no bonfire to be lighted within 200 feet of a building without permit; no fire-works to be used, except by permission from the mayor and on the usual holidays.

The ordinance was passed to a second reading, and laid over until the next meeting.

Considerable time was spent in examining the plat of the land adjoining Fairmount Park, on which the reservoir for the water works is to be located. The city attorney was instructed to proceed with the condemnation of the land for the purpose of ascertaining what it would cost, and an adjournment was taken until such time as the committee will be ready to report concerning the levee, when a meeting will be called.

OVER 2,000 copies of sheet music just received at 140 Broadway, for 5 cents a copy.

PERSONAL.

H. L. Palmer, of Milwaukee, was in the city yesterday.

W. E. Davis, of the Sioux City & Pacific has just returned from Texas.

Sam Chandler and A. P. Stafford, of Sidney, were in the city yesterday, and dined at the Ogden.

D. C. Starks, traveling agent of the Rochester & Pittsburg railway, is in the city, and is stopping at the Revere.

Atlantic was represented at the Pacific house yesterday by a party consisting of H. G. Van Vlack and wife, D. Van Vlack, Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Ticknor.

We are glad to see again the happy face of J. W. Astell, of Missouri Valley, the old-time conductor. He is on his way home from Denver, where he has been for some time for his health.

S. D. Street, the clerk of the courts, received a telegram that his brother, C. H. Street, of San Francisco, had his leg amputated yesterday, he having suffered from it for many years, as his friends here know. The telegram stated that he had survived the operation, and was apparently doing nicely.

SHORT BREVES.

O. Bortle, Manchester, N. Y., was troubled with asthma for eleven years. Had been obliged to sit up sometimes ten or twelve nights in succession. Found immediate relief from Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and is now entirely cured. j13-14

ABBOTT'S STOCK SHOW.

One Fellow Accused of Running On a Horse and Another of Stealing a Car and Saddle.

Yesterday a young fellow named Fred Amy was before Justice Abbott. It appears that Amy has been at work for C. D. Wilson, a farmer in Garner township, of whom he bought a horse which he was to pay for in work, Wilson, to secure himself, taking a mortgage on the horse. Young Amy, it is charged, ran the horse off and swapped it for another with a man near Missouri Valley. He then went to Dr. Patten's stable in this city and borrowed a saddle, on the pretense that he had quit work for Wilson and wanted to ride out doing so he jumped onto the new horse and put out for Bedford, Taylor county, going the distance of a hundred and twenty miles or so in a little over a day. He went to work there for his brother. The necessary papers were sent to Sheriff Morgan, of that county, who arrested him and brought him to this city. Amy gave a bill of sale to Wilson for the horse which he had traded for the charge of the charging goods under false pretenses was lodged against him for having taken Dr. Patten's saddle. On this charge he was held for the action of the grand jury, and not being able to give the $300 bail required was sent to jail.

Mrs. Grody, living near the transfer, had a calf stolen yesterday, and on making inquiries among the meat markets found that it had been sold to Pace & Schmidt. The fellow who sold the stolen calf was hunted up, arrested, and brought before Justice Abbott. He claimed that he bought it of some stranger near the transfer, paying $4 for it, and he sold it for $4.50 just for speculation. His examination was set for Saturday afternoon, and not having bail he was locked up. On his person was found a pawn ticket, and investigation showed that the fellow had also stolen a saddle from Pace & Schmidt, the same to whom he sold the stolen calf. He had pawned the saddle, and the ticket gave him away. A pocket-book and suspenders were found upon him also, and it is not unlikely that he took these from the pawnshop, that opening to be his way of doing business.

The Diamond Dyes always do more than they claim to do. Color over that old dress. It will look like new. Only 10 cents.

TRAPS FOR THIEVES.

The City Proposes to Set Some in the Second Hand Stores.

There is a probability that the city council will soon take some action toward licensing the second hand stores. One object is to get a little revenue for the city, but the main purpose seems to be to place them under city regulation. It is proposed in connection with this to make the dealers keep a register showing every purchase made, and to have this record at all times open to the public. It is expected that in this way it will be more easy to recover stolen property, and dealers will be more particular about buying such. Such an ordinance will probably be prepared and presented to the council at an early date. The license will probably be low, but the penalty for failing to keep an accurate register will be heavy.

IOWA ITEMS.

Small fruits in Northwestern Iowa are looking well, despite the cold weather.

Cedar Rapids and Monticello, 36 miles apart, are connected by telephone.

The assignee of the B. F. Allen estate began paying the first 10 per cent. dividend on the 10th inst.

Thomas Hunter, of Nevinville, was drowned in Shanghai creek on the 10th while attempting to ford the stream.

A child in Des Moines fell from the third story window, lodged on a sign projecting from the second floor, and escaped with a few slight bruises.

The pigeons killed at the state tournament were sold to a Chicago restaurateur for one dollar a dozen. The original cost of the birds was $2.40 a dozen.

Near Commerce the other day a 14-year-old girl was outraged by three tramps, who left her lying insensible by the side of the road, while they made good their escape.

A powder magazine near Davenport was struck by lightning recently and the explosion that occurred blew the building into fragments. Windows eight miles distant were broken. No one was hurt.

Abraham Hill, of Monmouth, Jackson county, while sailing in this Wapello river at Oxford Junction, got into deep water and was drowned. He recently came from Ohio, where his parents reside.

The passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul was dethroned near Canton on the night of the 9th inst., caused on account of a bad wash-out. The express messenger had a leg broken in two places, and several passengers received slight injuries.

Benedict Zeigler, of Clinton, a few evenings since, went to the cemetery and kneeling on the grave of his wife put a pistol ball through his head. He was alive when found, but died the next morning. His age was 54. He had been very despondent over the death of his wife, and brooding over her loss unsettled his reason.

A PECK OF TROUBLE.

Walnut's Sensation Ended.
 Correspondence of the Bee.
 WALNUT, Ia., June 13.—The case of the state of Iowa vs. John and Charlie Peck, charged with injuring a schoolmate to such an extent that death ensued, came to an abrupt termination to-day. The case has been before Mayor Craig for the last ten days, and this forenoon the defense brought in a witness who testified that he separated three boys who were fighting upon the same day, at the same hour and upon the identical spot, where a former witness claimed to have recognized the defendant Peck boys engaged in a scuffle; it was a clear case of mistaken identity. The medical evidence also tended to show that death was caused by a disease of the urinary organs, producing gangrene, the spots of which resembled blows and bruises.
