PITCHING INTO PESTILENCE. The Old Sioux City House Cleaned Out and Carbolic Acid Rather Freely Used.

Threats to Set Fire to the Old Building Unless Speedily Torn Down.

There has been much grombling of late about the old Sioux City House, a dilapidated structure on Broadway which is almost ready to tumble down and which has been a nest into which has been huddled a number of families of all colors, sexes and previous conditions of servitude.

The house has been quarantined formally, but not in fact, for the inmates have come and gone at different times since the mild notice, "No Admittance" was tacked on the door. The council took action, however, and authorized the mayor to remove the occupants and pull down the old building.

Mayor Bowman superintended the removal, and with his usual caution purchased some carbolic acid for disinfectant purposes. He did not dilute it as he ought, but commenced sprinkling it about, in which labor of love officer Sterling assisted.

Another death is reported as having occurred at the pest tent, it being young Straher, who was taken there recently from his home near the transfer. It has been urged that a tent is much better for sheltering patients than a house, but the fact that so many of those who have been taken there have died, is not any proof of this fact.

Two meetings were arranged for yesterday in Baylis park, one of the protectionists, to hear Governor St. John; the other of the workingmen, to hear Hon. R. F. Trevellick. One evening last week Mr. Trevellick, in accordance with the previous announcement, addressed a meeting in the court house, and on that afternoon the prohibitionists received word that ex-Congressman Grinnell was to be here, and so they sprung an open air meeting in the park, thus coming in conflict.

Officer Fryer picked up a crazy Saturday night drunk on lower Main street, who was booked simply as "Frank," and who will address the court this morning. There was a little rowdy war at the Pacific house saloon Friday night, and as a result complaints have been entered against George Ferguson and M. Eppinger, for disturbing the peace, and they will be heard this morning.

WICKED WAYS. The Guests Booked at the Hotel de Fields and Offenders to be Dealt With To-Day.

Early Saturday morning two young men were found snoozing in Baylis park, and on being roused up and told to move they proceeded to shoot hard words at the park policeman, Mr. Jackson. His feelings were hurt and he sent for Chief Fields who took the young men to his boarding house where they were registered as John Rose and Rasmus Rink, and locked up for being drunk and disorderly. They will have a hearing this morning.

In the superior court Saturday there was only one drunk disposed of—James Finley—a plain one, who was given the usual assessment. Another young man was arrested Saturday charged with indecent exposure to the passengers of an incoming Wabash train.

ment will receive a majority of at least 500.

In Mills county it is said the amendment will receive a small majority on a pretty full vote, but on a light vote the majority will be the other way. Van Buren county is placed at 200 majority against it. Lee county is expected to give from 500 to 600 majority against it.
