NEOLA'S NEED. She Wanted Reed But Did Not Get Him—Crops and Business.

NEOLA, Iowa, June 22, 1882. To the Editor of The Bee: Crops in this locality have been improving daily with the warm weather.

I have not seen more satisfaction over any turn in politics than is exhibited here over the fact that the delegates to Pottawattamie's convention were instructed to support Judge J. R. Reed for congress.

This is the largest class ever graduated from the law school of the university. In conversation with different members of the class.

Orations were delivered by E. B. Howell, C. F. Kuehnel, J. L. Kennedy, L. A. Stamwood, L. C. Crawford, Daniel Emery, L. C. Harris, W. H. Norris, M. McClure, J. F. Clyde.

The commencement exercises of the literary department will take place tomorrow. The seniors number forty.

The Grinnell college buildings will be rebuilt at once. A street railway company has been organized at Centerville.

In Des Moines a man applied for public relief, basing his claim to charity on his having the dropsy and four pairs of twins.

It is rumored that the Rock Island Railroad company is about to build a mammoth five hundred room hotel at Colfax and surround it with a park.

The most astonished young man in the city has been seen in the office of the O'Brien county clerk of the courts the other day.

A SORT OF BREVET DEVIL. Strange Power to Resist Fire Possessed by a Maryland Negro. Wilmington News.

Nathan Coker is of pure African lineage, black as ebony and of stalwart frame. He is now somewhere between 60 and 70 years of age.

He was at one time on exhibition and his strange feats created considerable excitement, but owing to his dislike of notoriety and lack of education he retired from the stage.

The Money in the World. Director Burchard, of the United States mint, estimates the world's production of gold for the calendar year of 1881 at $107,000,000.

The estimated circulation in the principal countries of the world is placed at: Gold, $3,221,000,000; full legal tender silver, $2,155,000,000; limited tenders, $423,000,000; total specie, $5,799,000,000.

As there are about 1,500,000,000 of people in the world, it follows that if the cash in coin and paper was equally divided every man, woman and child would have nearly $7. So when you have a gold eagle you have $3 more than your share. It is a great mistake to suppose that the world owes any one a living.

Confederate Clothes. During the war homespun dresses were a good deal used in Virginia country.

The men of the confederacy, those in the army, at least, cared much better with respect to clothes than the women did.

Merchants as well as individuals would occasionally receive goods through the blockade, but these were scarcely opened before their eager customers would seize on them.

But the rest is too full of personalities for repetition. Such transformations and metamorphoses were the order of the day during the war.

A very prevalent fashion in confederate days was what was called Garibaldi bodies. These were gathered full on the shoulders beneath a band.
