There will be a game of cricket Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the end of the green car line. All lovers of the game are invited to be present.

The third annual installation of officers of the Union Library association will take place this evening. An interesting musical and literary programme has been arranged for the occasion.

Dr. Wm. T. Harris has written Hon. C. A. Holmes, president of the Board of Regents, that he cannot accept the position of Chancellor of the State University on account of a literary engagement.

There was a heavy rain, accompanied by a lively electric display about 2:30 yesterday and mud reigned again. The weather clerk is demonstrating to our voters the necessity for carrying the paying bonds.

There will be a meeting of the Omaha Hod Carriers' Protective Union, Friday evening, June 30th, at 7:30 sharp, in Firemen's hall, corner of 16th and Farman. All mortar makers and hod carriers in the city are requested to be present. By order of the corresponding secretary.

The case of the City vs. John Svachna was called in the district court yesterday but the defendant was not present, and it was stated in court had probably gone off on a summer trip. Hon. Chas. Ogden, representing the city, asked that Svachna's bond be forfeited. The judge gave the absent prisoner until 1:30 to show up, and said he would try the case then or forfeit the bond.

For the first time in the history of the county clerk's office, the deeds are all recorded up to date, one of the deputies being at work on the last one when the register called yesterday. They are still to be compared, however, which will occupy some little time, so that parties having deeds there are not necessarily to imagine that they may call for them at once.

John Curry who is always in hot water, is again in trouble. Some time ago John leased the South Bend stone quarries from one Sweeney, for a term of ninety-nine years. He failed to comply with the conditions of the contract, and Sweeney took possession of them. Yesterday John and his legal advisor, J. A. Marshall, repaired to the scene of the trouble, with a view to ousting Sweeney by legal means if possible, and by force, if necessary.—Lincoln Journal.

The citizens of Lincoln are trying to invent a storm signal for night time, to warn people of approaching tornado, and it is proposed to toll the bell. In case they do this it would be well to put in the ground a good arrangement between the bedrooms and cellars, and then the spectacle of sliding down greased poles every time the fire bell rang would at least be "amusing."

It keeps the boys busy at No. 3 engine house busy after every rain cleaning out the fund which pours through the seams and cracks of the old hulk in the stream. It is a disgrace that for the boys to say nothing of providing for proper care of the costly apparatus. They had to build a big fire in the stove yesterday to dry the floor out a little.

In Judge Lippincott's court a warrant was issued for Phineas Washington, on the complaint of Thomas Murray, who charges him with the theft of twenty-five cords of wood and one hundred and twenty-five pounds. Murray and the officer went to serve the papers and didn't find the defendant at home. They had left their wagon at the gate, and on returning and starting to drive off the wheels fell off and

HEADLIGHT CLEAMS.

Omaha Men Getting Away With the Iowa Pool.

New Fast Trains Between Omaha and San Francisco.

Milwaukee Rejected Over Her New Connection with the Gate City.

There is just a little ripple of disturbance in the Chicago and Iowa railway pool. It is caused by the discovery of a contract for the transportation of gas-coal and water-pipe from Cincinnati to Omaha. It is claimed that the Rock Island has contracted to carry the freight. Some say that the contract is to run for a year. It is charged that the freight already forwarded under the contract has been way-billed through from Cincinnati to Omaha. This fact has been regarded by the other members of the pool as evidence of a pro-rating arrangement, and therefore, a violation of the pooling agreement. The pro-rating of the through rate, which is claimed, is equivalent to a "cut." It is understood that the officers of the Rock Island invite the closest scrutiny into the contract. This matter was looked for investigation at a meeting called for yesterday at the office of Commissioner Daniels. The unavoidable absence, however, of one or two officials compelled a postponement until to-day, when the matter will be considered by the general managers. The general freight agents of the line into the pool were in session the greater part of the afternoon, engaged upon routine matters of no public interest.—Times.

FROM OMAHA WESTWARD.

The subject of a through fast mail service between New York and San Francisco will soon be put into practical effect, as will be seen by the following from a Chicago exchange:

"The arrangements were completed yesterday for running a fast mail train between New York and Chicago. Orders were received from W. B. Thompson, superintendent of railway mail service, to begin preparations at once for scheduling the train. The government officials will like to have the arrangement take effect on July 1, but it is doubtful if the scheduling can be completed before July 10. The action of the post-office department in ordering the immediate inauguration of the service between New York and Chicago indicates that arrangements have been concluded with the Union Pacific railway company for a fast train service from Omaha westward. Negotiations to that end have been in progress for a week or ten days. The roads between Chicago and the Missouri river, as well as underfoot, have refused to run a fast train for mail purposes, as such an arrangement would be in conflict with the spirit of their pooling arrangement."

MILWAUKEE'S JOY.

There is much rejoicing in business circles in Milwaukee and Chicago, that the Council Bluffs extension of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road is completed, the silver spike being driven Wednesday afternoon. This gives Milwaukee a complete through line to Omaha, and also affords a new and direct line from Chicago to Omaha. In an interview, General Manager Merrill stated that the new line would be open to both freight and passenger traffic as soon as the track could be properly adjusted and everything got in readiness. Business men in Milwaukee anticipate great advantage to general trade from this new and direct route to the Missouri river and connection with the Union Pacific at Omaha. A chief advantage is in the affording of a new route to connect with the Union Pacific and the great northwest.

A SERVICE TO BE HELD.

The Chicago and Northwestern railroad has given notice to the Colorado Traffic Association that they will remain in the pool until September first. This action keeps the pool alive for some time yet. It was expected to fall to pieces to-day.

PAVING POINTS.

The Advantage of Carrying the Bonds To-Day.

It Will Enhance the Value of All Property in the City.

Some designing parties in the northern section of this city, are circulating all sorts of reports concerning the paving proposition with the view of causing its defeat.

They represent for instance that the bonds to be voted will pay for paving the business streets and relieve the property owners of the tax, while owners of outside property will not be benefited.

They also assert that the $100,000 of bonds will only pave two or three of the principal business streets and leave the rest of the town no better off than before.

For the general information of our citizens, we will state that the $100,000 which is proposed to issue, can only be used to pay for paving the intersection of streets and the space opposite alleys. The cost of paving the streets proper in front of each block will be assessed against the owners of property abutting thereon, and for this purpose $200,000 in short term bonds will be issued that will be a lien against the property on paved streets and will have to be assessed in five yearly installments.

The $100,000 which the city is to expend will pay for the paving of fifty intersections of streets with the best material. This will enable the city to pave Tenth street from the U. P. depot to Dodge, Harney, Farnam, Douglas and Dodge streets, from Ninth to Sixteenth inclusive, also Thirteenth street from the U. P. bridge to Dodge, and all cross streets between Ninth and Sixteenth, and Sixteenth street from Howard to the North Omaha creek bridge.

Now while this course will enhance the value of the principal business streets of Omaha, it cannot help but give stability to all the property to the city.

Supposing a million dollars were expended in improvements in the center of the city, does it not enhance the value of every dollar's worth of property in the city?

At 6 per cent the annual tax for interest on the $100,000 in bonds will be $6,000, which on a valuation of $6,000,000 in this city would amount to 10 cents for every $1.00 worth of property in the city, or $1 on every thousand. A man whose property is assessed at $1,000 will only pay $1.00 per year toward this paving.

On the other hand the paving of these streets will raise the assessed valuation of property in the city at least one million dollars, and the same value in a commercial case cannot be estimated.

SELF-MURDER.

A Disconsolate Carpenter Dies by a Dose of Laudanum.

A Successful Attempt at Suicide—The Coroner's Inquest.

A successful suicide was committed yesterday by a carpenter named William Babcock, about fifty-five years of age who boarded at Mrs. Cary's boarding house on the northwest corner of Eleventh and Davenport streets.

Babcock had been working at the Millard hotel and is said to have been a somewhat despondent man. Of late he had been rather despondent and made remarks that indicated his intention of self destruction. On one occasion he said it was just as well to be dead as alive.

Yesterday about noon the servant at Mrs. Cary's went to his room for the purpose of making his bed and found him still inside. He came to the door and asked her to bring him a glass of water, saying that he was not feeling well. She complied with his request, and nothing more was seen of him until about 8 o'clock last night, when one of the boarders named George L. Prentice, who was passing through the hall, heard a groan from the direction of Babcock's room. He called another boarder to his assistance and having secured a light, climbed up and peered through the transom and saw Babcock lying upon the bed, apparently insensible. A porter named George Maygood climbed over the transom and unlocked the door, when they entered and found the man in an apparently dying condition. Dr. Coffman was telephoned for and arrived about 9 o'clock, when he pronounced the man beyond all hope of recovery, and the patient died about 9:30.

Coroner Jacobs was notified and removed the remains to his undertaking room, where an inquest will be held at 10 o'clock this morning.

The suicide was committed by taking a dose of laudanum, the bottle being thrown outside of his window and being picked up on the ground afterwards. He is supposed to have a daughter in Chicago and a son somewhere on Sixteenth street, but there is nothing which would lead positively to their identity any further.

ARMY PROMOTIONS.

Two Officers of the Ninth Infantry Who Will Receive Immediate Promotion.

A Washington dispatch to the Chicago Tribune of Tuesday says that the retirement of Col. John D. Wilkins, which will take place as soon as he is confirmed to the command of the Fifth infantry, will cause the following promotions: Gen. John H. Mason, lieutenant colonel of the Twentieth infantry; to colonel of the Fifth infantry; Gen. Charles G. Bartlett, major of the Eleventh infantry, to lieutenant colonel of the Twentieth infantry; Maj. Andrew S. Burt, captain of the Ninth infantry, to major of the Seventh infantry; First Lieut. Morris C. Foote (a nephew of Gen. Henry W. Wessels) to captain of the Ninth infantry. Lieut. Foote is adjutant of the regiment, and no vacancy for first lieutenant is created unless a first lieutenant, or else the senior second lieutenant, or Thomas S. McCaleb is appointed adjutant.

Major Burt will be remembered by many friends in Omaha, where he was stationed for a number of years prior to his removal to Chicago.

Lieut. Foote is at present regimental adjutant of the Ninth infantry and has been for several years past the ranking first lieutenant of his regiment. Lieut. Foote saw active service during the war and subsequently spent some years in Alaska in command of a detachment of troops at Sitka. His promotion will probably result in his removal from Ft. Omaha to some of the frontier posts which will be no less sincerely greeted by a host of army and civilian friends than by Lieutenant Foote himself.

Mouell.

There were thirteen toasts, all appropriate to the occasion and responded to by the most distinguished members of the craft.

The exercises did not terminate until about 1 a. m., but the hours passed very quickly by and the "Table Lodge" was certainly a great success. The pressure on our columns prevents the publication of the proceedings in full, which will be done to-morrow morning.
