FOREIGN NEWS.

THE IRISH OBSTRUCTIONISTS.

LONDON, July 1.—Parnell and the thirteen Irish members named by the speaker of the house of commons at 10 o'clock this morning for obstruction, were all suspended and ordered to withdraw, by a vote of 129 to 125. The house of commons sat all night debating the repression bill, Gladstone and Hartington remaining. Thirty-two Parnellites pressed an endless number of amendments. Northeast supported Gladstone in a long speech, in which he urged the government to stop by any means obstruction by the Irish members which he said was disgraceful and insulting to British intelligence. At 9 a. m. Harcourt bitterly denounced obstruction. Parnell retorted strongly, and the speaker took the above action. Parnell and the thirteen suspended members left the house in a body. Going out O'Donnell and the speaker had words. The speaker reported them as insulting, and the house made the matter the subject of special consideration on Monday.

THE REMAINDER REMOVED.

LONDON, July 2.—After the passage of clause twenty of the repression bill relating to proclamation of districts, a number of the remaining Irish members made all manner of obstructive motions with a view of prolonging the session so it would run over into Sunday, thereby forcing adjournment without giving the house an opportunity of voting on the bill in committee. The chairman warned them if they persisted in their obstructive tactics they might expect the same punishment meted out to their colleagues this morning. To this several of the Irish members angrily retorted, saying as long as they were entitled to seats on the floor of the house they would use all parliamentary means within their province to prevent action by the house on any measure which they deemed unjust to their constituents. Dilatory motions still continuing, the chairman called attention of the house to the matter and nine more Irish members were suspended on account of obstructing the business of the house. The remaining clauses of the bill were rapidly proceeded with and the bill finally passed the committee of the whole. The committee then rose and the house immediately adjourned.

THOROUGHLY SARED.

The excitement in this city is intense. The action of the whig party in the house of commons against the Irish members is regarded as likely to produce disastrous consequences. This is the view entertained in club houses and cafe, in public conference and in private coteries. Everywhere the precipitate action of the majority is condemned, not perhaps from any love of the Irish members, but from the absolute fear of what may be the next revelation of the Irish disquiet. Men talk of the assassination system in Ireland defying official zeal and detection, and they know not how soon the system may find development in the heart of the city. Monday's proceedings in the case of O'Donnell and others will not remove or relieve the dissatisfaction.

EVILS ON EVERY SIDE.

The disquieting news from Egypt in conjunction with the unsettled condition of affairs at home on the Irish question, makes the opening of the present week a period of unusual tension. The principal topic to-day is the suspension of the Irish members, and opinion is divided on the wisdom of so precipitate a course on the part of the government at the present time. The suspension of Parnell and associates created intense excitement in Ireland, not equalled since the Phoenix Park assassinations. Mass meetings are being organized to denounce as arbitrary and tyrannical the application of the gag law in the commons, depriving Irish members of the exercise of their parliamentary functions.

PARNELL IS OF THE OPINION that the suspension of Irish members was premature. Many members of both sides of the house, he says, are of the opinion that the Irishmen have been unfairly treated. He considers Dr. Playfair blundered prematurely in the matter of suspension in the confusion. After the suspension, Parnell approached Playfair and denied the truth of Lyon's statements. Playfair, after some hesitation, admitted that Parnell had not obstructed the bill or spoken much on it, but he belonged to the party and he (Lyon) considered himself entitled to include him in the suspension. Parnell took the part of the colleagues.

PUSHING THE BILL.

LONDON, July 3.—It was announced this morning that the government determined that the house of commons shall set from to-night until Gladstone's motion, which he will offer this evening, that rules for urgency be accepted to expedite the passage of the repression bill.

The Indian government suspended an order to transport two and one-half million gallons of petroleum illegally landed and stored on the banks of Hoogly river.

IN EGYPT.

Dispatches received to-day from Alexandria represent the condition of affairs as by no means improved since the general exodus of Europeans. There are now comparatively few Europeans in the city or surrounding districts. All valuables have been removed and the banks are closed, having transferred their funds and records to safe quarters in anticipation of possible raids. Thousands of idle and destitute Arabs, of all ages and both sexes, are flocking into the city daily. Many able bodied men have gone into Arab's service. Fully 50,000 have entered Alexandria since the exodus of Europeans began, and the townspeople are now confronted with the necessity of feeding and sheltering this HUNGRY MULTITUDE.

DRAFTS ORDERED BY ARABIAI BAY

are being put in operation very generally among the villages along the coast, and will result in immediately adding 12,000 recruits to the present army. In many localities resistance was encountered. Despite the assurance of Arabi, the pronounced sympathy of the British government, and the fact that the efforts of the Ulemas of Cairo, the troops are depressed and enter with but little spirit into the operations now being conducted against the Suez canal.

ENGLAND'S PROPOSITION.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 2.—It is announced this evening unofficially that England proposed to the conference that a strong Turkish military force should go to Egypt to settle affairs in that country, but stipulated that a number of English and French officers should be allowed to accompany the expedition to supervise the regulation of affairs and to protect the English and French interests in that country, claiming such adjuncts to the Turkish army would be a guarantee that the statute quo would be maintained in Egypt.

THE CONFERENCE.

The conference held a session to-day, and resumed discussion of Turkish occupation of Egypt. The session developed strong differences of opinion as to the advisability of Turkey taking such a step, but no decision was reached. An early break up of the conference is probable.

ARABIAI PROGRAMME.

ALEXANDRIA, July 2.—This evening an important session of the ministerial council was held, during which the military situation was carefully discussed. The ministers of finance and public works strongly opposed the proposition made by Arabi Bey to levy on masses of all able bodied men of the population for the purpose of re-equipping the army. Heads of other departments took an active share in the discussion, but no decision was reached. The unexpected opposition to Arabi's military programme increases the feeling of dissatisfaction among the populace, and makes the situation more grave.

INDIAN TROOPS.

LONDON, July 2.—A Bombay dispatch says that extensive preparations are going on there with a view to sending a military force to Egypt. A number of transports have been put in readiness and will sail within a few days.

BRITISH TROOPS IN EGYPT.

ALEXANDRIA, July 1.—Preparations have been made to concentrate in Egypt 12,000 British troops from the Bombay service. It is believed that Fenian emissaries assisted Arabi Bey in fomenting the anti-English feeling. The Ulemas of Cairo is ordered to raise a war loan from the mosque revenues.

ITALY ON EGYPT.

ROME, July 1.—Moncini, minister of foreign affairs, informed the senate that Italy sympathized with the national element of Egypt; also that a conference of the powers at Constantinople would settle the question neutralizing the Suez canal.

THE FEELING IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 2.—A prominent Irish nationalist said to-day the suspension was only until Monday, and out of it will come more trouble for England. There is plenty of room for trouble in the suspended members being absent from the house during the night. The movement, however, calls for no Irish-American action now. Local land leaguers believe the suspension will increase the determination of nationalists to emphasize the union in the land league. Mrs. Parnell said to-night she regarded the suspension as an evidence of Gladstone's great flight.

Probably fifty thousand workingmen will turn out to hear Michael Davitt at Union Square Friday evening.

Coalville Cycloned.

PITTSBURG, July 2.—The town of Coalville, Butler county, was swept Friday night by a cyclone, demolishing nearly every building in the place. A baby was carried 500 feet and dropped in a fence corner, where it was found dead. Henry Henly was killed and about fifty others injured. The village is located about forty miles east of the Shenango & Allegheny railroad. The track of the storm was only about one-quarter of a mile wide and ten miles long, but in that territory great damage was done. In the county adjoining the village many houses were blown down, but as far as can be ascertained, no one was hurt. The principal portion of the ruin wrought was in the town of Coalville itself.

Altogether about fifteen houses were wrecked and from twenty-five to thirty persons killed or injured. In the track of the storm there is scarcely a tree left standing, great trunks being twisted of like pipe-stems and in some instances carried hundreds of yards. The loss will probably exceed $75,000.

TELEGRAPH NOTES.

Nine deaths from excessive heat occurred in New York during the week.

Henry Leichtenstein, a young man of 111 Union street, Brooklyn, died from excessive cigarette smoking, Saturday.

Two edifices of Guiteau were discovered hanging to telegraph poles in Williamsburg, N. J., Saturday. They were taken down by the police.

Recently a stock raiser of Illinois chartered the steamship France in New York call at Havana and had seventy-five Normandy goats for breeding purposes. R. Dillon & Co., Bloomington, also chartered a steamer to bring twenty-five. They cost $1,000 and in New York several explosions occurred in a number of buildings near the mouth of the Chesapeake, near Highbridge, New York, Saturday, caused by factors setting fire to a keg of gun powder. The buildings were demolished, John Patterson, a working man, was killed, Ira Case, Martin Grant and several others were injured. The damage to the buildings is $12,000.

Nine hundred and twenty-four immigrants landed at Castle Garden Saturday. The steamship Celtic brought 639, Egyptian Minerva, 321. Total arrivals June this year, 74,899; same month last year, 39,739; during the first six months of the present year, 378,340; last year same period, 211,823. The steamship Nevada with 860 Normandy converted in different parts of Great Britain is hourly expected.

Michael J. Davitt received a genuine Irish shawl at Providence, R. I., Saturday. The rain fell in torrents, and a sharp thunder shower prevailed. In spite of the inclemency a large number of people assembled greeted him. He spoke on the occasion July 1st passed in the house of commons Saturday, and condemned the bill as an attempt to gag the measure, extolling Parnell, and appealing the audience to sustain the land league.

Labor Strikes.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The freight handlers strike to-day shows some signs of early termination, although the railroad officers were very reticent about any contemplated concessions. The fund of the workmen's union is progressing favorably and every day augments it. They can hold out a week yet without encroaching on it. Order prevails on both sides of the river and the strikers have not attempted any interference with green hands. Special policemen almost all have been withdrawn and steamboat regulars remain to preserve order. Railroad indications are that the old hands will be at work by Wednesday at the rates demanded. In Jersey City, freight handlers claim that they have been offered nineteen and one-half cents per hour to return to work, but have refused to work for less than the original demand, twenty cents.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The brakemen's strike on the New York Central railroad is cooled markedly, the company allowing $2 a trip.

Howard's Crookedness.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Special Agent Brackett began the investigation of charges against importer James O. Howard, lately of Ohio, yesterday. The charges are alleged malfeasance and corruption in office. The most serious charge is the decision of appraiser in the Apollinaris water cure, which he first declared not dutiable and subsequently dutiable. It is charged $30,000 was paid in the case through the hands of the importers.

Demolished by Giant Powder.

HIGHBRIDGE, N. J., July 1.—The building attached to the Chester Iron mines was destroyed by an explosion of giant powder. John Patterson was killed, and Ira Camore and Moses Galt fatally injured. The building was owned by Mallery Conley. Loss, $12,000.

Death of a Victim.

LONG BRANCH, July 1.—Wm. R. Garrison died at 9:30, the result of the railroad accident at Parkers' Creek on Thursday.

A Huge Joke.

FORT SNELLING, Dakota, July 1.—The military authorities here state that the reported massacre of a party of colonists in Park county by a band of Indians, under the leadership of Chief Drifting Goose, turns out to be a practical joke gotten up for merely sensational purposes by a party of disguised colonists and land hunters.

Indications.

For the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, partly cloudy weather, with local rains, warm southern winds, falling barometer, generally followed by rising barometer, and colder northwest winds. The Ohio river will continue rising.

Fowler, consul at Trinidad; John N. Klapp, collector of internal revenue, 24th district New York. Eight 34 lieutenants in the army promotions and several in the pay department of the navy, a number of postmasters in New York state, Massachusetts and Connecticut were also confirmed.

BURIAL OF GUILTEAU.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The services at the funeral of Guiteau were very simple. No W. was permitted to be present, except members of the family, the warden of the jail and the undertaker and his employees. The funeral services were held at 4 p. m. yesterday in the chapel of the jail. The body lay in a coffin on the table where the autopsy had been made. The remains appeared about as on Friday, except there was slight discoloration at the temples, where the scalp had been turned over the face while the brain was being removed. Otherwise there was nothing in the appearance of the face of the corpse to indicate the fact that the autopsy had been made. The only persons present besides the necessary employees were John W. Guiteau, Mrs. Scoville, Miss Chevalier, Rev. Hicks and Gen. Crocker. Dr. Hicks read a passage of the Scripture and offered prayers. Members of the family then took a last look at the remains. Mrs. Scoville, though much affected, bore the ordeal with considerable firmness. The coffin was then closed, and the remains were removed by the undertaker and assistants to the northeast corridor of the jail, where a portion of the stone floor had been taken up and a grave dug. There were no services at the grave, and Miss Chevalier and Mrs. Scoville did not attend the burial. The coffin was lowered into the grave in the presence of Rev. Hicks, John W. Guiteau and Warden Crocker. The grave was then filled, the stones replaced, and the little party of witnesses of the last act of the tragedy returned to the city.

HICKS' HARANGUE.

The Rev. Hicks preached to-day on the subject of the pardoning power of Christ, and said that Christ was able and willing to pardon even the greatest of criminals. While he did not mention the name of Guiteau, or speak directly of the events of the past week it was clear his whole discourse referred to them. He said, among other things, if Christ was now on earth his life would not be spared by the people a single week.

HOUSE WORK.

It is expected the house will finish its work on all appropriation bills this week, except so far as relates to action upon the senate's amendments. To-morrow will be "individual suspension day," and it is expected a large number of bills will be passed under suspension of the rules. Bingham will try to secure final action on the bill adjusting salaries of letter carriers. Tuesday and Wednesday will be devoted to discussion of the naval appropriation bill. The sundry civil appropriation bill will probably be disposed of by the end of the week. Earnest efforts are being made to secure a reduction of before adjournment. A circular will be prepared to be placed on the desk of each member, setting forth that sugar is an article of prime necessity to every one; that the present tax is excessive, onerous, unnecessary, and leads to adulteration, not necessary either for protection of Louisiana planters or revenue, and that a reduction would be felt in every household.

A MEMORIAL.

The corner stone of the Garfield

Memorial church, on the site of the Christian church, where Garfield worshipped, was laid at 6 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of an eager audience, including many members of congress. The opening prayer was by Rev. Dr. Butler, of the English Lutheran church, followed by addresses by Rev. Dr. Power, pastor of the Christian church; President Hinsdale, of Hiram college; Congressman Pettibone and Willis. Touching references were made to the death of Congressman Hawk, who was one of the trustees.

CONGRESS.

National Associated Press. SENATE PROCEEDINGS. WASHINGTON, July 1.—Consideration of the legislative appropriation bill was resumed. Senator Beck became excited during the discussion on amendments and announced his resignation from the appropriations committee. The senate passed the legislative executive and judicial appropriation bill. The deficiency bill was then taken up and one-third completed when the senate went into executive session, and when the doors opened adjourned.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

The house unanimously adopted a joint resolution authorizing the secretary of the treasury to issue two hundred million two per cent bonds, including the construction of new war vessels and completing unfinished monitors, but it was not acted on. The bill removing the export tax on tobacco passed.

A message was received from the president vetoing Deuster's bill for the protection of emigrants. The president in his veto says the wording of the bill is such that it will make the transfer of emigrant passengers by steamships, as they are now built almost impossible, and urges that proper corrections be made, as he recognizes the great necessity of a bill of this nature. Adjourned at 4:45 p. m.

Public Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The public debt statement shows a reduction for the month of $12,560,036.70 and for the year, $151,654,351.26.

CRIMINAL NEWS.

NEW YORK, July 2.—William Daly, arrested for drunkenness, when brought before Justice Gardner of the tombs court, said he wanted a pistol to shoot Gen. Grant, so that his name would be recorded in history as a great man.

THE CRAMERS.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Edward Cramer, brother of the murdered girl, Jennie Cramer, and who resides in New York, stated yesterday he was not surprised at the acquittal of the Malloyes. He commented strongly on the latitude allowed the jury in coming and going from the court room as they pleased. He believes the Malloy boys will go to Pennsylvania while still the affair blows over. He watched for their arrival on the trains here yesterday. He hinted that the case would come up in another form, and the inference was that in some way his sister's death would be avenged. He left last night for New Haven, intending that his visit meant business.

Mrs. Cramer, Jennie Cramer's mother, is dissatisfied with the acquittal of the Malloyes and Blanche Douglas. If she were a man, she says, she would whip Mr. Jones of the counsel for the defense, for making such statements about Jennie as he did in the argument. Blanche Douglas says she will reform. James Malloy, jr., will remove to Wilkesbarre, Pa.; Walter Malloy will join his father in business in New Haven.

Sixth race, club race $300, all ages, three-quarters mile, was won by Good Night, Saunterer second, Tom Barlow third; time, 1:22.

A CHALLENGE ROW.

NEW YORK, July 2.—A race came off yesterday between two eight-oared shells, manned by Harvard and Columbia freshmen, on Harlem river, above High bridge and Gates dock, two miles below. In the wake was a stean tug laden with enthusiastic college boys and their lady friends. At the word "go" sixteen oars took water. From the start the white and blue striped Columbia led the blue capped Harvard, and despite the efforts of the latter kept their place in the van. As soon as observers from the Columbia boat house shouts of jubilation and successive cries of "Columbia" rent the air. The ladies were as enthusiastic as their escorts and wildly waved parasols and handkerchiefs in the air in approval of the prowess of their friends. Time, 10 minutes 56 1/2 seconds. The Harvard crew weighed 133 pounds, Columbia 136 pounds.

Pennsylvania Republicans.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—The official call for a meeting of the regular republican state committee, July 19th, to consider measures for harmonizing the two wings of the republican party, was issued yesterday afternoon. The independent leaders reject all idea of compromise based on anything less than the absolute withdrawal of the Cameron ticket. It is admitted that the high standing of the democratic nominees has created a feeling among the rank and file of both republican factions that something must be done before the campaign open to unite both parties on one ticket. This feeling is so general among independents that it is tolerably certain the end will be accomplished.

ROUND TO HARMONIZE.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—It has developed that all nominees of the regular republican convention are willing to withdraw if such a step is necessary to unite the two wings, and if independent republican nominees also take the same step. In such event a new convention representing both wings would be called. Gen. Beaver earnestly favors some such course. A wide-spread feeling prevails that Deaver and Stewart will be withdrawn and Attorney General Brewster substituted as a harmony candidate. It is expected the feeling will take tangible shape in a few days.

RAILROAD NEWS.

The Sunday Celebration in the World On Wheels.

There was a general break up on the various railroads leading to this city yesterday, disasters by flood, and by field being confined to no one line but hitting nearly all.

The trains from the east arrived at the Transfer very late, the Rock Island not getting in until 1:30 p. m. The Union Pacific mail train did not leave for the west until 2:15 p. m., two hours late, and the regular train from the west was reported five hours late.

TELESCOPE.

The cause of the delay of the Rock Island train was learned from a passenger to be an accident which occurred near Des Moines Sunday at 2 a. m. The west bound passenger train was backing up to allow a freight train to get by on the main line and backed into the locomotive of another freight train which was standing on the track in the rear. There was an empty coach on the rear of the passenger train and it telescoped with the freight engine, fatally wounding the engineer. Had not the empty coach been attached several Pullman passengers must have suffered the consequences.

ON THE NORTHWESTERN.

A bridge was washed out near Dixon and the train due Saturday at the transfer arrived yesterday twenty-four hours late. All passenger trains were abandoned on Saturday.

OTHER BOATS.

The C. B. & Q. was running all right but the flood on the Washburn continued to delay trains. The Union Pacific train, No. 4, was delayed by a serious washout of the track near Ogallala.

MISSOURI PACIFIC.

The Missouri Pacific opens up for business to-day, the first train, No. 2, leaving this morning at 7:45. The evening train, No. 4, goes out at 7:20. Train No. 2 arrives at St. Louis at 5:52 p. m. the next day. No. 4 leaves St. Louis at 8:52 a. m., and reaches Omaha at 6:35 a. m. the next day. Trains Nos. 3 and 4 carry mail, and trains Nos. 1 and 2 have combined baggage and smoking cars, two day coaches and a Pullman sleeper. The mail trains will consist of a baggage car, combined mail and smoker, and two day coaches.

A new edition of the U. P. time schedule, No. 35, was issued yesterday, to accommodate the running time of their trains to those of the new road. There is no change in U. P. passenger trains, except that the Denver express leaves at 7:40 p. m., five minutes later than formerly.

The Iron Horse.

John Saunders, of the Hastings eating house, takes the railroad hotel at McCook. Three car loads of ties for the Y arrived the fore part of the week. If the company don't forget it, we think they will get to work some time soon. A lot of slides inspected this week.—Blue Springs Motor.

If Greeley county doesn't get the promised "Y" there is some talk of making an effort to establish a railroad running through the county north and south, touching at O'Connor and Scott.

The "sand fences" erected along the line of the railroad in Colorado between Akron and Beaver are said to fall short of answering the purpose for which they were put there, and sheds similar to the sand fences are said to be under construction. A train which recently started east from Denver is said to have been three hours running 15 miles, on account of the blowing sand, causing hot boxes and otherwise hindering its progress.—Arapahoe Mirror.

THE SAENGERFEST.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—The fifth and last prize concert of the Saengerfest at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon was a success. The judges' awards will be made Monday. Germania members of Baltimore and Richmond, were entertained at a grand banquet at Fairmont Park last night by the Philadelphia Maennerchor. All other New York, Brooklyn and Baltimore visiting societies were feted by the local saengerbands last evening.

CHAMPION ATHLETES.

NEW YORK, June 2.—In the American athletic club yesterday afternoon Meyers beat the best record of 1:14 for 600 yards run; time 1:11. The swimming race between Geo. H. Wade, of Brooklyn, and Capt. Mathers Webb, of England,
