

POETRY OF THE TIMES.

Parting. If thou dost bid thy friend farewell, But for the night thought that farewell may be...

At the End of Life. So many years I've gone this way, So many years I must confess...

Season Hints. In the country summer dews O'er the fields at night are falling...

Kissed Her, Anyway. Her lips were cherries ripe together, I wished to harvest them!

HONEY FOR THE LADIES. Vandyke red is in high fashion this summer...

Efforts are being made in Paris, as well as London, to introduce the fashion of wearing the hair short...

Blue with brown is a fashionable contrast of colors in imported dresses...

This is from Utah: "There are herds of women in shaker or slit sunbonnets and calico dresses..."

The latest Parisian caprice in gloves are kids, undressed or dressed, of a pale pink, just the shade of the flowers of the ground-squirrel...

A strange woman met a little girl in Rondout and asked her if she didn't want a nice doll...

The charming fashion of wearing wash dresses of pattern materials has brought out painted muslins for the hot summer days...

An exquisite new fabric known as Fleur de Te is a sheer lawn, as transparent as gauze, and crinkled like crêpe...

Some very attractive bathing suits, we are told, have already appeared at Atlantic City. This probably means that those who live in dread of laundry bills when summer dresses need to be "done up..."

Some German underwear is the very latest, and is patented a line of underwear manufactured from this porous substance...

night's series of evening concerts in Milwaukee, and at their close will go on to Chicago, where he will give evening concerts in the Exposition Building...

A Berlin manufacturer has constructed an upright piano to a new system. Instead of being parallel to each other, the keys are arranged in a fan-shaped form...

It was announced some time ago on good authority that London was to be the scene of a theatrical season...

The veteran John Gilbert said recently: "The stars were lower than you are now; there is no life, no art, no promise in it; everything about it is wrong and disgraceful..."

The musical sensation of London is Vladimir Pachman, a young Russian pianist, who has clearly turned the heads of the critics...

Three Mohammedan Moslems have appeared—one in the Sudan, one in Alexandria, one in Tripoli.

The Unsectarian Church of Divine Gifts is the title of a new denomination in Brooklyn, whose leader, Dr. Monck, professes to cure disease by laying on of hands...

Notwithstanding all the troubles of the Jews in Europe the Jewish community at Berlin is efficiently well off to spend $25,000 on structural alterations on the old synagogue...

The clothes communion Baptists are those who meet together to compare dress finery.

Eighty-six out of 102 converts made during a religious excitement in Lexington, Mass., last March are listed as having gone back to the bad...

And now some fellow has discovered that a woman has got ahead of John the Baptist. It has always been that way ever since there were Baptists.

A young man named Orion has lately been ordained as a minister. Whenever he undresses himself before his auditors, he will doubtless move them to tears.

Ten Hogan, the reformed prize-fighter and gambler, is trying to reclaim the wicked people of Chicago. He has been laboring earnestly and faithfully for six months, yet he has hardly made an inroad upon the host of that wicked city.

The celebrated race-horse Blackburn, was sold for breeding purposes last Saturday, and on Sunday Fox Blackburn, of Kentucky, the man after whom he is named, joined the Episcopal church in Louisville. The entire Blackburn family is now off the turf.

A clergyman says that the door of the circus is the gateway to Hades. The Boston Post says that depends a good deal on whether you're going in to see the show or coming out to face the stern realities of life.

A new oration basket has been invented which rings a gong every time a button without an eye or a 10-cent piece with one is dropped into it.
