

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Monday Morning, July 10.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 20 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per Year. Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTIONS.

Go to Herzman for bargains. Sherraden makes photographs. For SALE--A fresh milk cow with calf. L. W. TUTTLE. Not even a drunk run in by the police Saturday night.

The outgoing train this afternoon is over the Chicago & Rock Island. Herzman will sell store and dwelling. The Ancient Order of United Workmen meet this evening.

Franklin avenue is reported as in a horrible condition on account of washouts. The hotels report travel as being very light.

Sherraden is the boss photographer. The laying of waterpipes continuing there having been already 40,000 feet put in place.

Joseph Reiter makes suits in the latest styles at 310 Broadway. Go to Herzman's before buying.

The trustees of the public library meet this afternoon at the rooms at 4:30 o'clock. Fine line of men's, boys and side saddles at Sherman's, 124 S. Main.

Herzman is bound to close out. This evening the Council Bluffs lodge K. P., No. 40 will elect and install officers for the ensuing year.

Two pickpockets from Demmon are now lodged in jail here, awaiting a trial. Jack White, the well known ex-deputy sheriff, expects to-morrow to "lay by" sixty acres of fine corn.

Quarterly meeting services were held yesterday at the Methodist church. Presiding Elder Hooker being present and officiating.

The city council meets this evening. Among the important questions to be settled is the proposed improvement of Indian creek.

The democratic county convention has been called to meet in this city Aug. 10th, to choose delegates to the congressional convention on the 31st.

George Shindele, a prominent cattle man and resident of this city, proposes the present season to build an elegant residence upon the three fine lots he owns on Avenue F.

It is stated that Linder & Kiel, since the passage of the prohibitory amendment, have decided to move their business to St. Paul.

Work has begun on the new school house in Hall's addition, under the contract given to Mr. Graes. John Weaver is to do the brick work.

The dog policeman is still at his deadly and mysterious work. Among the recent owners is S. S. Keller, who lost a dog valued at fifty $50. He, as well as others, are anxious to find out who the assassin is.

The excavation for Shugart's new block has been pushed along lively the past week, and this week the laying of the stone foundation will commence, a portion of the material being already here.

The board of trade meets this evening, and among the important matters to be discussed is the opera house scheme. This movement is one which should interest all so fully to ensure a large attendance and call forth a full and free discussion.

The number of these taking books from the public library is increasing, and yet there are many more who should avail themselves of this free chance to secure good reading. The tax-payers contribute cheerfully to sustain this enterprise, and the privileges thus freely offered should be so prized that many should avail themselves of them at least.

The Chicago & Northwestern railway company has begun its work of raising its tracks, yards, etc., so as to be out of the reach of high water. The bridge will also be raised, which will be quite an improvement, as it has proved so low as to make it a dam to the flow of the creek in high stages of water.

The much talked of race, announced long since to come off at the driving park between Ira Plattner's H. mestretch and Bill Cuppy's Lizzie, still hangs fire. They each contend that the other is playing foul. When will Robert Percival call the race? That's the question which many are asking.

The lawn party given by the ladies of the Episcopal church at Judge James' home on Friday evening, proved highly successful and enjoyable. The lawnlighted with Japanese lanterns, headlights, etc., and thronged with gay groups, presented a charming appearance, while booths here and there proved attractive resorts, and the tempting tables were liberally patronized.

The wires for the new electric fire alarm have been stretched, and the boxes will soon be in position, so that the system can be put in active operation. The only criticism thus far heard on the work is that the wires in some places are too low, so that they will almost interfere with a man on top of a load of hay, and also interfere with any building being moved.

The recent rains have left Oakland avenue in a bad condition. As that is the road over which the morning ones are compelled to carry their dead to their last resting place, its present condition is such as to present the liability of some most shocking accident. The residents, too, are anxiously asking how long before the city fathers will remedy the present defects caused by washouts.

The prohibitions are to hold their meeting to-night at Bloom & Nixon's hall, for the purpose of considering ways and means for making the amendment of practical effect. At the meeting last week, adjournment was taken until Tuesday evening of this week, but the committee learning that the working people were to hold a meeting to-morrow evening, concluded to change, so as not to conflict, and have hence fixed the date for to-night, and invite all citizens to attend, ladies as well as gentlemen.

The boys with the horns did themselves proud at Macedonia on the Fourth, according to the Tribune, which says: "Jerry's juvenile band also acquitted itself in a highly creditable way, won honors, and made many friends in this section of country. It furnished an abundance of choice music, and did it without any solicitations. The boys are all young, mostly in their teens, and Mr. Berry, an experienced teacher, deserves credit for the excellent way he has then drilled. The juveniles will always be welcome in Macedonia."

Dr. F. T. Seybert, who has lately taken up his residence in this city, has been elected medical examiner for the Council Bluffs Mutual Life Insurance association.

The city authorities have a puzzling problem on hand. There are many streets in the city which rains and flows of water have washed and gullied out badly, and which need prompt attendance and much expenditure of means. Then there is Union avenue still incomplete and useless, where thousands of dollars have been expended, lying there idle because unfinished. Even what work has been done is being and is not being washed out.

The present limited amount of cash, the problem as to how to provide the much needed remedies is one which takes wide heads to solve; yet prompt action is imperatively demanded. Much surprise is expressed by many that The Nonpareil should have allowed to appear in its local columns yesterday morning, such a garbled report of the 4th of July oration, delivered by J. Fred Myers. It is hard enough to have to report, to say nothing of having such a report of the speech appear in the columns of the very paper of which he is the chief editorial writer. There is some humor, however, in the fact that there lately appeared in the editorial columns, of which Mr. Myers has charge, a flattering notice of the oration delivered by Mr. Myers. It isn't known whether Mr. Myers had written it or not, but The Nonpareil printed it, and hence it is not now for the local columns to go back on it by presenting such a garbled report.

SNATCHED AT THE STATION. Various Items Caught Around Police Headquarters.

A girl giving her name as Clark arrived on Saturday from Glenwood, where she has been in attendance at the institution for the feeble-minded. She came here to spend the vacation with her mother, and being in charge of the conductor, that railway official turned her over to the police to guide her safely home. The police had much difficulty in accomplishing this duty, no one seeming to know anything about the girl's family, and no person of her mother's name being found. The girl herself was able to give very little information, her mental condition being sadly clouded. Toward the close of the day it was, however, ascertained that her mother's name was not Clark now, she having married again since the girl was sent to the institution. The mother was found under her new name, and the unfortunate child guided at last to her home.

There was a dearth of business for the police Saturday night, there not being even a drunk run in.

There was a little shooting scrape Saturday night, but no blood was shed, and the most sensational feature to it was the prominence of the party charged with the shooting, it being Mr. E. Krabe, an old and well-known resident. It appears that he has had much of late to worry and annoy him, his own house having been saddened by death snapping a link in the family chain, and several matters of outside business proving also perplexing to him. Among these is the condemnation of his property for street extension purposes, and the washouts which have occurred in the street in front of his house. The condition of this street has been such of late the lamp lighter in making his rounds on horseback has been riding of the sidewalk, instead of among the gutters in the roadway. Mr. Krabe has become irritated about this, and had forbidden the lamp-lighter from thus using his sidewalk. He had complained also to the authorities, but received no satisfaction. When the lamp-lighter appeared Saturday night, and drove over the sidewalk, Mr. Krabe took matters into his own hands, and foolishly blazed away with his revolver, but the target was not hit. Complaint was entered at the police station, and Mr. Krabe arranged to appear this morning in the superior court.

Allen Ross, charged with raping his step-daughter, was to have had his examination Saturday afternoon, but sought a continuance on the ground of wanting to get some witnesses here, and also that he was too ill to proceed with the examination. The court was busy with the trial of a civil case, and under the circumstances the examination to be set for next Wednesday. Ross speedily recovered from his illness as soon as the case was continued.

John Smith was complained of Saturday for not having common carrier's license. His case was set for to-morrow.

As Seen by Others. The Atlantic Telegraph in its last issue thus dips at The Register, and airs its views on the congressional contest:

The Register thinks the republican nominee in the Ninth district will be elected by 4,000 majority, and asks "the few republican voters who are, on account of personal enmities or personal disappointments, making the democrats hopeful and themselves ridiculous, to paste the statement in their hats." We are real glad that The Register has given an exact statement of the majority which it has decided shall be given in this district, for with a goodly number of voters the exact figures have been in doubt. If it wouldn't be too much trouble, The Register had better give its bond. This is a bonded district and we shall in all cases require a bond pertaining to our new politics to be in writing with a forfeiture clause. Will The Register go still further and tell a waiting public the majority the nominee will receive, provided he resigns his present office and John Y. Stone is appointed before election? We feel like saying to our friends of The Register, and all others concerned, that this is a free country and there are many republicans who do not like to take the medicine prepared by a few, without making emphatic protests. There are also those who intend to speak their minds no matter what abuse may come upon their heads for such conduct.

A Significant Fact. The cheapest medicine in use is THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL, because so very little of it is required to effect a cure. For rheumatism, dyspepsia, and diseases of the lungs and throat, whether used for bathing the chest or throat, for taking internally or inhaling, it is a matchless compound. July 4th

Colored Vocalists. There is a band of colored vocalists who have been training their voices until they have acquired much proficiency in choruses and serenades songs. Last Saturday evening they were out on a serenading trip, and visited the residences of a number of the leading citizens, discoursing sweet music, and winning much praise from those whose slumbers were broken into by the melody. Among other places visited was the residence of ex-Mayor Vaughan, who appeared at the front, and acknowledged the visit as follows:

FRUITS: Your beautiful vocal music carries me back to my old southern home, where the magnolia grows in abundance, and southern flowers add to the sweetness of the mocking birds. No manufactured music can compare with your notes of nature. I thank you friends for this beautiful serenade, and I regret that I have no wine in the house, or I would invite you in. May your lives be full of brightness and success. I bid you good night.

REMEMBER. Hon. C. H. Litchman, editor of The Essex Statesman, of Marblehead, Mass., will address the citizens of Council Bluffs in Bayless' park on Tuesday, July 11, at 8 p. m. Subject: THE RELATIONS OF CAPITAL AND LABOR.

Everybody should turn out and hear him.

Fraud. Tens of thousands of dollars are squandered yearly upon "snake-oil" quacks, who go from town to town professing to cure all the ills that our poor humanity is heir to. Why will not the public learn common sense, and if they are suffering from dyspepsia or liver complaint, invest a dollar in SPANISH BLOSSOM, sold by all druggists and endorsed by the faculty. See testimonials. Price 50 cents, trial bottle 10 cents. July 4th

PERSONAL. W. W. Magill and wife, of Cincinnati, were in the city over Sunday.

R. S. Oakley and wife, of San Francisco, spend Sunday in this city.

C. W. Cass, of Sandwich, Ill., was among the arrivals at the Ogden house yesterday.

George Phelps, of the Ogden house, is reported as gaining in health, and there are hopes of his full recovery.

A. McCurdy, an old and well known resident, has returned from Pennsylvania, where he has been visiting relatives and friends.

S. D. Hopkins and wife have at last broken their long residence in this city and departed for St. Louis, where Mr. Hopkins expects to engage in iron manufacturing of some kind.

C. F. Adams, of the firm of Myner & Adams, is enjoying a vacation by visiting Maine, and does not expect to return until September.

George Smith, of Smith & Lund, started yesterday for Minnesota, to look up a location for the firm of Smith & Lund. Neil Smith having bought out the interest of George in this firm, the latter will after his return prepare to go back to Denmark.

N. D. Sanford, a capitalist of Avoca, was in the city Saturday. He contemplates soon taking a trip to the Yellowstone country with his brother, intending to spend the summer there. He recently returned from Connecticut, where he left his daughters, Anna and Belle, to spend the summer on the seashore with their relatives.

Mrs. Boone, who has been such a popular saleswoman in Porterfield's store, leaves to-day for Dakota agency, about sixty miles beyond Yankton, where she is to engage in teaching in the government school. Her brother-in-law has been appointed the Indian agent there and she will make her home with his family, so that, while she will part with many friends here, she will not be altogether among strangers.

The Macedonia Tribune says of the Fourth of July oration there, delivered by J. N. Baldwin, of this city: "Mr. Clayton introduced Mr. J. N. Baldwin, of Council Bluffs, one of the most talented young men in western Iowa, who proceeded to deliver a masterly oration of about thirty minutes. The oration was one of the best we have ever listened to, and was highly spoken of by all. It was both logical and eloquent, smooth and forcible in its delivery. Mr. Baldwin is a natural orator, and with proper care of voice, will have a brilliant future."

Never to Arise too Maud. Thomas J. Luten, William street, East Buffalo, writes: "You see, I have been working on me splendidly. I had no appetite; used to sleep badly and get up in the morning unrefreshed; my breath was very offensive and I suffered from severe headache; since using your SPANISH BLOSSOM all these symptoms have vanished and I feel quite well." Price 50 cents, trial bottle 10 cents. July 4th

Thoroughly. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 16, 1880. H. H. WARNER & Co.: Sirs--Your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has thoroughly cured me of inflammation of the bladder. JOHN BARNDOX, July 4th

Wanted--A girl for general household work. Apply, Bee office.

JAIL OR NO JAIL. The Voters of the County to Decide by Ballot.

As already stated in THE BEE, the question of whether this county shall have a new jail is to be voted upon at the next general election, the present plans being for building one of the new rotary jails. The exact action of the board in the matter is given in the following resolution adopted by that body:

Be it enacted by the Board of Supervisors of Pottawattamie County, Iowa, That the following proposition shall be submitted to the legal voters of Pottawattamie county at the next general election, to-wit:

1. Shall the board of supervisors of Pottawattamie county order the construction of a county jail and sheriff's residence, according to the plans and specifications on file in the auditor's office, at a cost not to exceed the sum of $35,000. The contractors give bonds in the sum of $70,000 that the cost of the jail and residence (according to the plans as aforesaid) shall not exceed to the county the sum of $35,000.

2. Shall the board of supervisors of Pottawattamie county levy a tax of two mills on the dollar annually upon all the taxable property of said county for the years 1883 and 1884 to pay for the construction of a jail and sheriff's residence, and the purchase of ground necessary as above. Provided, 3. All votes in favor of said propositions shall be entitled, "For the construction of county jail," and all votes against said proposition shall be entitled, "Against the construction of county jail." And that the county auditor is hereby directed to cause the proper notices of the submission of said proposition to be duly published as provided by law.

CITY ICE CREAM PARLOR. A new stock of french Cream Confectionary just received at the fashionable ice cream, fruit and confectionery emporium of Smith & McCann, successors to Erb & Diquette, 404 Broadway.

Reminiscences of the War. Gen. Sherman generally feels pretty lively when he joins among his old "boys" and they are not in much awe of him, even if he is at the head of the army. At Baltimore the other day, one of them came up to him and holding out his hand, exclaimed: "Here's one of them old Eighth Missouri bunnies, General."

"Eighth Missouri; you don't say so! What in the world are you doing here," responded the General, warmly.

"There's no hogs about here, General," said the veteran.

Gen. Sherman looked at him with a quizzical air and said: "You boys gave me a great deal of trouble, General."

"But I made you fight like thunder," was the retort of the old commander, which raised a laugh.

Another veteran said to the general: "I have not seen you since the night you crossed the Mississippi at Hard Times."

"Were you there?" asked the general.

"Yes sir."

"Whom were you with?"

"I was in the commissary department, and you and your staff rode up half starved, and we fed you--on potatoes."

A feeble old soldier, in shaking hands with the general, remarked that the bean soup he was then eating was different from that they had at Carlisle, "for here," said he, "you couldn't have to dive for the bean."

"No," said the general, taking a big mouthful, "this is good."

"Been a long time since you ate it before, general, said another.

"No, I have it at home every day when I can get it."

Lynn, Mass., always was a good place for health, but it has become a modern Bethesda since Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of 233 Western avenue, made her great discovery of the Vegetable compound, or panacea for the principal ills that afflict the fair creation. This differs, however, from the ancient scene of marvelous cures in this important particular: The healing agent, with all its virtues, can be sent to order by express or mail all over the world.
