Buck, of Iowa college spent Sunday in this city and preached in the Congregational church in the morning, speaking in behalf of the college, the building having been destroyed by the terrible cyclone which swept through Grinnell. His own house was also totally wrecked, and he and his family had a narrow escape from death. He is remaining in the city for a day or two securing subscriptions for the college. He has some stereoscopic views of the college before and after the storm, as well as other views, which give one a very vivid idea of what desolation and ruin was caused to property in that locality. -Thomas Linden, the hotel man, was yesterday before Justice Abbott on a arge of assaulting and battering Patrick ination before Judge Aylesworth Gilmore and John Reynolds. Patrick and John served as their own attorneys to prosecute the case. The evidence showed that they were rather drunk and used abusive language at the dining table. Mr. Linden ordered them to desist, and they left for the bar-room, where they ordered more drinks. On being refused, they caught hold of Mr. Linden and tore his shirt, whereupon the latter pushed them away rather energetically, as would be natural under the circumstances. They then had him arrested for assault and bat, tery. Of course he was discharged.

-F. West, who has been at work on Mr. Everett's farm, was paid off Saturday, and, with over $60 in his pocket, indulged in pool playing until a late hour, when he sought a bed at Nels Anderson's boarding house. He slept in a room with two others, and when he awoke Sunday morning his pocket-book was gone. Yesterday he caused Anderson and two boarders, A. N. Anderson and Charles Eclenburgh, to be arrested and brought before Justice Abbott, but there was no evidence against them, and they were discharged. West claimed that some of his money was marked, and that he expected some of it would be found on the prisoners, but there was none. Mr. Anderson has not the reputation of keeping a crooked house, and there seems to have been no just reason in having him and his boarders ar-

Crowley seems to have got the worst of it, he have ing a badly swollen jaw, and having repeived a blow on the head which caused The Parents of the Babe Born not only an ugly cut, but a slight splintering of the skull, necessitating treatment by Dr. Hart. The trio were brought before Justice Abbott, who caused all three to be locked up in jail for a hearing to-morrow afternoon. Bruce was charged with assault with intent to commit great bodily harm, he being the one who struck Crow ley such a terrible blow. His bail was fixed at $300, which he was unable to furpish. Crowley and Smith were charged with taking part in the affray, their bail was fixed at $250, and they went to jail.

The Raising of Freight Rates Raises a Storm of Indignation.

The Citizens Object to the Unfair Treatment of Council Bluffs:

The action of the pool lines in making the freight rates to Council Bluffs the same as to Omaha has caused no little stir among the merchants and whirled along Broadway at a lively gait shippers of this city. This was to be expected. TWINS OF A KIND.

They Join in Grabbing a Grip and Divide its Contents.

Officer Edgar arrested a young mar named John Mane, for larcery, and vesterday aftern on he had his axamappears that John Main has been in the employ of J. McPherson and on Sunday his twin brother of Our ba came over here to visit him. They look just alike except that his brother has a scar on his face, and being so much alike they took a drink together, and then another, until both was alike drunk. on the Train Renew Their Journey.

Their Hard Experience While Laying Over in Council Bluffs.

About two weeks ago, as narrated THE BEE at the time, a babe was born on an incoming from the west. The father, Mr. John Kendrick, was on his was from San Francisco to New friends joined in paying their last lork with his wife and two children, tribute, as he was laid at rest. when this addition was unexpectedly made to his family. The condition of his wife was such that he was obliged to stop here until she gained strength enough to renew her journey. His stay here was not a very pleasant one in many respects. He was not prepared, financially, for any such emergency, and he and his placed among strangers in this condition were sub-jected to the treatment which might naturally be expected. He was in The Ber office yesterday, to say good-by before proceeding on his journey, and to proffer a request that The Ber express the thanks of himself and family to the Knights of Pythias, who rallied so promptly and generously to his assistance; to those ladies who showed such kindly sympathy and practical help; to Conductor Merpractical help; to Conduct born, and to others who had land in safety, but much exhausted and badly frightened. Barry struck by the kindness. Having promised a sand-bar on the way, and there restends a sand-bar on the way, and there restends a sand-bar on the way. to see that his expression of gratitude ed long enough to take off his clothes to these was duly made public, The and tie them on his back, and then BEE asked him about the more shady struck out for the shore. C. Harmen and less pleasant side of this experiences, it having been understood that, while he had occasion of gratitude to some, he had equal occasion for remembering others in not so pleasant a

Mr. Kendrick was quite free to state the facts. He said that Conductor Mercey Cowan, of the Union Pacific train, on which the babe was born was very kind, and did all in his trouble caused by the cat-fish came to were the same, while to Omaha it was from two to five cents per hundred dred and fifty miles, and arranging for more. This arrangement makes the the doctor's return home. When the with this good friend, who in return for the kindness he had shown the family requested that the babe should done, the babe being named Mercey Cowan Kendrick. The conductor told him to stay in the car, no matter who should order him out. On reaching this side of the river, about 2 o'clock in the morning, a man Gilbert, and who was an attache of the be worth as much to lay down car. Gilbert came back and tore side of the contest, and told Gilbert to attend to his own business and let them alone. As a result they remained in the car until morning. and he then moved his wife into the hotel.

Mr. Kendrick says they were put into a meanly furnished and unkempt freight made west of this point. A room, in which there was one bed for number of business men gave their his sick wife, his new born babe, his opinions of the matter, all deeming it two little children and himself, and unjust, and as tending to cripple the was told that the price would be $3 a After some discussion, Mr. Shugart and found that he could not himself offered the following resolution, which stand the fare, much less his poor wife. He claims that during this time the only kindly treatment he received from any of the employes was from the night clerk, Mr. Sprague, who as an exception to the rule. freight advances, and that they be seemed even over-anxious to do all in empowered to correspond by telegraph his power for him and his. In the or otherwise with pool lines, and that meantime Mr. Kendrick made his situation known to the Knights of Pythias, of which order he is a member, and they promptly came to his meeting pledge themselves to pay all relief. The proprietor of the Emigrant house received $15 for allowing them to occupy one room there five days, the amount of food being almost as nothing, Mrs. Kendrick being unable to eat hardly anything, and her husband taking meals elsewhere. His brother knights secured him a place in Dr. Way's house, and there the family has been very kindly cared for until now, the mother being able to move or, the whole family start again hoping this time to reach New York without further trouble. Mr Kondrick has been serving on he police force in San Francisco for a umber of years, and tiring of that life introds to settle down in New York ag in, and resume his trade, that of mamith. He is apparently very graneful indeed to have so kindly and generously assisted him and his, and feels equally bitter to those who have showe, in his judg ment, so little of the milk of buman says that emigrants are often misled on arriving here, about their journey, and that the apparent object of such deceit is to get patronage for the emigrant house. If such things are true, they ought surely to be remedied, and that right quickly. The city authorities have taken one move in the right direction by placing Officer Cusick there, one of the city's old police force, and if any one passing through the city has any grievance, it should be reported to that it may be adjusted at once. It is thought that the presence of an officer not in the employ of the Union Paci-fic Company will tend greatly to decrease the causes of complaint, and it seems to have worked so this far.

OBITUARY.

PHILLIP STAMBACK. On Saturday last Phillip Stamback departed this life at his home in this city, No. 313 Pierce street, aged 58 years. His death had been expected some time, as he had been a sufferer for many months. Although kind friends were using all means possible for his restoration the disease pro gressed rapidly. For a time he had an ardent desire to recover, but yet amid all his suffering he allowed not a murmur to escape his lips, and he submitted to the inevitable with calmness and resignation. His death is a ead blow to his wife and daughters. but they have the sympathy of many friends, and the consolation that the sufferer is now at rest. The remains were yesterday taken to Knoxville Ia., his former home, where many Trade Letter.

Brockton, Mass., July 13, 1882.

Z. T. Lindsey & Co., Council Bluffs, Ja .:

Dear Sirs :- Replying to your esteemed favor of the 5th inst, will say that it is a fact that the advance in the price of Calf Skins, Sole Leather, and most every kind of Shoe Stock, taken in connection with the adva- ce for labor we have been obliged to concede to workmen, has increased in no small degree the cost of manufacturing. Notwithstanding which fact we are pleased to say your order, given us early in the season, will be filled at the old prices; and we hope, by being diligently alive to the requirements of the demand for a really first-class article, to supply you with a BEITER line of goods than we have ever given you heretofore. Our purchase of both French and domestic Calf Skins, as well as a large supply of Oak-tanned Sole Leather, were made very early in the season which, being bought at former prices, relieves us in a great degree of the increased cost of production that many manufacturers are obliged to sustain in filling their orders taken early. Your whole order for the coming fall season is well in hand, and will be shipped at an early date. We desire to call the attention of those who use our goods, through the medium of your house, to our new styles in both Hand and Machine Sewed work. Our French, Medium French and London Toe goods are all made on entirely new lasts and new patterns, which we feel sure will meet with a just appreciation and the approbation of your customers. With the improvement we have made we expect to furnish a more nearly perfect fitting shoe than ever before. We assure you, gentlemen, that we will endeavor to give all your order our prompt and careful attention, and with these assurances we trust to merit the continuance of the many favors you have been pleased to bestow upon us, and, awaiting your further commands, we are
