LOCAL BREVITIES.

Another dispatch is received from Sidney stating that no trace of the whereabouts of Aust had been discovered. The Good Templars picnic at Hanson park to-day will commence at 8 o'clock p. m. and continue until 11 o'clock, at which hour special cars will be waiting. Supper from 6 to 7:30. Victoria Society will meet at Mr. Lively's, 1216 Capital avenue, to-day at 2 p. m. Every member is requested to be present; important business. An interesting meeting is expected. There will be responses and readings. Daniel J. Sweeney, who died of consumption, was buried Monday. The funeral cortege was very large and imposing, as his family are very widely known among the Catholic congregations of Omaha. This is a second son within a year who has passed away. The family have the sympathy of a host of friends. An Omaha man who signs himself "More Acon" writes the Bee that: "A certain employe of the U. P. shops, whose residence at present is in Chicago street, for some time past has been laundering and abusing certain young ladies of his acquaintance most shamefully, and if he does not take warning by this, he will feel the vengeance of an irate father." Mr. M. J. Merrill, who runs a flour and feed store on 12th and Farnham streets, had the item concerning the lost napkins returned Monday's Bee, and at once recognized the initials as those of himself and his late wife. He went to the drawer where they had been kept and discovered for the first time that they were missing, and went to claim them at police headquarters. The articles were especially prized as being among their wedding gifts and the latter being now dead. Captain Charles Hanley an old veteran and member of the G. A. R., as well as a prosperous grocery merchant on Tenth street, and for ten years freight master at the U. P. depot at the transfer, has determined to leave this state, not of Nebraska but of single blessedness and to take unto himself a wife. The lady is Miss Anna Nichol, the accomplished sister of Mr. J. I. Nichol, a well to do merchant on 15th street. The ceremony will be performed at St. Rhimona's cathedral on Thursday at 10 o'clock, and the church will doubtless be crowded with the friends of the happy couple. The Utah commissioners who held their meeting in Chicago the past week, have all returned to their homes. Ex-Senator Paddock returned home on Saturday. They left with the understanding that they would reassemble at Omaha on August 12 or 13, from which place they expect to go to Utah on the 15th. By that time they expect such supplementary legislation will have been passed by congress as shall more particularly define their duties and provide for the execution of them. After reaching Utah, the situation will be carefully surveyed and conference held with leading officials and citizens, preliminary to making a registration of voters and hold an election for new territorial officers. They are grading the alley back of the old court house. Judge Savage has formally resigned his post as a district judge. It is reported that the government will send out a party to look for the lost Wm. Aust. The Leavenworth Reds come to this city on Saturday to play the Union Pacific nine. The rumored accident to the C. & B. & Q. express, Saturday night, is said to be unfounded. In the police court yesterday Judge Benke sent two Shoumbs to the county jail and discharged a third. Trinity cathedral Sunday school and the missions will have their picnic on Thursday, at Hanson park. The Omaha and Council Bluffs telegraphers will play a game of base ball on Thursday afternoon at Council Bluffs. The return game of base ball between the Quakers and Clippers resulted in favor of the former by a score of 20 to 19. Uncle Sam's letter boxes, forty in number, have all received a bright new coat of green. The artist was Mr. T. P. Galligan. Mayor Bogert sent the secretary of the Omaha Glee Club a very handsome acknowledgment of the serenade they gave him recently. Henry Wilson was arrested by Officer Kieffer at 4 a. m. yesterday, with a sack containing three chickens in his possession. He is in jail. The condition of Mrs. J. Wickenberg, who was injured by the runaway on Sabbath afternoon, is not considered hopeful for her recovery. The secretary of the state board of agriculture, will open a state fair office on the first of September in the west room of the Paxton hotel. Ell. Sheridan and party, expected in Omaha yesterday on their way to the National Yellowstone Park, did not arrive

CITY COUNCIL.

The South Omaha Sewer Inspector Removed and a Successor Confirmed.

The Police Force to be Increased by Four Men.

The Ordinance Creating a Recording Clerk Set Down.

A Lot of Unimportant Routine Business.

At the regular meeting of the city council last evening there were present Messrs. Baker, Behm, Corby, Dellone, Dunham, Herman, Leeder, O'Keefe and Thrane.

President pro tem Herman presided.

The journal of the preceding meeting was read and approved.

From the mayor, appointing Mr. John F. Daily sewer contractor, vice Thos. J. Conway removed.

The mayor's communication read as follows:

OMAHA, July 25, 1882.

Gentlemen of the City Council:

The city engineer and chairman of the board of public works called upon me this morning and requested me to appoint a sewer inspector in place of Mr. Thomas J. Conway.

They charge Mr. Conway with failing to do his duty, in that he has a copy of contract, full authority, and is instructed to have the work done according to specifications, and that he has admitted to the chairman of the board that in many respects the work has not been done as it should have been.

This being the first complaint made to me, I suggested and was inclined to notify Mr. Conway of the charges, but the city engineer and chairman of the board say it would be useless. I am informed by Mr. Croughan that the board of public works are a unit in requesting the removal of Mr. Conway.

Therefore I appoint Mr. John F. Daily, a gentleman whom the board recommends and whom I know to be fully competent to discharge the duties required. If the city engineer or the chairman of the board are present when this communication is read, I would suggest that the council ask them to fully explain the matter.

Very respectfully, J. E. Boyd.

On motion Mr. Jas. Croughan, chairman of the board of public works, was asked to explain the removal of Mr. Conway.

Mr. Croughan stated that the work done was not satisfactory, and that he had said so to the inspector. He thought the best interests of the city demanded a change.

The city engineer said that the work was carried on well for the first two weeks, and then his attention was taken up with other matters, but the work done of late he did not consider as satisfactory. He acquiesced with the board in asking his removal. On motion the appointment was confirmed.

From the mayor, approving certain ordinances. Filed.

From the mayor, appointing D. C. Harper special policeman, to act on the premises of C. F. Goodman and vicinity, without compensation. Confirmed.

Mr. Kaufmann having been called away by telegram was excused for the evening.

The report of the city engineer as to the drainage of the North Omaha sloughs was referred.

From the city engineer asking leave of absence. Granted.

From the city engineer in regard to the grading of St. Mary's avenue. The total cost would be $2,340, involving a tax of thirty cents per front foot. Referred.

From same in regard to proposed Harny street grade. Total cost $5,000; city's share $2,500. Referred.

From Ferdinand Streitz and others, asking for the improvement of Walnut street, between Bluff and Summit streets. Referred.

From Geo. A. Hoagland et al., asking that the B. & M. and O. & S. W. railways be allowed to grade Farnham street as provided in ordinance "403" in the city jail.

Last summer a series of robberies took place at Lake Minnetonka, the guests at the Minnetonka hotel being the principal sufferers. Suspicion finally led to a certain woman, whose reputation was not the best, being watched and the matter being taken in hand by the marshal of Winona, the suspected party was tracked to a ranch in southern Nebraska, where she was visiting friends. The marshal followed her and arrested her yesterday morning. On her person was found $350 in cash and a lot of jewelry, and her trunk was full of silk dresses. She was brought to Omaha last evening and lodged in the city jail, and will be taken back to Minnesota to-day.

WILLIAMS' WEDDING.

August Williams and Clara Maylander Are Matrimonially Hooked.

A Lively Wedding on Jackson Street.

Yesterday some more of Cupid's work was effected in this city, the high contracting parties being the August Williams and Miss Clara Maylander, daughter of G. A. Maylander, Rev. Father Gausler of St. Mary Magdalene, tying the matrimonial knot.

Mr. August Williams, the groom, familiarly known as Gus Williams, is twenty-one years of age, and is the assistant foreman of the hook and ladder company No. 1, in which company he has been two years and a half. He has also been in the employ of Paxton & Gallagher over two years. The bride, who is 18 years of age, is the daughter of Mr. P. Maylander, of Peru, Illinois, and is a very charming lady.

At present the happy pair are located on Jackson street between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, and a Bee reporter happening to call in was shown the presents which were both elegant and useful. The company presented the young couple with a very handsome marble table, which bore the following inscription: "Presented to Mr. and Mrs. Gus Williams by the Pioneer hook and ladder company No. 1. May your wedded life be long, happy and prosperous in the sincere wish of your friends and brother firemen." There were also two very appropriate sketches pencilled out on the table which were certainly very unique in design.

Among the other presents were the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Keosauqua, a plated cake basket; Mr. Louis Krotzsch, a pickle dish; Miss Lizzie Koester, silver butter dish; Frank H. Koester, silver caddy; Miss Keeler, set of vases; Mr. and Mrs. Spellman, print stand and set of napkins; Mrs. T. & H. Drexel, set of flat irons; Mr. and Mrs. Anton Beunheimer, handsome china tea set; Mrs. Emma Shindler, set of glassware; Miss Lizzie Metzger, glass dish; Mrs. August Williams, a set of jewelry; Mr. Joseph Maylander, a set of jewelry; Mrs. Bucky and daughter, a handsome center table. The groom presented his bride with a very fine diamond ring.

The Pioneer hook and ladder company convened a special meeting in honor of the marriage of one of their members, and a lively meeting was held in Ed. Wittig's headquarters.

After congratulations had been freely and heartily expressed to the newly married brother some presentations were then made.

Mr. Charles Fisher, the foreman of the company, presented the president with a new belt and front and created much amusement by the delivery of a very humorous speech. Judge Benke was delegated to make the presentation to the foreman, Mr. Charles Fisher, which he did, at the same time expressing the great pleasure it gave him to make the presentation in a very witty speech which evoked roars of laughter. Chief Butler also made a very excellent speech. In the course of which he complimented the hooks on the efficient service in which they at all times rendered the community whenever their duty called them out. A very fine spread was prepared by the jolly, jovial host, Ed Wittig, who kept the boys alive all the evening with his funny sayings and corny jokes.

Mr. Mitchell also rendered efficient service in keeping the boys from going to sleep.

Later on in the evening the company engaged the little Bavarian band to serenade the happy couple, which they did in a lively style, and the party then separated.

O. P. L. U. An Enthusiastic Meeting in Clark's Hall Last Night.

The Omaha protective labor union held an open meeting last night at Clark's hall, at which there was a fair attendance. Mr. Charles Paxton presided and Mr. Pat Horan acted as secretary.

Loud cries being raised for Edward Walsh, he mounted the rostrum and delivered a very sensible and forcible speech, in the course of which he said he understood the meeting was called for the purpose of discussing subjects of importance to the labor interest, and he thought the most important subject for the workmen to consider was organization. Without organization they could effect nothing, but with united effort they had a great power at their command.

He urged the workmen to watch and take every opportunity to be prepared to meet the enemy which they would have to encounter this fall and that was Capital. He cautioned them against selling their votes for a few paltry dollars, reminding them that when they did so they not only sold their own rights, but that of their children and children's children.

Mr. Kilgoran, of Council Bluffs, also delivered a very able address which was listened to with much attention and was loudly applauded. Several short speeches were made by one of the members and a vote of thanks was passed. Mr. Kilgoran terminated the proceedings.

Something Worth Seeing.

W. W. Cole's Great Shows contain the most renowned corps of leapers the world has ever seen, the most beautiful women bicyclists, the most irresistible brotherhood of clowns. Earnest with his ethereal asses, Tom McIntyre, sage and singer, James Murray, the greatest clown of the generation, Johnny Muris, philosopher and Johnny fellow, and that immortal quintette of rib-tickers, Evans, Longmyre, Cassell, Richardson, and Cooke. It is to make men laugh by the mission of goodness, then, the heroes of this brotherhood are angels in motley. We shall hear their wings rustle in Omaha on the 31st of this month. In this instance we shall not entertain angels unwares.
