STOCKS.

In the morning stocks opened weak, and under a sharp drive against some leading shares, prices yielded ½@1½ per cent. Subsequently the pressure to sell abated, and after the first board there was an increased demand for nearly everything on the active list, which carried prices up rapidly, the market closing at the highest point. The advance ranged from ½@3½ per cent, and was led by Texas Pacific and Lake Shore.

The following were the closing bids:

DENVER'S BIG SHOW.

Preparations for the Opening of the Exposition.

Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

DENVER, July 27.—Preparations for the exposition which begins next Tuesday are quite active. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe have landed a car of exhibits, comprising everything that creeps the ground or flies the air between Kansas City and their termini. Grain and minerals and all the products will be most tastefully arranged. The machinery annex is going up rapidly. The driving wheel of the monster engine is now attached. The decorations in and outside of the exposition building are unique. Great masses of barrelled cactus for outdoor decoration have been received. The Colorado militia have arranged for a grand prize drill next Wednesday on the exposition grounds.

A WOMAN'S HEROISM.

During a Flood She Clings to a Swaying Tree and Saves Two Children.

Osceola Sentinel.

In connection with the White Breast Bottom, Iowa, storm, we wish to speak of the heroic conduct of Mrs. Carey, a young married lady, who was stopping with Mrs. Wiles for the night. About 9:30 or 10 p. m., the banks of the creek began to overflow, and soon the water began coming into the house, the whole bottom was a black and roaring body of water; the rain was pouring down in torrents; the cloud overhung the sky like a velvet curtain, and the thunder was terrific. Mrs. Carey took one little boy, aged about 9, and Mrs. Wiles' baby, but 6 weeks old, left the house and started for the high ground. Reaching the garden fence, perhaps 100 feet from the house, she found the current so strong that she could not keep her footing. Her clothes became entangled in a barb wire fence.

Fortunately she was at the foot of a tree. Helping the boy to climb the tree she handed him the baby to hold a moment. The waters were raging all about her, and were rapidly rising. She must act quickly. With great presences of mind she disengaged herself by tearing her dress from her person, and swung herself into the tree. Assisting the boy to climb further up she took the baby and held it and herself by one foot and one hand to that swaying tree for three long h
