CLOSE TO THE BRINK.

A Stranger at the Revere House Takes too Much Laudanum.

He is Snatched From Death Just in Time.

On Wednesday night a stranger arrived in the city and registered at the Revere house as F. J. Smith, Davenport. After going out upon the streets for a time he returned, and with simply a request that he be shown to his room, retired. Yesterday morning one of the employes passing the door of the room had his attention attracted by a strange groaning noise, and opening the door found Smith lying upon the bed in an apparent stupor, and breathing in a strange, deathly sort of a manner.

In the treatment of the case, a suggestion given by a Omaha physician at the late homeopathic convention in this city was followed up, it being the use of ice to secure the nervous shock so necessary in rousing a patient from the stupefying influence of such a position. Besides ice in the mouth, at the back of the neck, ice was introduced in the rectum, and the new treatment seemed to work like a charm, producing very satisfactory results.

Yesterday forenoon Allen Ross was again brought before Justice Frainey on the old rape case, for which he has been laying in jail for some time, while the case has been continued and continued again. The first few times that the case was set the step-daughter who claimed to have been the victim of Ross' passion was on hand to testify, but attempts were made even then by Ross and his wife to get her to leave or not testify, and it was then predicted that when the case came to a trial the girl would be missing, and the case dropped through.

Yesterday Justice Abbott gave his decision in the case of the Peck boys, who stood charged with having so injured Charlie Bartlett in a school-boy row as to cause his death. The evidence on the part of the prosecution consisted mainly of statements made by the deceased boy's grandmother, as to what the boy told her of the difficulty, he claiming that the Peck boys pounded and kicked him. One boy testified that he saw the scuffle at a distance, and that he thought it was the Peck boys. Then there was introduced some statements made by the Peck boys to others, which was claimed to be partial admissions.

On the other hand there was Thomas Brougham, who saw the row and ran up to the boys and separated them. He was positive that it was not the Peck boys, but two other boys, cousins of the Bartlett boy. It was also shown by Mrs. Peck that the boys always returned home immediately from school and did not come through the alley in which the difficulty occurred. There was much evidence introduced also in regard to the injuries. It appeared there was no way of determining whether they resulted from external blows or from some disease or internal arrangement. In fact, the real cause was only to be conjectured.

Trade Letter. Brockton, Mass., July 13, 1882. Z. T. Lindsey & Co., Council Bluffs, Ia.

Dear Sirs:—Replying to your esteemed favor of the 5th inst., will say that it is a fact that the advance in the price of Calf Skins, Sole Leather, and most every kind of Shoe Stock, taken in connection with the advances for labor we have been obliged to concede to workmen, has increased in no small degree the cost of manufacturing. Notwithstanding which fact we are pleased to say your order, given us early in the season, will be filled at the old prices; and we hope, by being diligently alive to the requirements of the demand for a really first-class article, to supply you with a BETTER line of goods than we have ever given you heretofore. Our purchase of both French and domestic Calf Skins, as well as a large supply of Oak-tanned Sole Leather, were made very early in the season which, being bought at former prices, relieves us in a great degree of the increased cost of production that many manufacturers are obliged to sustain in filling their orders taken early. Your whole order for the coming fall season is well in hand, and will be shipped at an early date. We desire to call the attention of those who use our goods, through the medium of your house, to our new styles in both Hand and Machine Sewed work. Our French, Medium French and London Toe goods are all made on entirely new lasts and new patterns, which we feel sure will meet with a just appreciation and the approbation of your customers, with the improvement we have made we expect to furnish a more nearly perfect fitting shoe than ever before. We assure you, gentlemen, that we will endeavor to give all your order our prompt and careful attention, and with these assurances we trust to merit the continuance of the many favors you have been pleased to bestow upon us, and, awaiting your further commands, we are, Respectfully yours, STACY, ADAMS & CO.
