WASHINGTON, August 2,-The general feeling among the unprejudiced and thinking men is that to-day's work has been a bad one for the republican party. Even the men who voted for the passage of the bill over the veto, or many of them, admit that it is bad for the party, but say they did not dare to vote against it, as their districts had large interests in the passage of the bill. SALONICA TROOPS TO THE FRONT. CONSTANTINOPLE, August 2. - It has been definitely resolved not to send any troops from here or from the Dardanells to Egypt, but three battalions will leave Salonica on Thursday. Twenty seven ships are being prepared for troops at the arsenal. The total naval force consists of fifteen war vessels. The Porte has intelligence from Suez that the British are projecting its occupation. THE WILEY PORTE.

News is informed that the government possesses evidence of the complicity of the porte with Arabi Pasha both before and after the latters assumption of active hostility toward England and the Khedive and documents on the subject may eventually be submitted to parliament. This continues to be the standpoint of Russia, who aims to induce Great Britain to join in the European pragramme and combine her action with that of the Porte.

DIVIDING THE QUESTION.

BERLIN, August 3 .- It is reported the powers are willing to leave the Egyptian question as distinguished frota the question of the Suez canal, between Turkey and England, subject to the final assent of Europe. ANOTHER BRITEMO NOTE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 2. - The British ambassador has sent another note to the porte, insisting upon the issuance of a proclamation declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel and stating that otherwise the landing of Turkish roops in Egypt cannot take place, He still hopes the proclamation will be made before or at the moment of the arrival of Turkish troops in Egypt.

LONDON, August 2.- The Daily tion and 1,800 troops, will leave Thursday or Friday for Egypt.

> THE CONFERENCE. At the sitting of the conference today, Onov, Russian representative, and Said Pasha, Turkish delegate, made declarations on behalf of their respective governments. Lord Dufferin explained England's action at Alexandria. He said the forts had been destroyed solely as a measure of defense, and the steps which followed were necessary for order. Eugland's sole object was to restore peace and man troops under command of Gen. order, to secure free navigation of the Suez canal and restore the authority of the khedive. While reserving the liber'y of action, events might render it necessary for England to accept the co-operation of any bark supplimentary troops already on board for the Levant naval division. A CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK.
