

THE THIRD PARTY.

The Imported Cause of the Sachs Imbrolio.

A Gay Gentleman from Los Angeles.

How the Friend Became an Enemy and Wooded the Wife, and the Husband Punished the Friend.

San Francisco Chronicle.

This shooting by Samuel L. Sachs of his wife, at their residence on Van Ness avenue, Wednesday morning, continued to be a topic of interest yesterday, and comments and speculations regarding the root of the trouble were numerous.

PART LIVING.

Even $500 a month here proved inadequate to pay the expenses of Cook's fast life, and one quiet afternoon not three months ago he arose from a poker game in a first-class market street hotel with his pockets innocent of cash and with his fine gold watch and chain and diamond ring pledged to another player for nearly $250.

Accusation and Denial. This she indignantly denied and a quarrel followed, which ended in her receiving the beating, of which mention has already been made.

The Marital Avenger. The bearer of the invitation reached No. 522 shortly after 8 o'clock, and at once became aware that something was wrong.

A Fierce Attack. Failing in his object, his rage led him to kick the kneeling man in the face, following it up with a storm of blows, until arrested by the messenger.

pair of side-whiskers, but was unable to gain admittance. Sunday morning Officer Weather was encountered him on Kearney street, looking haggard and wild, as if he had been drinking heavily.

Mrs. Sachs was resting rather easily yesterday, the wound in the arm was a little better. Her nervous system is badly shattered, however, and it will probably be days before she will be able to be out.

Not For a Fortune. "Phew" I wouldn't marry her if she'd a fortune. Poor girl, she'd be all right if she took Spina's Bitters, the best thing in the world for offensive breathing.

SPRIT SPRING. One of the Wonders of Western Kansas.

The traveler over Western Kansas is impressed with the immensity of the plains, which derive an interest from their nakedness, and possess in some degree the solemn grandeur of the ocean.

The Bridgeport road I came upon a negro squatter. The cabin was a structure of poles which a man could have pushed over, and the roof was simply a lot of straw and weeds and bushes thrown upon the rafters and held down by large limbs.

Ne Whiskey!

Brown's Iron Bitters is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

Brown's Iron Bitters is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. Rice, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cm., O., Nov. 16, 1881. Gents.—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

Brown's Iron Bitters has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

Burdock Blood Bitters. Dr. Gibbs, of Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Your Burdock Blood Bitters, in chronic disease of the blood, liver and kidneys, have been signally marked with success. I have used them myself with best results, for torpidity of the liver, and in case of a friend of mine suffering from dropsy, the effect was marvellous."

Mr. Noah Bates, Elmira, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I had an attack of bilious fever, and never fully recovered. My digestive organs were weakened, and I would be completely prostrated for days. After using two bottles of your Burdock Blood Bitters the improvement was so visible that I was astonished. I can now, though 61 years of age, do a fair and reasonable day's work."
