MINOR MENTIONS.

—Sherraden makes photographs.
—The new fire alarm boxes will probably be put in to-day, at least some of them.
—L. B. Cousins has a car load of coals for sale by the wagon load. Address him at P. O. box 789.
—The farmers' alliance is to hold a convention here to-day.

—Don't fail to take in the base ball game this afternoon.
—Neals sent one of its citizens to the jail here yesterday to spend three days for disturbing the peace.

—Seaman has removed his paper, book and stationery stock to No. 405 Broadway, next door to Harkness, Orcutt & Co.

—Water pipes are being laid in the vicinity of the corner of Eighth street and Sixth avenue.

—Justice Abbott yesterday tied the knot which made Augusta Granatien to Mrs. Carl Peterson.

—Mueller has bought the finest lot (about one hundred and fifty cases) of toys and holiday goods ever brought to the west for his wholesale trade.

—Nettie Harris, the Streetville shooter, has not been found by the officers, who want her for another assault. It is said that she has skipped.

—Thomas Brown was yesterday lifted out of the common list of drunks, by being noted as the only one before the superior court yesterday. He was not charged extra, however for the distinction.

—A very desirable piece of property for sale, on south side Sixth street, in the block opposite the new Opera House, on Broadway. Front twenty feet. Price three thousand dollars. Enquire at Bix office.

—The saloon men are coming into the city clerk's office in goodly numbers and depositing the $25 ball alias license for August. Marshal Jackson last month threw off his fees in cases of delinquents, but says he will do so no more, and those who don't pay before the 10th will have to pay his costs at least.

—It is not to be wondered at that arrests are few in number. There is little use in the police running any prisoners into the calaboose, unless they are so drunk, that is the prisoner, that they cannot roll off the floor and tumble out of jail. The calaboose can hardly hold a sober man.

—Complaints were yesterday lodged against Mrs. Herman, who lives on Eighth street, between Avenue C and D, charging her with cruelty to animals. It is claimed that she has been annoyed by dogs prowling about her premises that she used hot water in driving them away, and thus scalded two canines horribly. The owners of the dogs evidently mean for her to get redress in some other way than by cruelty to the animals.

—Last Monday evening the many friends of Miss Cora Marble gave her a pleasant surprise in honor of her nineteenth birthday, at her home on Tenth avenue. After recovering from her surprise all were entertained in a very agreeable manner. Music, dancing and various games were indulged in until a late hour. Miss Cora was also the recipient of many elegant presents from her admiring friends.

—C. F. Heiler, having got mad about the way a friend of his dropped a fat roll of money in a game the other night, interfered, and was promptly ejected from the room. Yesterday, in sweet revenge he entered complaint against Dan McGinnis and his dealer, John P. Brown, charging them with gambling. Brown turned the tables by entering complaint against Heiler for gambling. So the war has opened. The cases will be heard to-day.

—This afternoon the Union Pacific nine and Council Bluffs club are to have a special game at the base ball park of the latter. The amount of ill-deserved abuse which has been heaped upon the Council Bluffs club by base ballists of Omaha has stirred up the boys here and their friends, and they will do all they can to win the honors of the day from their strong competitors. It will be a lively game and worthy of a big crowd.

—The "colonel" has returned from his eastern trip, and finds that there is a larger number of anti-Anderson republicans than he supposed. He becomes alarmed and cracks his whip in a threatening way as he helps for the disaffected ones to get into line. "We would not wish to our worst enemy a worse fate politically than the bolting of Major Anderson will induce. No one can be expected to be honest and trusted by the party who betrays it in the hours when co-operation against the public enemy is peculiarly desirable. The gratification of revenge may be sweet, but the consequence will be bitter." The "colonel" must judge others by his own timidity if he fancies that such threats coming from him will frighten any one. He and his henchman have forced Anderson upon the party by unfair means, and then by use of bonds and all only get him nominated by one majority. Now this same Chapman has the audacity to crack his whip over the back of the party, and threaten all who will not submit. The threat will scare no one, and only seems to make the "colonel" ridiculous. Of course Chapman is desperate. He must secure the United States marshalship for another term, or take a terrible tumble, but in his desperation he should have a little more judgment than to try to frighten voters to support the military pin he has set up.

HIT UPON HATTON.

The Greenbackers Nominate a Candidate For the Ninth District.

The Convention Peaceful and the Platform a Stirring One.

The Doings in Detail.

In accordance with the published call the greenback-labor party held a convention at the court house in this city yesterday, at 11 o'clock, to nominate a candidate for the Ninth congressional district. H. C. Ayers, of the Hastings Plaindealer, called the convention to order, and read the call. There were about twenty-five present, the number of delegates to which the convention was entitled being forty-two, by the state distribution.

Mr. Ayers, in his opening, made a brief speech, in which he declared that the issue was one as vital as ever, and that while the greenbackers had been misrepresented and abused, yet they should feel no malice toward their villifiers. It was the fate of all reformers. It had been charged that the greenback party was simply the outcome of hard times. It was time that hard times had caused the people to study questions of economy and finance, but the principles which the party advocated were as essential to times of prosperity as times of depression. The greenbackers had won few successes so far as office-getting was concerned, but they were not after spoils, but were supporting principles which they believed right. He hoped that the convention would nominate a man of clear record, one who had not bought his nomination, and that the action of the convention would be harmonious and right.

Mr. Ayers, by the request of the committee, then called Mr. Keeler, of Fremont, to the front as temporary chairman. Mr. W. C. Cadwell, of Harrison county, was chosen temporary secretary.

On motion of Mr. Stanley, of Cass county, a committee of three were chosen on credentials, those appointed being Mr. Diabro, of Cass county, Mr. Potter, of Shelby, and Dr. Sperry, of Montgomery.

On motion of Mr. Buxtem, of Harrison county, a committee was named on permanent organization, the following being chosen: Mr. Harris, of Avoca, Mr. Stanley, of Lewis, Mr. Rensmeyer, of Mills.

On motion of Mr. Ayres, a committee of one from each county was chosen on resolutions, as follows: Audubon, — Cass—Thomas Meredith. Crawford, — Harrison—Henry Birdsall. Harrison—S. P. Buxton. Mills—H. C. Ayres. Montgomery—George Dennis. Pottawattamie—Mr. Harris. Shelby—Dr. Cartlich.

An adjournment was taken until 1:30 p. m.

On reassembling in the afternoon, the committee on credentials reported the following number of delegates present: Harrison county, 8; Pottawattamie, 4; Cass, 5; Mills, 4; Shelby, 2; Montgomery, 6; Fremont, 2.

Audubon and Crawford were unrepresented. The committee on permanent organization reported in favor of making the temporary officers permanent ones, which report was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Stanley, of Cass, the convention proceeded to ballot for candidate for congress from the Ninth district.

Mr. Stanley proposed the name of H. C. Ayers. M. H. Coltry, of Harrison, presented the name of D. P. Wilson, and urged him as a farmer, worthy of the position and representing the labor interests. Dr. Sperry said he believed in putting in a farmer, that the conflict was between labor and capital and labor should be represented in the legislative hall. Zenos Brown also urged that labor should be represented and its rights protected. In view of these facts he presented the name of Abraham Harris, whom he described not as a farmer, but a butcher, who had spent time and money in working for the principles of the party. Mr. Meredith was in favor of Mr. Harris on some accounts, but did not believe in putting such good material to the front to be slaughtered, and doubted whether he was eloquent enough on the stump to contest with the eloquent speakers of other parties. Mr. H. C. Ayers, stated that he had reasons why he did not care to have his name used, and why he did not care to make the run. He did not want the convention to understand that he was a farmer, or at least that that was his principal business. He did some farming, but the newspaper business was his chief one, with occasionally a little dash at the law business. He presented the name of Dr. J. B. Hatton, of Red Oak, who while he was a professional man, yet he was a laboring man. Mr. Taft urged the name of Mr. Ayers.

M. H. Coltry and Mr. Taft were named as tellers. The first ballot which was an informal one resulted: Harrison county—Wilson 1, Ayres 3, Hatton 1.

Pottawattamie—Harris 4. Cass—Ayres 4. Mills—Ayres 4, Hatton 1. Shelby—Hatton 4. Montgomery—Hatton 7. Fremont—Harris 6. The total showed 35 votes, and 18 necessary to a choice, of which Wilson received 11, Ayres 11, Harris 10, and Hatton 13.

A motion to make Dr. Hatton the nominee by acclamation and unanimously, was made by Mr. Harris, and withdrawn by Mr. Harris, owing to objections being made as to the action being too hasty. A formal ballot was then taken, resulting as follows: Harrison—Ayres 4, Hatton 1. Pottawattamie—Harris 4. Cass—Ayres 3, Hatton 1. Mills—Hatton 5.

Shelby—Hatton 4. Montgomery—Wilson 1, Hatton 6. Fremont—Harris 6. The total gave Hatton 17, Harris 10, Ayres 7, Wilson 1. A second formal ballot was taken resulting: Harrison—Ayres 3, Harris 1, Hatton 1.

Pottawattamie—Harris 4. Cass—Hatton 4. Mills—Ayres 2, Harris 1, Hatton 2. Shelby—Hatton 4. Montgomery—Harris 2, Hatton 5. Fremont—Hatton 6.

This gave Dr. J. B. Hatton 22, A. Harris 8, and H. C. Ayres 5. The nomination of Dr. Hatton was then made unanimous, which called forth the first applause the convention had indulged in.

The following platform was then adopted, as reported by the committee appointed for that purpose: 1. The national party of the Ninth congressional district of Iowa, in convention assembled, heartily endorse the platform of the party as adopted by the state convention at Des Moines on the 9th of June, 1882.

2. We denounce the repeal of the so-called granger railroad law, fixing maximum rates in this state, as an odious crime against the state, whereby a wholesome measure of protection to the people was stolen by republican politicians at the instance of a railway lobby, and for the benefit of railway corporations.

3. We declare that the creation of the railroad commission of this state was a base and shameful fraud upon the people by which their vital interests were surrendered into the hands of railroad tools (called commissioners) paid for their pretended services by the railroads, bribed with railroad passes, having no power but the power to draw their pay, and with no inclination to correct railroad abuses, or relieve from railroad wrongs.

4. We therefore demand that the governor shall call an immediate session of the general assembly and recommend the abolition of this abominable railroad commission, and the restoration of the old law, fixing maximum tariffs for railroad freight and passenger and for the enactment of such other legislation as the present emergency may require and the people generally and urgently demand.

5. We demand that all corporations for pecuniary profit shall be required to pay taxes, like private individuals, on the actual value of their property.

6. We demand congressional legislation to regulate commerce among the several states, and from the national and state legislatures such measures for railroad control as will prevent discrimination against persons and places, and secure reasonable and impartial charges for railroad service, based on the cost of construction and equipment, with liberal pay for the labor, employed in the performance of such service.

7. We pledge ourselves to go before the people of this district and thoroughly expose the railroad abuses herein denounced, and that we will do our utmost to convey to the public the information upon these subjects which the old party papers studiously, persistently and wilfully conceal.

8. We invite the co-operation of all men to assist us in establishing anti-monopoly principles, and in public affairs the rule of equal rights to all, and special privileges to none.

The following were chosen as the congressional district campaign committee, one from each county: Fremont—Henry Vincent, of Taylor. Mills—H. C. Ayers, of Hastings. Montgomery—William Hall, of Red Oak.

Cass—Daniel Stanley, of Lewis. Pottawattamie—John A. Churchill, Council Bluffs.

Harrison—W. C. Cadwell, Logan. Shelby—J. W. Cartlich, Harlan. Crawford—Wm. Anderson, Vail. Audubon—Capt. Hanna, Atlantic.

The convention throughout was as quiet and peaceful as a summer's day, and was about as devoid of enthusiasm. The work being thus accomplished, it was decided that in case Dr. Hatton should decline to accept the nomination, the committee should have the power of naming another candidate. The convention then adjourned.

The committee held a brief meeting after the close of the convention, and elected as their chairman H. C. Ayers, of Hastings, and as secretary W. C. Cadwell, of Logan.

PERSONAL.

Hon. W. F. Sapp has returned from his eastern trip.

D. Evans and wife, of El Paso, Ill., are among the guests of the Ogo house.

J. H. Hills and wife, of Vernon, Oneida county, New York, are visiting the city. Ex-Alderman Churchill intends starting south to-day, expecting to visit Chattanooga and other points, and will look after the stock for his pump factory.

Judge Aylesworth improved the dullness of court yesterday to pay a visit to Omaha. He expects within a day or two to start on a more extended trip to Dakota, and will be absent a week or ten days.

Dr. Sinton's father, from Ithaca, N. Y., is in the city on a visit to his son, and expects before returning home to go to Colorado Springs to visit another son located there.

The genial countenance of H. F. Strickling, representing the wholesale house of Sherman Bros. & Co., called on his many business friends here yesterday. He is very boastful of as pretty sample cases as ever "traveling man" carried.

James A. Jackson, one of the cattle kings of the west, a brother of Wills Jackson, is spending some time in the city and meets old friends on every hand. He is thinking of again settling here, and making Council Bluffs once more his home. His son, Arthur Jackson, is with him.

Not To-night.

Detroit Free Press.

Somebody hit Elder Toots in the neck with a peach-stone and he awoke and offered a resolution to the effect that America entered her solemn protest against the action of the British in Egypt.

"De rascalusian am entirely out of order," replied the president as he tossed it into the wood-box. "What goes on over de sea am none o' our business 'tall. If de British want to lick de Turks, or de Turks want to lick de British, dat's nuffin to us, Elder Toots!"

"Yes, sah."

"Has you got a cabbage patch dis 'yar?"

"Yes, sah."

"Den you 'tend right to yer cabbage an' let de British government 'tend to Egypt. When you cum to our meetin' remember dat you have de asthma an' don't try to talk too loud nor too much."

The elder sat down in one time and three motions, and in forty seconds had resumed his nap.
