COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Tuesday Morning, Aug. 8.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 20 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per Year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. M. G. GRIFFIN, Manager. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

Great bargains at Blies'. J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. A new line of neckwear at Blies'. The roads leading in from the country are in a horrible condition, owing to no much rain of late. A full line of silk and kid gloves at Blies'. Sherraden makes photographs. The county teachers' institute has opened its third week, and still the interest seems to keep up. Go to Blies' for your gloves. The latest wedding permit is for Lawrence J. Larson and Emma Carolina Erbery to stand up and join hands. Haircloth skirts and bustles at Blies'. L. B. Cousins has a car load of coils for sale by the wagon load. Address him at P. O. box 789. The new furniture factory is a busy place, and the quality and finish of the goods now being made there indicates that it will prove a permanent as well as enterprising institution. Seeman has removed his paper, book and stationery stock to No. 405 Broadway, next door to Harkness, Orcutt & Co. A very desirable piece of property for sale, on south side of Sixth street, in the block opposite the new Opera House, on Broadway. Front twenty feet. Price three thousand dollars. Enquire at Box office. The new freight house of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road is about completed, and is spacious and convenient. The building of the new passenger depot will follow right along. The sad news reached here yesterday of the death of Frank Newell, son of H. O. Newell, of Red Oak, who formerly resided here. His many friends here will sympathize deeply with him in his bereavement. An old lady living alone on the bottom is reported as having an experience with a burglar or prowler Sunday night, and to have wailed the intruder over the head with a club, causing him to scamper away lively. Yesterday a mildly insane woman was brought to the jail here from Washington township, her name was Laura J. Fleisher. She was very musically inclined and kept singing while she was not yelling, until the care of the court house attaches were almost worn out. She was last evening taken to the asylum where she has been once before under treatment. The thoughtlessness and selfishness of men is shown often at the postoffice by those who stand looking against the boxes, idly reading their letters or waiting for more mail, and completely obstructing the vision of others who wait to peep into their own boxes. If men must lean, while waiting in the postoffice, they should take to the wall on the other side. There was quite a scene in Harle, McKune & Co.'s drug store yesterday, by an incident caused by one of the clerk's careless use of a lantern. The flames caught some clothing hanging beside the elevator, and blazed up brightly until the clerk suppressed it by forming a bucket brigade. The loss was only nominal, but for a few minutes a bad conflagration was threatened. August Dietze, arrested for entering T. A. Walker's house, is still confined at the jail, the question of his sanity not having been satisfactorily determined, though there is a seeming preponderance of evidence that he is really insane and not shamming it. He is evidently suffering from fever, but the report that he is suffering from loathsome disease is without foundation. W. F. Dodge, who has served as yardmaster of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad for twenty years, yesterday severed his connection with that company to accept a higher position with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad. His employes presented him on leaving the road with an elegant watch-case, a token of the highest appreciation in which he was held by all. The C., M. & St. P. road has surely gained a trusty and efficient man. A CARD.—I have for sale or trade cheap, one 8-room house, $8,000; one 2-room house, $250; one 6-room house, $1,800; two store rooms, $5,000; 200 acres of land; 19 acres of land, improved, at the head of Broadway in the city, $2,800; a lot on Main street, $750; 100 cheap lots; beautiful residence lots, $0 each, nothing down and $3 per month; 43 acres improved, in two miles of the city, $30 per acre; 160, partly improved, choice land within nine miles of B. & M. R. R. in Nebraska, price $5.50 per acre. Also nice native post-farmers, I have 30,000 seasonal posts, that must be sold at once, if only for half-price; call and get a bargain. Also a 6-room house and a store room for rent. H. MAYER VAUGHAN, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Anyone stepping into Justice Frainey's court yesterday would have imagined a democratic caucus was in session, but it was only the settling of a little difference between J. C. Morgan and W. R. Vaughan. The former was suing the latter for a subscription bill to his Evening Glimmer, while the latter set up in defense that he supposed the patent medicine sheet was sent him complimentary, though he couldn't see how it was any compliment to receive it. He further set up that he had expended about $140 in electioneering for Morgan when the latter ran for the legislature. Vaughan threw off an even hundred, however, and only made the counter claim $40, that being for teams supplied on Morgan's order and in his interest to carry voters to the First ward polls. George Holmes Esq., appeared as Morgan's attorney, and William Mynter as Vaughan's, and with a democratic police, and several democratic witnesses and

SEEK AT LONG RANGE.

Another Glimpse at the Political Situation in this Congressional District. Newspaper organs of the grand old party in the Council Bluffs, Iowa, district have discovered that the charges against the gallant Major Anderson, candidate for congress, cannot be ignored. He is that patriot who is said to have signed a bond previous to the meeting of the convention in which he was nominated, binding himself to secure a postoffice for a certain man whose support he desired, or failing in that, to pay him in lawful money the sum of $1,000. The program of the convention was in session this discussion transaction was fully exposed, but it suited the supporters of the major to ignore the matter. Now, however, after six or eight weeks, a dissatisfaction with the candidate is showing itself among a few of the more intelligent citizens of the district, and the organs which at first passed Anderson's transactions by in silence have been compelled to come to the rescue of that gentleman as well as the grand old party aforesaid. The adoption of the prohibition amendment to the state constitution will have a very damaging effect on the republican candidates for congress in some of the districts, and this makes it a matter of great importance that the faithful shall not be permitted to be turned away from their nominating in obedience to the mouthpiece of men who believe that the buying and selling of offices should be a penitentiary offense. Major Anderson is therefore receiving the unbounded sympathy and the heartiest support of every truly loyal organ in Iowa. More than this, he is defended by many of them in his bond transaction and he is made out by the appearance of frequent paragraphs in the organs to the effect that the real facts as to the bond will not be made public by the major until the solid south has again been crushed, and the red-shirted and red-handed oppressors of the Senegambian subdued for another period of two years. When all this shall have been done Major Anderson proposes to tell all about it. This is not fancy, but fact. It represents faithfully the attitude of the republican party in the Council Bluffs district towards its candidate. A man charged on credible evidence with gross corruption and bribery finds his present defense in an idiotic pretense that the country is in danger, and that when it shall have been saved he will find time for explanation. Unfortunately this device has been successful many times of late years, and this fact more than anything else proves the boasted ignorance and bigotry of political majorities in America.—Chicago Times. The Times, with its usual insouciant policy, slaps right and left without waiting to get at the full facts. The republican party of this district is deserving of sympathy rather than of criticism, in having forced upon it by one special clique a candidate over whom hangs such serious charges of corruption, whose nomination was secured by such unavory methods, and who even then got it by only one majority. The organs, which are trying to smother the charges, do not truly represent the republican party of this district. The real republicans favor the fullest and freest investigation of Anderson's character and record, and insist on having some more satisfactory explanations than those thus offered. True republicans in this district do not want the glorious party record besmirched and befouled by attempts to bolster up candidates who dishonor it. It is only the bosses and the clique who are thus willing to sacrifice party honor for personal ambition, and they are the ones who should be slapped by The Times instead of the party as a whole.

History in Brief.

In spite of threats, spying flunkies, paid bambuzzles, etc., our business history in Council Bluffs is satisfactory to us, and by attending strictly to our own business we hope to add to the volume of our trade year by year as we have done. Our facilities for buying and selling good Boots and Shoes cheap are not surpassed by any firm in the west. Try us once and if not used right and honest pass us by the next time. Z. T. LINDSEY & Co. Pulled from the breast, squeezed from the bottle, stomachs will sour and milk will curdle: Baby halloo! halloo! that's all right. Household rumbling heads in awful fright. Don't deny, 'twas thus with Victoria. Night was hideous without Castoria. When colic left, for peaceful slumber. All said their prayers and slept like thunder.

PERSONAL.

Col. A. Cochran has again to his ranch at Little Sioux. P. S. Wilson, of Cheyenne, was among the arrivals at the Ogden yesterday. C. R. Scott is enjoying a visit from his nephew R. A. Scott, of Ohio, who is also an attorney. Dr. Lawrence and family are reported as now on the briny deep en route for Europe. Rev. Father B. P. McMenomy has returned from a visit to Davenport and other places, partly on church business and partly in search of better health. Jacob Williams, of Omaha, spent Sunday in this city, visiting relatives and old friends, and yesterday attended to the removal of his furniture to his new house across the river. Hunt It Up. Hunt up our advertisement and read it, and oblige us. When you need Shoes call and examine our stock whether you wish to buy or not. Z. T. LINDSEY & Co. Our Glorious Independence. What can be more glorious than to be independent of self, of dirt, of dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, sick headaches, or other diseases emanating from the stomach. This can be easily gained by a timely use of CASTORIA. Price $1.00, trial to cents.

Transfer of Titles.

The following transfers of titles are reported as taken from the county records by J. W. Squire & Co., abstractors of title, real estate and loan agents, Council Bluffs: Green Bros. to Martin Barrett, the w 1/2 of sw 1/4 of section 11, town 76, range 38, $1,515. H. B. Scott to H. Cook, Jr., ne 1/4 of se 1/4 of section 33, town 76, range 42, $700. S. M. Ballard to W. W. Whipple, ne 1/4 of ne 1/4 and a 1/2 of ne 1/4, section 19, town 76, range 39, $3,360. Joseph Durrillinger, Broadway, Buffalo, was induced by his brother to try a bottle of Castoria for a sprained ankle; and with half a dozen applications he was enabled to walk round again right.

A Victimized Robber.

Thomas H. Reynolds, county clerk secretary of state, late deputy clerk of San Francisco, political bootlegger, tanner, miner, agriculturist, a good partner in a four-handed game, practical joker, and the only disciple of Isaac Walton who can't tell a lie—had an adventure yesterday. One man has been found who was able to

Reynolds produced ten American dollars; the agent called for more; a quarter eagle, and the fellow took aim at Tom's second diamond shirt stud. Reynolds fished a double eagle out of his right vest pocket; the robber put his finger on the trigger, and then doubting Thomas produced his watch, turned his pockets, and throwing down all he had cried out: "Forever and ever, amen—let me get up out of this: "I'm gracin' you do know it; get up. I guess I've done you some good anyhow, and as you seem to be sort of rusty in your prayers, I'll take this for my services. Get up on that buckboard, and drive on, right quick!"

Reynolds didn't wait a second order, but as he picked up the reins he couldn't resist the temptation to have the last word. "Say, you've got $50 out of me; now I'll bet you all there is in that valise against the fifty that is can name the next governor." "I don't want your dirty clothes; keep your old valise." "You're a smart road agent, you are; here's thirty-six ounces in gold in that valise." "Look here, Tom Reynolds; maybe you think I don't know you, but I do, and I wouldn't believe you if you said that leather bag was filled with diamonds. You jest go on and quit your jokin'." FACTS WORTH KNOWING.

Reynolds produced ten American dollars; the agent called for more; a quarter eagle, and the fellow took aim at Tom's second diamond shirt stud. Reynolds fished a double eagle out of his right vest pocket; the robber put his finger on the trigger, and then doubting Thomas produced his watch, turned his pockets, and throwing down all he had cried out: "Forever and ever, amen—let me get up out of this: "I'm gracin' you do know it; get up. I guess I've done you some good anyhow, and as you seem to be sort of rusty in your prayers, I'll take this for my services. Get up on that buckboard, and drive on, right quick!"
