Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. W. G. GRIFFIN, Manager. E. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

Great bargains at Elias'. J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. Everybody reads THE DAILY BEE.

Several of the city fathers yesterday morning visited the driving park and vicinity to look over the ground to see what is best to do in regard to the proposed widening of one street and accepting of another in its place.

Postmaster Armour desires not only that houses should be numbered, but also that the residents should begin having their letters directed to their houses, so that all may be got in readiness for the beginning of the carrier system.

There are still houses which are not numbered. It is a little thing to see to, but if everyone would attend to that little thing promptly it would be a great improvement and convenience.

Fred Kuhn, who was fined $5 and costs Monday last for whipping his wife seems to have not got quite enough revenge on his better half, but proceeded to thrash her again, since which she has kept out of the reach of the officers.

Charles West, who runs THE BEE ferry between here and Omaha, had a lively experience with Frank Hughes, the slayer of the old man on Monday.

In the matter of fences both about public and private property in this city there is a great chance for improvement.

WARD WARDENS.

They Conclude to Select an Oil Inspector For the City.

The Monthly Reports of City Officers and Other Interesting Items.

At the meeting of the city council Monday evening all the members were present and the mayor in the chair. After the reading of the minutes, the monthly bills were allowed and petitions presented.

Among the petition was one signed by several leading business houses requesting the council to appoint an oil inspector, in accordance with the law, the petition being signed by more than the required five.

A petition was presented in behalf of Thomas Buckner to be appointed as city scavenger. Laid over until the next meeting.

A petition of J. T. Hart, H. C. Cory, A. B. Walker and others for the establishment of an alley in block 10, Jefferson & Hyatt's subdivision, was referred.

A communication of the water works company was presented, calling the council's attention to the law requiring the city to designate such property as was benefited by the water works, and subject, therefore, to a special tax.

The same attorney also appeared for Captain Williams, the city weighmaster, to protest against the council licensing for $10 other parties to weigh for the public.

A proposal was presented from John Short offering to settle a claim against the city for money paid Mrs. Crawford, instead of himself, on property condemned for Union avenue. Rejected.

The report of the city auditor showed that during July there had been 1,648 persons served with notices, 345 had paid, 449 had worked out their taxes, $54 had been secured by suits, and the total cash collected was $825.

$1,900 for damages done to lots by surface water; also a suit for $1,000 brought by Ellen O'Hearn against the city and Gunmonds & Taylor, for injuries sustained by falling through a cellarway. Referred.

The mayor announced that the plan adopted for the past house to be built by the city and county jointly, would necessitate an expenditure of $1,100, so that the city's one-third would be something above the $350 appropriated.

Alderman Sidentoph reported that the committee of the council had bargained with Peter Bechtel for the purchase of 128 feet of his property on Bryant street for $3,000.

At the meeting of the city council last night the ordinance in regard to licenses was amended so as to charge seventy-five dollars for each circuit performance. The tax levy for the year was fixed as follows: General fund, 10 mills; sewer, 2 mills; library fund, 1/2 mill; and judgment, 1/2 mill, making 17 mills.

There were a number of drunks and disorderlies who spent the night before the bars, and who appeared yesterday morning before the bar. Two of these were John Rachel and Chris. Christian, who were found with others on lower Main street engaged in a lively row.

A whole Hoghead was discharged yesterday. He was up for disturbing the peace; he having been in a row on lower Main street, but no witnesses coming to the front, he was let go.

J. J. Rudd, the good natured laundryman, was the victim of unfortunate circumstances, which brought him into court yesterday. The night before he was sitting in a saloon, playing cards and drinking beer with another man, until both were pretty mellow.

The Commissioners Looking Over the Ground for a Location. Yesterday the commissioners appointed to locate the new government building built here, arrived in the city, they being J. P. Burrows, of Clarinda, chairman; W. M. Wilson, of Ansonia, and James M. Pierce, of Bedford.

look at other property probably besides what is already named, and receive other proposals if there be any. Joseph Durringer, Broadway, Buffalo, was induced by his brother to try FROMAN'S ELECTRIC OIL for a sprained ankle; and with half a dozen applications he was enabled to walk round again right.

Democratic Primaries. The democrats met last night to select eighteen delegates to the state and congressional convention, which meets at the court house to-morrow. The following are the delegates selected:

First ward--Norman Green, W. R. Vaughn, C. D. Walker, I. Boekempe. Second ward--Henry Wagner, Wm. Mynster, John Stagg, Robert Huntington, Thomas Bowman.

Third ward--John Dohany, L. Zornshel, Andy Graham, J. C. Morgan. Fourth ward--C. L. Mitchell, John J. Frayne, W. L. Biggs, W. C. James, J. F. Hart.

Our Glorious Independence. What can be more glorious than to be independent of suit rings, caused by dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, sick headache, or other diseases emanating from the stomach. This can be easily gained by a timely use of BRADDOCK'S BLOOD PURIFIER.

The Merry Hum of Sheaf and Shokels Near Woodbine, Iowa--Other Matters of News. Correspondence of The Bee. WOODBINE, Iowa, August 7, 1882.

Farmers in this vicinity rejoice in a bountiful harvest. The small grain is all out and in the shock, stacking is nearly done, and a few have thrashed from the shock. The yield is big and the quality excellent.

P. T. DeVold has sold his farm adjoining town. The sale of this place illustrates the advance in value of real estate. Three years ago it sold for two thousand dollars; DeVold sold it for three thousand, and Mrs. Stevens, the purchaser, has since been offered a nice profit for her bargain.

We had a sensation in social circles last week, caused by the marriage of Fred Forest and Miss Etta Jones. It was surprising because unexpected. Their many friends extend hearty congratulations, and our only wish is that they may live long and prosper.

Hon. Fairchild Andrus has purchased a lot and will build a residence and become a permanent and desirable inhabitant. Hon. D. C. Stanton, son of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, is spending the summer here. He makes an occasional trip to his brother's farm on the Pigeon creek.
